Voice and Piano

Andante With feeling

1. Do they think of me at home, Do they ever think of me? I who shared their every grief, I who mingled in their glee Have their hearts grown cold and strange, To the touch'd, Does a stranger wake the string? Will no kind forgiving word, Come a-came, But could never win their praise? I am happy by his side, And from one now doom'd to roam? I would give the world to know Do they think of me at cross the raging foam? Shall I never cease to sigh "Do they think of me at mine he'll never roam. But my heart will sadly ask, "Do they think of me at
