POLITICAL CRISIS

Slogans

The political slogans quoted in the November 1988 issue appeared in each issue of The Working People's Daily throughout the month.

Since Apr. 7, 1989 the The Working People's Daily has run a political slogan across the bottom of each front page:

Feb. 24-25: Maintain mutual respect, fraternity and equality among nationalities.

Feb. 26-Mar. 1: Road-building and bridge-construction; collective endeavour of all national races.

Mar. 2: 1990 Peasants Day

Mar. 3-4: The rising storm of genuine truth blows away the contamination of disinformation and rumours to reveal the bed-rock of authenticity.

Mar. 5-6: The Myanmar people are intense in their patriotism and will not tolerate bullying and domination of any kind.

Mar. 7: Is 'direct oppositional confrontation' tactic a democratic process? Do the people accept it?

Mar. 8,14,18-20: Only through our own strength, our own abilities and our own diligence can we build our nation!

Mar. 9,15,21: For the nation to develop and prosper, talk is not enough; work must also be efficiently and systematically carried out.

Mar. 10,16,22: The sweet taste of democracy may be savoured only through precise abidance of the law.

Mar. 11: Hoarding kitchen commodities is a root cause of high prices.

Mar. 12,17: Leashed you'll become like wayward hounds if misbegotten thoughts taint your views.

Mar. 13: Cultivate and breed as much as possible in every home garden plot.

Mar. 23-25: Crush all destructive elements!

Mar. 26: Down with all destructive elements above-ground and underground!

Mar. 27: 45th ANNIVERSARY ARMED FORCES DAY

Mar. 28: Only the people of Myanmar love Myanmar most. Love your motherland. Defend and protect her.

Mar. 29: Love your nationality, love your country. Preserve and uphold your culture.

Mar. 30: Oppose those who disturb peace and tranquillity! Crush those who mar the rule of law!

Mar. 31: Crush disturbance-makers and instigators. Expose rumour-mongers.

New Slogan-"Noble Desire"

Mar. 1-31: A new daily slogan, added in February on page one, reads:

Noble Desire

Although the State Law and Order Restoration Council has had to take over, due to unavoidable circumstances, the sovereign power of the State to prevent the Union from disintegration and for ensuring the safety and security of the lives, homes and property of the people, it wishes to retransfer State power to the people, in whom it was initially invested, through democratic means within the shortest time possible.

Therefore, the entire people are urged to give all their co-operation to ensure the rule of law and for prevalence of peace and tranquillity.

The Tatmadaw

(WPD 3/1-31)

Political Articles (Excerpts)

Following the pattern begun in October 1988, each issue contains lengthy feature articles, translated from Burmese, designed to bolster government views and policies. We note them briefly, with excerpts of particularly significant portions, but can provide copies if needed:

Feb. 25, Mar. 4,6: Come and take me away, by Soe Hla Thin (Kungyangoun). [Student among the guerrillas accuses DAB of atrocities and corruption.]

Feb. 25, Mar. 5,14-15: The tradition of Myanmar-Indian friendship and the falsehood spread by AIR, by Bo Thanmani. [(1) Sayadaw U Ottama and the Indian National Congress. (2) Bogyoke Aung San and India. (3) Nehru and Gen. Ne Win. Despite AIR, Prime Minister V.P. Singh "does not want to interfere in the domestic affairs of other nations." But All India Radio (AIR) "has become a much hated and despised...station as it has been broadcasting articles which are full of lies and falsehoods"]

Feb. 28: When blood speaks, by Khin Pyi Chit. [Kayins {Karens}, like all other Myanmar races, are of Mongolian stock and hence blood brothers.]

Feb. 25,27-28, Mar. 1-2,4,6-7,10-13,17-23: Bombay Burmah timber theft, KNU timber theft and associates of advisor Moynihan, by Bo Thanmani. [Cont. (12)-(14) British thefts of timber in 1885 and conspiracy to annex Burma; KNU timber smuggling today. (15) Recent victories over KNU; review of establishment of Karen State. (16) KNU activities. Why has Mr. Hermit Macdonald [sic] written lies about logging in the Far Eastern Economic Review? (17) Myanmar anti-narcotics efforts. 109 security force people have been killed and 571 wounded in anti-narcotics activities. "Hermit Macdonald is one of the accomplices of advisor Moynihan and his associates in KNU timber theft case." (18-19) Karens' loyalty to British colonialists.

[(20) "The KNU insurgents are being supported and encouraged by Moynihan and capitalist newsmen Hermit Macdonald, Bertil Lintner, foreign broadcasting stations such as the BBC, the VOA and the AIR, US Congressman Solarz who shamelessly asked for formation of an interim government when there existed a government elected by the people and Joseph [sic] Silverstein who openly criticized Myanmar Naing-Ngan and who has had contacts with the KNU insurgents who are lawless." {Table of teak, sawn teak, hardwood logs, and sawn hardwood export prices, 1950-1989}. (21) Timber exports {table of income, 1950-1989}. "The evil nature of imperialists remains unchanged. Hegemonism, chauvinism, jingoism, sabre-rattling policy, the policy of causing disintegration of unity of the national races are the weapons they use in subjugating and dominating small nations. They have bred their own minions; axe-handles and traitors whom they use in doing whatever they like."]

Feb. 27: Neither callous nor hypocritical are we, like some others, by Maung Ye Mon. [Former Myanmar citizens have no right to interfere in Myanmar internal affairs. But the Committee for Restoration of Democracy in Burma (CRDB) "formed for certain former citizens...is attacking the land of their birth in numerous blatant as well as underhand ways...." In Myanmar human rights do not include pornography and prostitution, as they do in some countries. Australia properly punished Martin Donnelly in 1985 for fighting with the KNU.]

Feb. 28: A dream come true, by Khin Mar Mar. [Removal of squatters and beautification of parks and gardens.]

Feb. 28, Mar. 1: Atrocities committed by KNU insurgents, minions of the imperialists, by Ye Zar Ni. [Cont. (3)-(4) KNU atrocities in 1989-90 detailed.]

Mar. 1: Historic traditions of 'Myanmar Tatmadaw', by Ko Soe. [Armed Forces Day tribute: The Army in the Pagan period.]

Mar. 3,12-13,16,20-21: Extracts from the history of internal insurgency, by Yebaw Thit Maung. [Cont. {two series running at once} (20) BCP activities in 1954; Bo Yan Naing's expatriate plot in 1966, aided by U Nu, U Law Yone, and KNU. (21) Mujahid insurgency in Rakhine, 1948-49; Expatriate activities in 1948--"CIA Agent U Law Yone." (22) BCP programmes, 1945-1958; Expatriates U Law Yone and U Nu. (23) BCP threat to AFPFL in 1955-56; Leaders of expatriate groups in 1966. (24) KNU in 1956; AFPFL 1950-57.]

Mar. 4: Responsibilities go side by side with rights, by Min Kyaw Min. [Restrictions on electioneering justified.]

Mar. 5,10: Don't put the blame on "fate", by Po Kan Kaung. [Denunciation of All Burma Students Democratic Front {ABSDF} and its chairman, Moe Thee Zun, "a kite without any string attached to it," and of the KNU and DAB.]

Mar. 6: The Myanmar Tatmadaw during the Anglo-Myanmar Wars, by Ne Dun. [Summary of Burmese achievements during the three colonial wars.]

Mar. 6,9-10: On the Same Journey, by Aung Nyunt and Than Htoo Kyi. [(1-3) Interviews with ethnic cultural troupes visiting Yangon.]

Mar. 8: Those who are suffering thirst while floating on raft, by Po Kan Kaung. [ABSDF-KNU relations.]

Mar. 8: The Tatmadaw of Bayinnaung, by R. Zatu. [Burmese military in Pegu Period.]

Mar. 8-14: Help keep the City clean, pleasant and beautiful, by Tun Myat Maung. [(1-5) Yangon improvement program described. "During the period of more than one year, the State {LORC} has turned Yangon into a new city."]

Mar. 11: Taking Myanmar Naing-Ngan's opium production capacity into account, by Nyan Htet. [Foreign articles saying Myanmar now produces 1,800-2,500 tons of opium are probably "deliberate exaggerations." Estimates of 280,000 acres under poppy "are found to be highly inflated." Satellite estimates are unreliable, because poppy looks just like mon-hnyin. "Allegation that some Myanmar authorities are working in collusion with drug traffickers is a grave offence tantamount to the basest defamation for which retaliatory action can be sought legally. Those bent on malicious defamation stay warned."]

Mar. 11-12, 30-31: A path strewn with flowers (Thitsa and Myitta discussions), by Byammahso. [Defence of Government conduct of elections.]

Mar. 13: Don't accuse us wantonly; for Myanmar Naing-Ngan will not submit meekly, by Maung Ye Mon. [VOA on Mar. 10 said "the Tatmadaw has close relations with some of the traffickers." This is slander.]

Mar. 14-15: Are you going to go on living such a life, my friend?, by Po Kan Kaung. [ABSDF and KNU; crimes of KNU, as told by an ex-refugee.]

Mar. 19-20: Don't let yourselves be cannon-fodders, by Po Kan Kaung. [Tin Maung Win's exploitation of students in ABSDF.]

Mar. 20: Resistance against colonialists, by Myint Thein Aung. [Resistance to British conquest after 1885.]

Mar. 21-24,28: Inhuman atrocities by KNU insurgents at Melan, by Myint Lwin. [KNU attack on pagoda festival on Mar. 11, 1990. Captured KNU insurgent U Soe Thein said that KNU in area was mainly buying cattle cheap and "selling them in the other country at very high prices" (K 25,000 for a pair of oxen and K 23,000 for a pair of buffalo) {photos}]

Mar. 23: Bound to be paid in their own coins (Thitsa-Myitta discussion), by Byamahso. [How can BBC et al. criticize Myanmar electoral eligibility requirements when US and UK have strict ones themselves?]

Mar. 24: Beware of Moynihan and Solarz who are maliciously

slandering Myanmar Naing-Ngan, by Bo Thanmani. [Involvement in UN and Amnesty International human rights charges; "I would like to urge the people... to beware of these two enemies who are using various means in attacking and slandering Myanmar..." {photos}]

Mar. 25-27,29-30: Slanders by "six new blind men" and insurgents' ally Silverstein and insurgent Tin Maung Win, by Bo Thanmani. [(1, 2 pts.) VOA programs on Harvard Conference on non-violence at which Myanmar was slandered by "the so-called Myanmar Tin Maung Win," and "Political Science Professor Dr. Joseph [sic] Silverstein of Rutgers University. "Who is this Joseph Silverstein?... He is a person who is interfering in the internal affairs of Myanmar... passing criticisms and inciting and agitating others.... He is a man with an evil mind.... He blatantly stood on the side of the insurgents [in calling for their participation in elections] and maliciously attacked Myanmar...making false accusations. Silverstein visits the KNU insurgents' area almost every year He is an adviser to the KNU.... From this one can draw the conclusion that he stands for the KNU murderers, that he has slanted ideas and that he holds one-sided views" Point-by-point refutation of Silverstein statement [quoted at length] on VOA Mar. 1 that Government is preventing fair elections, and calling for "peaceful change." (1 cont.) Statements by Daw Aung San Suu Kyi [quoted at length]. She and U Tin Oo tried to separate Tatmadaw from the people.

[(2, 3 pts.) What Gen. Saw Aung told Daw San Suu Kyi. "I would like to ask why Dr. Silverstein has ignored all these [facts] and why he is pretending not to know of them." Actions taken against U Nu. Outlawing of insurgent organizations. KNDO dependence on British. British support for Aung San assassination; Karen arms from British.

[(3) Reasons for 1988 Army takeover. Falsity of Silverstein's accusations about forestry, which have been refuted. {photo caption: the Forest Department employs 6,000 elephants}.]

Mar. 24: Myanmar Peasants rise in arms against oppression & exploitation (In honour of the 45th Anniversary of the Armed Forces Day), by Maung Dawna. [Saya San rebellion of 1930's.]

Mar. 24,31: Myanmar Naing-Ngan that has passed through the flames of hell, by A Tatmadawman. [Cont. It never rains but pours. (11) Distorted accounts of disturbances by the "so-called democracy newspapers." CIA interference implied. False news on BBC and VOA.]

Mar. 27: The role of the Patriot Burmese Forces (PBF) in the development of the Pyithu Tatmadaw, by Min Kyaw Min. [Origins of the Burma Army.]

Mar. 27: Like the fish that falls into the net, by Po Kan Kaung. [Student defector tells of ABSDF in 1989.]

Press Conferences

Feb. 23: At the 79th State LORC Press Conference, spokesmen said:

-- 31 Parties have had registrations cancelled for failure to contest the elections, and 6 for failure to contest at least 3 constituencies [see below].

-- Rules for campaigning have been promulgated [see below].

-- Troops are mopping up in the KNU Mawtaung timber smuggling camp area, connected by road to "the other country." Seized have been 12 KNU bodies, 44 weapons, 10,055 rounds of ammunition, saw mills, 77,500 logs, and 2 bulldozers. (WPD 2/24)

Mar. 1: At the 80th State LORC Press Conference, spokesmen said:

-- The new 200 kyat note which will be put into circulation described [photo]. "There is no need to consult the International Monetary Fund.... The issue...is not aimed at increasing the currency in circulation but to cashing out for the old notes."

-- When Order No. 3/90 of Feb. 23, concerning the right to assembly and campaign, was published, "organizations within and without the country ...said and published that the rules ...were stringent. We would like to clarify.... There are two categories in making speeches...in the compound of a party and...in public places. Now speeches can be delivered in public places systematically.... It is necessary that points and facts in the speech do not infringe the law and they should be authentic historically, that they should be noteworthy. Headings and main points are also needed to be kept as documents. If the gists of speeches... remain as a record...they will not only bring honour to the parties but also be beneficial to the country

"Various insurgent groups...continue to exist...because of assistance...and instigations of some big capitalist nations; illegal business involving [smuggling]; and of illicit narcotics trade.... They usually instigate to cause disturbances and riots...by taking advantage of mass meetings where speeches are made.... Big nations that still wish to enslave the small nations took steps ...and assisted...organizations that `pine for aunt over the shoulders of the mother....' In order that both above-ground and under-ground elements and colonialists could not be allowed to interfere when the right to assemble and campaign is given... the Order 3/90 includes...that the [LORCs] concerned, Security Forces, Government departments and organizations are to render assistance as may be necessary and guard against disturbances to enable the political parties and individuals to have the right to assemble and campaign....

"Public address systems will be necessary in some places where the audience is large. In such cases, it will be necessary to obtain permits from the departments concerned.... Even if the permit is obtained, the volume should be controlled.... The loudspeakers...should in no way affect the people in the vicinity.

"Another point concerns the time allowed for each party. Three hours will be allowed so that more than 90 political parties will be able to have equal right to assemble and deliver speeches....

"Organizations must have obtained printing and publishing permits and to have registered themselves.... However, some organizations are bringing out publications illegally

"A political party will be allowed 15 minutes maximum for delivering speech through the medium of the Voice of Myanmar Programme. A political party will be allowed up to 10 minutes maximum for making speech through the medium of the Myanmar Television Programme. In this connection, we heard comments that the time is short....

"We have allowed parties to campaign for about three months. The points stated concern the rights.... So also there are eight prohibitions and penalty, which should be carefully studied."

-- In connection with rumours that service personnel salaries would be raised, "there would be no more salary hike as it had already been raised." (WPD 3/2)

Mar. 8: At the 81st State LORC Press Conference, spokesmen said:

-- The delegation to the Special UNGA narcotics session reported on its trip, including a trip to Washington to meet the Assistant Administrator of the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) and with Congressman Charles B. Rangel, Chairman of the Select Committee on Drugs and member Lawrence Coughlin, and briefed them on Myanmar anti-narcotics activities, including the public destruction of US$410 million of narcotics on Feb. 13 [see below under Myanmar Delegations].

-- The presentation to the UN of a 20"x60" Loka Nat gold-embroidered tapestry was described. Discussion of tapestry, and of Loka Nat theme. [See below under International Cooperation.].

-- Procedure for election broadcasts discussed. Parties are to apply, attaching the script of the speech, to the Election Commission. So far 15 scripts have been received. Radio and TV speeches will begin Mar. 12; they will also be published in the press.

-- "The matter of interrogating eight persons from the political parties had been clarified at the previous press conference. Five of the eight persons have been released and the remaining three are being interrogated. If they do not infringe the law they will also be released." (WPD 3/9)

Mar. 16: At the 82nds State LORC Press Conference, spokesmen said:

-- Some political parties have criticized the restrictions on campaigning of State LORC Order 3/90 as too stringent. The order gives rights "as far as possible," and "no more explanations will be necessary."

-- In a letter in the Bangkok Post on Mar. 2, KIO leader N Shang La said there was no poppy in Kachin State. We produced evidence to the contrary at the Feb. 16 press conference. US Assistant Secretary of State for Narcotics Melvyn Levitsky told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that "Burma is also a refining site for opium into various grades of processed opium including heroin. Major refineries are located near the Thai border and in the WNA/Kokang and KIA controlled areas. The principal groups involved...are the Shan United Army...the Kokang Chinese and Wa National Army...and the Kachin Independence Army (KIA), which controls the Kachin State in northern Burma." [Photos and documents]

-- Bertil Lintner wrote Zan Shan of the KIA No. 6 battalion, No. 2 brigade, on Sept. 23, 1987 sending medical aid and giving support [facsimile of letter].

-- Plans were discovered to instigate riots on the anniversary of Phone Maw's death. 19 persons in Yangon and 17 in Mandalay were called in for questioning, and action will be taken against those "who infringed the law."

-- There is no extradition treaty between Myanmar and the USA, and no request for Hkun Sa's arrest has been received. "We cannot accept any nation violating our territorial integrity to arrest (him)." (WPD 3/17)

Mar. 23: At the 83rd State LORC Press Conference, spokesmen said:

-- The NMSP Mon insurgent attack on Ye on Mar. 22 was part of a general series of attacks which have followed the Tatmadaw capture of their Payathonzu camp on Feb. 8. Review of attacks on Lamaing (Mar. 7), Setse Marine Biology station (Mar. 10), mining of train between Thanbyuzayat and Karokpi. Details of Ye attack given. [see also below under Military]

-- Thanmani Bo Khin Maung is "absconding to the border."

-- No comment on statement by Election Commission member Saya Chai in Bago on Mar. 21 that no foreign observers would be invited to view the May 27 elections. "The Commission is responsible for election." [see below under Election Procedures]

-- "It was revealed that no student was arrested on 16 March and that some students were just interrogated by police in some townships."

--"In answer to a question...it was mentioned that upgrading the ranks of senior Tatmadaw officers was to be in accord with the organizational set-up of the Tatmadaw and also to establish harmonious position in maintaining relations with other nations. When asked whether it was true that a military officer given a military rank equivalent to Senior General can serve without any limitation, it was replied that it is so according to the Terms of Service of the Myanmar Tatmadaw and also in accord with the regulations and systems of the Armed Forces of other nations of the world." [see also below under Government] (WPD 3/24)

Mar. 30: At the 84th State LORC Press Conference, spokesmen said:

-- Elaborating on the Daewoo Electronic Myanmar Co. Ltd. joint venture established Mar. 29, Myanmar Heavy Industries will provide US$ 1.8 million capital and Daewoo US$ 2.2 million. In Step 1, 270 Myanmar workers and 5 Korean experts will work to produce, in 1990, 3,000 colour TVs, 67,000 black and white TVs, 63,000 radio cassette tape recorders, and 4,000 refrigerators. Later, annual production will increase to 180,000 TVs, 156,000 radio cassette tape recorders, and 10,000 refrigerators. These goods will be primarily for export, but will also "be distributed sufficiently in the country." Production will be in 3 Myanmar Heavy Industries factories, which will be leased for US$ 47,736 per year to the joint venture.

In Step II, factories will be built in Pyinmabin, Mingaladon Twp. [Yangon], depending on demand, as part of an Industrial Complex. The land would be leased to the joint venture. Here, 633 Myanmar workers and 6 Koreans will produce 32,000 colour TVs, 168,000 black and white TVs, 156,000 radio cassette tape recorders, and 29,000 refrigerators, with yearly production rising to 360,000 TVs, 192,000 radio cassette tape recorders, and 55,000 refrigerators. Black and white TV's will be produced because they cost 1/3 or 1/4 of colour models, and Daewoo has markets for them.

-- Tourism is rising (thanks to the new 14 day tourist visa), but there are only 450 rooms in Yangon hotels run by the Myanmar Hotels and Tourism Services. In 1989-90 8,060 visitors came to Myanmar, and earnings were K 32.5 million. New hotels are to be built in Yangon, Mandalay, and Bagan, and plans have been made to renovate the Inya Lake and Strand Hotels. In this connection, the Chairman [sic] of Daewoo Corporation Mr. Hong Soung-Bu on Mar. 29 signed a contract to build a hotel at Kyunthaya on Kaba Aye Pagoda Road, Yangon. The 5-star hotel, on a 45-acre plot, will cost US$60 million, will have 350-380 rooms, and will be completed in 4 years.

-- Chairman [sic] of the Daewoo Corporation Mr. Yoon Young-Suk on Mar. 29 signed a joint venture contract to establish Myanmar Daewoo International Ltd., with a capital of K 30 million, of which the Union of Myanmar Holdings Ltd. will invest 40% and Daewoo 60%, to build a garment factory at Pyinmabin for export production. Initial annual production will be 72,000 dozen garments, rising to 126,000 dozen, of which 10% will be sold locally and the rest exported.

-- The 1990 State Budget Law provides for:

Government: Receipts-K9,380.1 million; expenditures-K15,155.7 million; deficit-K5,775.1 million.

State Economic Organizations: Receipts-K30,785.7 million; expenditures-K35,289.8 million; deficit-K4,504.1 million.

Development Committees & Municipalities: Receipts-K736.5 million; expenditures-K857.5 million; deficit-K121 million.

-- The 1989-90 Revised Estimated Budget provides for (in comparison with original budget):

Government: Receipts down-K519.6 million; expenditures up-K17,142.5 million; deficit up from K143.7 million (original) to K7,805.9 million.

State Economic Organizations: Receipts up-K1,060.4 million; expenditures up-K3,651.2 million; deficit up from K4,307.0 million (original) to K6,897.8 million.

Development Committees & Municipalities: Receipts up-K569.7 million; expenditures up-K879.5 million; deficit up from K173.5 million (original) to K384.4 million.

-- Foreign investment in 1989-90 totalled K1,017.2 million.

-- Taxes must be reformed and collected in full and unnecessary expenditures curtailed. [see below under Government and Economic] (WPD 3/31)

Political Books Advertised

Advertisements continued for collections of official speeches by State LORC Chairman Gen. Saw Maung, State LORC Secretary (1) Brig-Gen. Khin Nyunt, and others. Vol. 9 of Collected Articles from the Working People's Daily was announced on Mar. 6, as was a new book entitled CRDB-CRDB exposing "Those undermining the independence and sovereignty of the State." Vol. 10 of Collected Articles, and State LORC Information Committee Press Conferences Book Three (covering May 12-July 17, 1989) were announced Mar. 7. Beginning mid-month, it was suggested daily that "Four outstanding volumes which ought to be read and studied as a unit," were: State Law and Order Restoration Council Chairman Commander-in-Chief of the Defence Services General Saw Maung's addresses; Burma Communist Party's Conspiracy to take over

State Power; The conspiracy of treasonous minions within the Myanmar Naing-Ngan and traitorous cohorts abroad; and Scheming and activities of the Burma Communist Party Politburo to seize State Power.

Martial Law Area Reduced

Motto Awards Given

Mar. 18: State LORC Secretary (1) Brig-Gen. Khin Nyunt gave out prizes to winners of competitions in stories, pictures, poems, and mottos held by the State LORC Committee for Selecting National Mottos. Noting the abuse of democracy and danger of national disintegration in 1988, he said: "Misunderstandings and wrong thoughts were harboured by some people during the 1988 disturbances and acts of violence influenced by anarchistic tendencies occurred. Some saw the acts of violence from the bright side. Democracy movements came together with destructive activities. Therefore national mottos are written for the people to have right thought." Gen. Saw Maung's Speech

Mar. 27: State LORC Chairman Senior General Saw Maung gave a major address on Armed Forces Day [text available for $5.00]. The following were the principal topics covered:

-- Why the Tatmadaw took power after the "unruly, insensate, unappeasable situation" of Sept. 1988.

-- Tatmadaw has always acted to uphold the law.

-- Election law promulgated "with all good intentions for the future of the State."

-- Foreign interference is dishonest and hypocritical. They want "human rights" for insurgents and drug traffickers, not the people. Groundless accusations by VOA, BBC, and All India Radio, which meddle in Myanmar internal affairs, and back insurgents like DAB and CRDB.

-- Actions against U Tin Oo, Daw Aung San Suu Kyi, U Nu, taken under existing laws. Daw Aung Suu Kyi had private discussions with "a certain western embassy" [suggestion that this led to her attacks on the Tatmadaw]. False accusations against urban resettlement program designed to aid "our landless and homeless people."

-- Only by electing "loyal and foresighted leaders" can elections lead to a "strong and stable government."

-- "Some say that the election is not important but drawing the Constitution is the primary issue. Some say it is necessary to draft a temporary constitution, to form a provisional government to effect transfer of power and only then to take time and draw up a proper constitution. In what ways they want to do so is up to them. The Tatmadaw has given a promise to hold the election...."

-- We became a LDC because we sold things at a loss. Now we have raised prices and the government can make a profit to reinvest.

-- People say they want change; the Tatmadaw is providing it.

1962 reviewed.

-- Insurgencies: They may "give up the armed struggle and return to the legal fold," but "we will in no way tolerate the insurgents trying to use this opportunity to get out of a tight corner. We have experienced their tactic of using political negotiations as a ruse to buy time many times before."

-- Economic review.

-- We will rebut false accusations against the Tatmadaw.

-- A free and fair election depends on observance of the law.

"Any action disruptive to the success of the election will not be permitted.... Insurgents will be the ones most likely to disrupt the election."

-- Quotations from Aung San on elections.

-- After the election, "the party with the adequate number of representatives in the Hluttaw can form a government; then the remaining parties will become the opposition force. They will criticize the actions of the government in the Hluttaw sessions. When the majority of representatives no longer render their support, the government will fall and a new one will have to be formed. The government will have to enact laws required to safeguard the interests of the people,...to lay down policies relating to the economic, social and administrative affairs. It is the duty of the government bodies to implement their policies...."

-- Tatmadaw's mission to prevent disintegration of the union, or national solidarity, and ensure the perpetuation of State sovereignty. "We should totally relinquish the matter of secession from the Union."

-- World communications have changed. "We cannot stay isolated and only look after our own affairs. This is not a time to daydream."

-- "A few have said that the nationalized enterprises will be returned to the original owners. Will we hand them back to the foreigners also? [If so, Aung San was wrong.]"

-- "If we really want our country to prosper then the people will have to decide on the system to adopt. Afterwards, the only thing necessary is that everybody curb their own greed and desire for personal power and truly work unitedly with discipline and caution."

Election Procedures

Feb. 23: State LORC Order No. 3/90 of Feb. 23, Order relating to the Right to Assemble and Campaign, establishes ground rules for electoral campaigns [full text on request--HCMacD]:

-- Security forces shall "render assistance" to "safeguard against disturbances."
-- Permits must be obtained for public speeches and assemblies, and may stipulate conditions to ensure order, etc.
-- Publications must be "scrutinized in advance," and shall identify publishers.
-- Radio/TV scripts must be submitted 7 days in advance.
Maximum speech on Voice of Myanmar Programme (radio) is 15 minutes. Maximum time for Myanmar Television Programme is 10 minutes. The State-owned newspaper will publish "appropriate" portions.

-- Parties may not attack national sovereignty or integrity; against the unity and solidarity of national races; promote disaffection towards the SLORC or impair its dignity; impair the dignity of or cause disintegration of the Armed Forces; undermine security, peace, and tranquillity; incite racial or religious conflict; impair education; or interfere with security forces. Violators are subject to K 5,000 fine and/or 3 years imprisonment.
(WPD 2/24)

Feb. 28: At a Yangon coordination meeting, Divisional LORC Chairman Brig-Gen. Myo Nyunt announced measures implementing State LORC Order No. 3/90. Townships are to "obtain the summary of the talks to be given by the political parties in their respective townships and... [Election] Sub-commissions are to scrutinize them beforehand.... Each political party is to be given only three hours to give talks. The time for holding the talks is between 6 am and 6 pm.... Discussions...should ...be made on the matter of permitting the political parties on the use of loud-speakers up to certain limit, so that there will not be a nuisance to the public. There is a likelihood of confusing the right to assemble and campaign with the democratic rights, obtaining political gains, instigating to cause disturbance and taking advantage. The... LORCs are to make political parties understand this.... The necessary security measures at the talks and assemblies must be taken only by the People's Police Force. The Military regions must take up security only when there is need to do so." (WPD 3/1)

Mar. 21: Speaking in Bago, Election Commission member Saya Chai said "We have heard that some dignitaries and organizations from foreign countries said that some foreign organizations should be invited to view the multi-party democracy general election. Elections have been held since the time of national leader Bogyoke Aung San in Myanmar Naing-Ngan and no foreign organizations were invited. Our general election is an internal affair of the country and is of no concern of others from foreign countries. Voters will make a decision whether the election is a free and fair one or not...." (WPD 3/22)

Campaign Speeches

Political parties are authorized to make one 10-minute TV speech, which were broadcast two per day beginning Mar. 12, and summarized the following day in the WPD. Each summary includes a photo of the speaker, and a drawing of the Party's assigned symbol.

In some cases the speaker indicates the number of constituencies being contested. We arrange them by Party Number, giving only brief summaries except for the major organizations.

(1) Democracy Party. Chairman U Thu Wai said economic problems were due to government monopolies. He opposed all forms of dictatorship and one-party system. There should be encouragement of private enterprise. (WPD 3/13)

(6) Unity and Development Party. Vice-Chairman U Than Maung endorsed the "force of trio constituted with the people, the political parties and the Tatmadaw," and for the "export oriented economic system being practised in ROK, Hongkong and ASEAN" (WPD 3/21)

(8) Democratic Front for National Reconstruction. Chairman Thakin Chit Maung said the new era should be based on national or Tat-paung-su democracy, not "capitalist democracy." Candidates should be judged on national loyalty, experience, selflessness, and character. Front members fought for independence, and many served prison terms as members of Pa-Ma-Nya-Ta. (WPD 3/16)

(11) Burma United Democratic Party. General Secretary U Kyee Myint, candidate for Tharkayta 1, endorsed full democratic rights and a free market economy, and warned against political opportunists. [3 candidates] (WPD 3/15)

(12) National Peace and Democracy Party. General Secretary U Lay Myint endorsed genuine democracy for all, better health and education, and a more effective bureaucracy. (WPD 3/17)

(13) Union Kayin [Karen] League. Chairman Mahn Tin Aung called for internal peace through political means, democracy, promotion of Kayin rights, and allied himself with the League for Democracy and Peace [141] since "U Nu, Mahn Win Maung and Bohmu Aung are experienced leaders." [7 candidates] (WPD 3/25)

(21) Kachin State National Democratic Party. Chairman U Sama Kyaw Pha Naw said he would give priority to ensuring internal peace, attributing insurgency to "instigations of imperialists and a group of selfish persons who craved power." (WPD 3/27)

(27) All Burma Democratic People's Power Organization. Chairman Thakin Tun Shein (a) Yebaw Thet Shay promised to end the "privileged class", stabilize prices, abolish high taxes, raise educational standards and permit students' organizations, establish democracy, and give farmers their own land. (WPD 3/29)

(30) Zomi National Congress (ZNC). Chairman Pu Cin Sian Thang said his policies were "to refer to the Chin as Zomi, to work for the emergence of a genuine democracy, to practise free economic system and to raise the Panglong spirit.... Just as you do not want Yangon to be called Rangoon, we do not like to be called Halkha, Haka; Tedim, Tiddim; Sihzang, Siyin; and Con Bik, Sun Pek. To call ourselves by our original name of Zomi instead of Chin is our first policy." (WPD 3/23)

(33) Democratic Labour Party (Myanmar). Chairman U Par endorsed internal peace, real democratic and basic human rights. He called for economic development saying "this country is about 100 years behind others.... Outmoded and unsuitable economic systems" should be removed. (WPD 3/16)

(48) Patriotic Democratic Youth Front (Burma). Joint General Secretary U Kyaw Moe Lwin called for a Front of parties supporting full democratic and human rights, and for free education through university, economic development through joint ventures, private enterprise in industry, and agricultural mechanization. National peace and unity should be brought about by political means, leading to a federal system, but he opposed secession. [3 candidates] (WPD 3/15)

(52) Naga Hills Regional Progressive Party. General Secretary U Shin Ba said his Party would run in the five townships of Homalin, Leshi, Hkamti, Lahe, and Nanyun [Sagaing]. It opposed dictatorship and sought multi-party democracy, equal rights for national races, and development in the Naga Hills. (WPD 3/18)

(56) Youth Unity Organization. Chairman Brig-Gen. Sein Win (Rtd.) promised to promote youth unity, as youths had been divided by leftist and rightist organizations, and had their traditions attacked during the disturbances. Youth would join with the National Unity Party [17-ex BSPP], Peasants Unity Organization [55], and Workers Unity Organization [57] to serve the whole people. (WPD 3/29)

(61) Youth's Solidarity Front (Union of Myanmar). General Secretary U Ye Naing Aung said "youths started the '88 democracy movement' and that the multi-party democracy general election was the result of '88 democracy movement.'" His party's main purpose was "to prevent emergence of dictatorship on Myanmar land in any form." [3 candidates] (WPD 3/24)

(63) Kayah State All Nationalities League for Democracy (KNLD). Vice-Chairman U Sao Phyu said for a just system "which allows the states to manage their own affairs...." and perpetuates the Union of Myanmar. (WPD 3/19)

(74) Kachin State National Congress for Democracy. Chairman U Oo Byittu endorsed human rights, unity of the national races, and development encouraging coops and private enterprise. (WPD 3/20)

(76) People's Power Party. Chairman U Kyee Shein called for a fair, independent, and sovereign State, a united federal republic, and genuine human rights. A new Constitution must accomplish this. Internal peace should be sought by peaceful means that do not affect the integrity of the State. (WPD 3/14)

(85) Union Paoh National Organization. Chairman Khun Shwe Hlaing said there were one and a half million Paoh nationals in Shan, Kayah, Kayin and Mon States and Bago Division. He called for equality with other indigenous races and cooperation with other parties having similar aims. (WPD 3/25)

(86) National Peace Party (Hq). Secretary General U Tin Tun (a) E Ismail called for democracy and human rights, and a policy of peace to eliminate internal insurgency. Farmers should own their land. There should be no currency demonetization; those whose banknotes were demonetized on Sept. 9, 1987 should be compensated. Foreign travel and return should be unrestricted. (WPD 3/14)

(89) Free People League of Burma (Headquarters). Chairman Daw Khin Khin Sam reviewed Bogyoke Aung San's efforts to promote national solidarity between the national races. (WPD 3/18)

(114) United Trade Union Congress (Union of Myanmar Naing-Ngan). Joint General Secretary 2 U Pwar called for democracy, trade union rights, and administrator-worker committees. (WPD 3/26)

(122) Union of Burma Unity Democracy League (BUDL). General Secretary U Aung Khin (a) H. Guha said his party included indigenous races and [South Asians], and would support democracy and human rights. (WPD 3/30)

(133) Ta-ang (Palaung) National League for Democracy. Central Executive Committee member V.D. Maung Hsa called for democracy and equal rights for all national races. He endorsed the United Nationalities League for Democracy [214]. (WPD 3/31)

(134) Shan State Kokang Democratic Party. Chairman Anthony Su (a) U Hla Yaung called for genuine multi-party democracy, and sought "to maintain friendly ties between Kokang nationals and other national races while dissuading the Kokang nationals from longing the aunt over the shoulders of own mother, guiding them to be loyal to motherland and preventing them from embracing communism." He called for national unity, eradication of opium growing, and substitute crops. He expressed "thanks to the SLORC." (WPD 3/21)

(151) Peasants' Development Party. Chairman U Tha Nyi endorsed "parliamentary democracy," mutual understanding between elements of society, and agricultural development. (WPD 3/23)

(161) National Ethnic Reformation Party (Hq). General Secretary U Shwe Phone Win endorsed "perpetuation of the Union...and join hands with other democratic forces in order that a brilliant Rakhine state might emerge." (WPD 3/22)

(163) Kamans National League for Democracy. Central Committee member U Tun Yi said "Kamans nationals originated from Kaman archers of a Rakhine king...." He called for a popularly elected President and a House of Representative with proportionate representation for national races. "Power, cash and wealth should not be possessed by an individual or a single organization for a long time." (WPD 3/24)

(166) Mara People's Party. Chairman U Si Kauh sought democracy and human rights, with representatives from different national races. (WPD 3/30)

(170) Mro (or) Khami National Solidarity Organization (MKNSO). Chairman U San Tha Aung described his ethnic group's history and called for equal rights and autonomy for the national races. (WPD 3/20)

(183) Might of New Generation Youth Front (Myanmar Naing-Ngan Daw). Central Executive Committee member U Aung Thein said his party had two objectives: "to achieve democracy and for his party to become a political force." He called for human rights, free enterprise, and "a second Panglong Conference for national solidarity." (WPD 3/26)

(194) Indigenous Race Collaboration Party. Chairman U Hussein Ahmed called for "unity and solidarity among the indigenous races" and for democracy and development. (WPD 3/27)

(199) United League of Democratic Parties. General Secretary U Win (a) U Sein Win, describing the League as a "collection of a number of democratically-inclined parties," called for a truly democratic state, a national economic system, and free market. (WPD 3/19)

(215) Union of Burma Democratic Front. Chairman U Hla Aung, candidate for Sanchoung, said his Front was a merger of 40 political parties, which follows "the middle path." He supported a free market economy, and said this was a time for national, not party, politics. A provisional Constitution should be drafted by the new Hluttaw, to last for 3-4 years. The system should be federal, but without right of secession. (WPD 3/13)

(217) Arakan People's Democratic Front. Executive Committee member U Ba Ohn, representing various Arakan parties, called for the "founding of a new Rakhine State which enjoys the right for self-determination." (WPD 3/22)

(219) People's Peasant Party. Patron Thakin Khin called for democratic rights on behalf of the 85% of the people who were peasants, with land ownership to peasants, a mixed economy, and free secondary education. (WPD 3/31)

(232) Leading Strength of National Realism Centre. Chairman U Tin Aung sought preservation of the Union, unity among nationalities, and perpetuation of national sovereignty. (WPD 3/17)

Peasants Day Message

Mar. 2: State LORC Chairman Gen. Saw Maung issued the following message for 1990 Peasants Day [text]:

To all the esteemed peasantry,

The 2nd of March 1990 is Peasants Day observed in honour of all the peasantry throughout the country. On this auspicious day, I extend joyous greetings to all the peasantry throughout the country and wish them good health and success in their agricultural activities.

The peasantry who constitute the biggest force in the nation who [sic] are also the owners of labour engaged in the production of food supplies essential for all the people living in this country. The agricultural production of the peasantry is for the nation, the most fundamental and most extensive field of production. Because of this, concentrated attention must forever be paid to bring about improvements in their quality of life and for their development and progress in all facets of human endeavour.

The peasantry of the Myanmar Naing-Ngan are constantly striving to bring about improvements in agricultural production by working hard in their respective fields of cultivation. The mass of the peasantry are honest and diligent folk, traditionally dedicated to hard honest work.

After the loss of national independence and the fall into servitude, the peasantry suffered greatly under the repression of the colonial-imperialist government and the pernicious exploitation practised by their minions, the Chettyars. At the time when the imperialists subjugated the entire Myanmar Naing-Ngan, the population was only 10 million with a total cultivated acreage of only about one million acres. The imperialists in order to their own welfare [sic] proceeded to extend cultivated paddy acreage up to over 10 million acres by opening up rich and fertile virgin lands through putta system, grant system and crown colony systems. Ownership of virgin lands were also granted to foreigners besides the traditional systems of clearer-owner land and hereditary ownership. In this way, land ownership patterns were altered. The opening up of a great many new acres of cultivation land necessitated additional labour. This was solved by the imperialists by bringing into the country a very large number of Indians. According to the 1937 census the number of Indians in the Myanmar Naing-Ngan was as much as one million. The capital investments needed were not directly loaned by the British government to the Myanmar Peasantry; on the contrary, the British government loaned annually a total of K 700 to K 1000 million to about 1,600 Chettyar companies which came in the Myanmar Naing-Ngan without any capital whatsoever of their own.

The Chettyars in turn lent money to the Myanmar peasantry with interest rate ranging from 10 per cent to 12 per cent with compound interest and exploited the peasantry and took advantage. Tons and tons of rice produced by Myanmar peasantry with their labour were bought at very low price by the companies, which were monopolized by the colonialists, and exported at huge profits. Not only rice from Myanmar but also teak, oil and other valuable natural resources were exploited and exported at big profits. In this manner, they not only made up for the expenses of ruling the Myanmar Naing-Ngan as a slavedom, but accumulated capital with the profits and revenues obtained from the country. They thus became richer and richer.

As the Myanmar peasantry could not pay back the interest as well as the capital to the Chettyars, they had to surrender up to four million acres of land to them. Not only this, they also had to suffer the taking over paddy, cattle, houses and even their daughters by the Chettyars. The colonial government, not only did not protect the Myanmar peasantry, but also gave them endless trouble by collecting capital tax, land tax and various other taxes. The price of paddy plunged down to a very low level, and the peasantry became landless and they were hard pressed even to eat and drink, as it is known through historical records.

As they could no longer bear the oppression and illtreatment of the colonial government, one of the leaders of the nationalist (Wunthanzu) group Saya San, formed the Galon Tatphwe out of the peasantry, took up dahs, spears and whatever arms they could lay hands on and rose up to rebel against the colonial rule from 1929 to 1931. The peasants' uprising led by Saya San who earned the title of Thu-ponnaka Galunyaza spread to Tharawady, Insein, Hinthada, Pyay, Phyarpon and other districts. The colonialists brought in more armed troops from India and attacked for about two years to stamp out the rebellion. Finally, the patriotic peasantry leaders, including Saya San were caught by the British imperialists and hanged. This is an historical event which should never be forgotten.

Hence, the Myanmar national peasantry took the brunt of evil effects of the rule of slavery and in order not to return to the slavedom, it is to be urged that all should join hands with the Tatmadaw, formed with your offspring, in preventing the disintegration of the Union; preventing the disintegration of national unity and solidarity and for perpetuation of the national sovereignty and independence and preserve and protect national independence.

As it is in keeping with the changes affected [sic] in political and economic system in Myanmar Naing-Ngan, it is necessary to implement the systems giving priority in serving the interests of the entire public and the entire peasantry. If the majority of the people, who are the peasants, achieve progress and development, then the State will also achieve progress and development. It is necessary to give priority in fulfilling the education, health and special requirements of the peasantry, who are the work force and to ensure their smooth and secure transportation.

The State Law and Order Restoration Council is making utmost efforts in seeing to the development of the peasantry of the national races in the least developed areas in the border regions within shortest possible time, out of the peasantry in the State [sic]. The peasantry in the entire country, should have consideration and make concerted efforts willingly in helping out their own peasantry which are less developed.

The peasantry can freely vote for the candidates whom they prefer in the multi-party democracy general election which is to be held soon. They are also urged to give required assistance to the Tatmadaw in holding the free and fair election successfully.

I wish to emphatically urge the entire peasantry to seriously implement their main task of agricultural production work in order to achieve development and success, while helping out in serving their own interests and that of all the citizens of the country in a fair and balanced manner. (WPD 3/2)

Basic Commodities

Feb. 27: Palm oil imported by General Merchandise Trading will be put on sale beginning Mar. 1 at K 41 per viss. "One viss...will be sold to families without a government servant.... The ministries concerned will sell oil to families with government servants." (WPD 2/28, rpt. Mar. 1)

Feb. 27: Chairman of the Yangon Division Supervision Committee Col. Kyaw Min told officials that "The price of cooking oil was rising without any sound reason.... Effective action would be taken against unscrupulous elements who try to cause the price of cooking oil to shoot up very high." (WPD 2/28)

Mar. 1: "Don't be panicked consumer!... The rise in the price of edible oil causes great anxiety to the consumer public.... Currently the retail price of edible oil has risen sharply.... Causing alarm among the consumer public is one way of creating panic buying.... If consumers refrain from dancing from [selfish traders'] tune and try to exercise restraint and of course a certain amount of frugality during that particular period, self-seekers will realize the ineffectiveness of their old tactic.... The arrival of a consignment of edible oil at Yangon Port indicates that appropriate measures are being taken...." (WPD editorial 3/1)
