

Wanted: Highly motivated students to join Institute newspaper staff

The Rush needs writers, layout editors, photographers and graphics specialists who are team players, deadline conscious and willing to work long hours producing the Institute's newspaper in only three days!

To apply, students should complete this form and write a paragraph describing why they would be assets to The Rush staff. Experience with Macintosh computers and InDesign is desirable. Writers need to be able to take a story idea and develop it with little or no assistance and be capable of contacting and interviewing strangers, including prominent people.
