About the Performers

Gerard Floriano serves as artistic director of the Rochester Opera Factory and recently led the transition of the newly formed Mercury Opera Rochester, with whom he leads two productions this coming season. Floriano regularly guest conducts in Europe and has led performances in Krakow, Warsaw, Prague, Barcelona, Florence and Leipzig. He recently conducted the Orchestra di Vicenza with chorus and soloists from the Venice Opera in Mozart's Requiem.

An acclaimed and innovative programmer, Floriano is dedicated to educating young people. He leads the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra's annual educational series titled "Stars of Today with the Stars of Tomorrow." His children's programs "Music from Around the World and Hogwarts" and "Professor Poof's Magical Musical Ride" were premiered at the Brevard Music Center.

Under Floriano's leadership, the Greater Buffalo Youth Orchestra has become a premier training ensemble for talented young musicians in western New York. They have been invited to perform at both Carnegie Hall and Alice Tully Hall in New York City, and were chosen by the American Symphony Orchestra League for the Donald Thulean Conductors' Workshop in January of 2004. A graduate of the Eastman School of Music, Floriano resides in Rochester with his wife and three children.
