INTERMISSION

David Maslanka

A Child's Garden of Dreams

I. There is a desert on the moon where the dreamer sinks so deeply into the ground that she reaches Hell.

II. A drunken woman falls into the water and comes out renewed and sober.

III. A horde of animals frightens the girl. The animals increase to a tremendous size, and one of them devours the dreamer.

IV. A drop of water is seen as it appears when looked at through a microscope. The girl sees that the drop is full of tree branches. This portrays the origin of the world.

V. An ascent into Heaven where pagan dances are being celebrated; and a descent into Hell where angels are doing good deeds.

Kraig Alan Williams, conductor

Kraig Alan Williams is director of bands and associate professor of conducting at the University of Memphis. His duties include the artistic guidance of the University Wind Ensemble and Faculty Chamber Ensemble, and the administration of all aspects of a dynamic and comprehensive university band program. Other responsibilities include teaching undergraduate conducting and the mentoring of Masters and Doctoral students. Williams regularly conducts honor bands and is the conductor of the Memphis Area Youth Wind Ensemble. Prior to Memphis, Williams was on the faculty at Duke University serving as conductor of the Duke Wind Symphony and director of the Duke in Vienna program. He has led performances in Graz, Budapest, Malta and Prague and has made several appearances as guest conductor with the Dallas Wind Symphony.

Upcoming Events

August 6 • Parents' Day Concert

The Transylvania Symphonic Band will perform a free afternoon concert for parents and other guests at Whittington-Pfohl Auditorium.

August 7 • Season Finale Mahler's Symphony No. 6, Tragic

David Effron and the BMC Orchestra conclude the Music Center's 69th season with Mahler's Symphony No. 6, Tragic. One of Mahler's darkest works ever written, the fateful Sixth Symphony explores the fiery depths of damnation and hope for ultimate salvation. A special ten-foot extension will be added to the stage of Whittington-Pfohl Auditorium, bringing the orchestra closer to the audience while enhancing the acoustic power of more than 100 musicians joining forces for this monumental work.

Please Note: Latecomers will be seated at the House Manager's discretion. No cameras, tape recorders, smoking or food in the auditorium. Please switch off all cell phones, pagers and watch alarms prior to this performance. Restrooms are located at the rear of Whittington-Pfohl Auditorium in the Box Office Lobby, next to the refreshment stand and also in Thomas Hall.

The Brevard Music Center is grateful for the support received from the North Carolina General Assembly, the North Carolina Department of Cultural Resources and the North Carolina Arts Council.
