Breastfeed: Best infant health care

The first week of August is designated as the World Breastfeeding Week and ceremonies to mark the week are held yearly for infants to be healthy.

The theme for World Breastfeeding Week this year is: Breastfeeding: The 1st Hour — Save ONE Million babies!

The theme was formulated to urge all mothers to breastfeed their babies within an hour of birth.

Myanmar has actively participated in the activities to mark the Breastfeeding Week like other countries since 1992.

With the sponsorship of the health organization, the essay competitions, talks, articles competitions and seminars are being held from 1 to 7 August. The World Breastfeeding Week offers the opportunity to disseminate knowledge about and enhance the breastfeeding practice throughout the world.

It is recommended that breastmilk, a high quality food with an ideal balance of nutrients, is the perfect source of nutrition for infants.

Breastfeeding is to be introduced for the first six months of baby’s life, followed by appropriate and adequate complementary foods, along with continued breastfeeding until the child reaches age 2 or beyond.

At the same time, breastfeeding mothers are to take foods of nutritious value so that infants can enjoy various nutrients and vitamins.

Therefore, mothers need to breastfeed their infants in the first hour of birth since it is recognized as one of the most effective preventive intervention to reduce child mortality.

FBI searches home of Alaska Senator Stevens

ANCHORAGE (Alaska), 31 July—The FBI and IRS have searched the home of Republican Senator Ted Stevens in a ski resort in Alaska as part of an investigation into his links with an oil-services company, officials said on Monday.

“All I can really say is we are conducting a search at the residence. We can’t go any deeper into detail than that,” said Dave Heller, spokesman for the FBI in Anchorage. The FBI and IRS entered the senator’s Girdwood, Alaska home in the early afternoon with a search warrant.

The longest-serving Republican in US Senate history, who is known for delivering billions of federal dollars to his home state, Stevens in a statement said: “My attorneys and I have been advised that federal agents wished to search my home in Girdwood in connection with an ongoing investigation. “I continue to believe this investigation should proceed to its conclusion without any appearance that I have attempted to influence the outcome,” it said. Girdwood is about 40 miles south of Anchorage, the state’s largest city. Stevens is the subject of a grand-jury investigation into his links with managers of VECO Corp, the state’s largest oil-services company, as well as numerous unrelated fisheries matters.

Interior Ministry says number of Iraqi civilian, soldier deaths up in July

BAGHDAD, 31 July—The number of Iraqi civilians and soldiers killed in violence across their war-torn country went up this month, the Iraqi Interior Ministry told CNN on Tuesday.

Using figures collected from Iraqi Interior, Defence and Heath ministries’ records, the Interior Ministry said 1,653 civilians have been killed. In June the number had dipped to 1,227.

The Iraqi civilian death toll in other months this year was 1,949 in May; 1,501 in April; 1,872 in March; 1,646 in February; and 1,990 in January, the ministry has said.

Taleban kidnappers kill hostage after demands are ignored

KABUL, 31 July—Taleban kidnappers shot dead a male South Korean hostage on Monday, a spokesman for the group said, accusing the Afghan Government of not listening to rebel demands for the release of Taleban prisoners. “We killed one of the male hostages at 6:30 this evening (1400 GMT) because the Kabul administration did not listen to our repeated demands,” spokesman Qari Mohammad Youssuf told Reuters by telephone from an unknown location. The Taleban seized 23 Korean Christians, 18 of them women, 11 days ago from a bus in Ghazni on the main highway south from Kabul and killed the leader of the group on Wednesday after an earlier deadline passed.

The spokesman said the Taleban would kill more hostages if Kabul ignored their demand to release rebel prisoners but set no new deadline. He said the body of the Korean shot on Monday had been dumped on a roadside.

The shooting was a bloody rejection of the authorities’ request for more time for talks on freeing the hostages after the expiry of a rebel deadline earlier in the day.

At the NC plenary session held on 30 October 2006, the Work Committee chairman said: “The National Convention designated 15 chapters first for ensuring a systematic approach to the laying down of basic principles and detailed basic principles to draft a new State constitution. The Chapter “Election” is one of the 15 chapters, and two basic principles have been laid down for it.

(a) Every citizen shall have the right to vote and to stand for election according to law.

Then, I continued, “I would like to present some points relating to the Chapter “Election”. The Plenary Session of the national Convention held from 28 to 30 March 1996 laid down detailed basic principles for the formation of Legislation, Executive and Judiciary, and some of them are related to qualifications set for a Pyithu Hluttaw member.”

With respect to the qualifications of a Pyithu Hluttaw member, a detailed basic principle has been adopted that—

“Every citizen who has the following requirements shall have the right to stand for election to the Pyithu Hluttaw—
(a) who has turned 25;
(b) who were born of parents both of whom are nationals;
(c) who has lived in the Union of Myanmar for at least 10 consecutive years when he is elected as a member of the Pyithu Hluttaw.”

Chairman, NCC Work Committee

Mr Chairman,

As to this suggestion, of the two methods to count votes—township-wise and polling station-wise—the Election Commission will use more appropriate one. So, their suggestions will be recorded in order that it can be taken into consideration in drafting the State constitution.

Mr Chairman,

The Delegate Group of Intellectuals and Intelligentia said, "The chairman and members of the Union Election Commission will have to discharge demanding and formidable tasks. So, if they are not capable enough of accomplishing such huge tasks, they are to be impeached and terminated from their duties, if necessary. In this regard, we consider that it is required to prescribe specific reasons and procedures to impeach such persons." So, we would like to make a suggestion that a detailed basic principle should be adopted: "Regarding the impeachment of the chairman or a member of the Union Election Commission:

(a) The President may impeach the chairman or a member of the Union Election Commission for any of the following reasons:

(1) treason;

(2) violation of any provision of the Constitution;

(3) misbehaviour;

(4) lack of qualifications prescribed in the Constitution for a Hluttaw member;

(5) inefficient discharge of duties.

(b) procedures shall be taken in accordance with the provisions of the State Constitution on impeachment of the Chief Justice or a Supreme Court Justice.

If their suggestion is prescribed as it is, there will be more meaningful regarding the impeaching of the chairman or a member of the Union Election Commission. This suggestion is found to be in conformity with the already-adopted basic principle, so this suggestion deserves serious consideration.

The National Convention Convening Work Committee held discussions with members of the panel of chairmen to decide as to whether this suggestion should be adopted as a detailed basic principle or not. The members of the panel of chairmen then discussed the issue with respective representatives, and the stance of members of the delegate group concerned was forwarded by letter to the Work Committee. All delegate groups suggested unanimously that the pattern:

(a) The President may impeach the chairman or a member of the Union Election Commission for any of the following reasons:

(1) treason;

(2) violation of any provision of the Constitution;

(3) misbehaviour;

(4) lack of qualifications prescribed in the Constitution for a Hluttaw member;

(5) inefficient discharge of duties.

(b) procedures shall be taken in accordance with the provisions of the State Constitution on impeachment of the Chief Justice or a Supreme Court Justice" shall be adopted as a detailed basic principle Para (10).

Mr Chairman,

The Delegate Group of State Service Personnel in its suggestion said, “Of the 14 points, sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph 11 means as if that sub-paragraph is solely related to the matter to fill the positions of the chairman and members of the Union Election Commission under sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph 11 due to vacancies. We would like to make a suggestion that it will be more appropriate if
NCC Work Committee
Chairman’s clarification...

sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (b) (11) is added to paragraph (8) as its sub-paragraph (c)."

To assess this suggestion, wherever the sub-paragraph is stipulated, the benefit is the same. When the detailed basic principles on executive formation, such matters were enumerated in the paragraph on term of the position, the right to submit resignation letter, and the power to terminate the duties and to fill vacancies.
Therefore, the sub-paragraph is manifested like this so as to be harmonious with the already-adopted detailed basic principles.

Mr Chairman,

The Delegate Group of Other Invited Persons in its suggestion said, “We would like to make two separate suggestions about the Chapter “Election”. They are:
(a) There have been many events that in elections and casting votes in Hluttaw sessions of some other countries, voters, Hluttaw members and political parties were under the influence of money, muscle and gangs such as Mafia, and such countries suffered loss a lot. So, in order to avert such undesirable events, effective provisions and laws including anti-defection law should be prescribed.
(b) A principle should be prescribed in the Union Election Commission Law that decisions of the Union Election Commission should be made with unanimous vote or the vote of the majority to prevent the decisions the chairman or a member or two members of the commission make they at the meetings of the Union Election Commission.

I would say the suggestion carries a point that effective provisions and laws should be promulgated.
Thus, the suggestion will have to be recorded so that it can be considered if necessary when laws are to be enacted.

So, in accordance with the suggestions of the majority of the NC delegates, the following points are adopted as adopted basic principles.

1. In electing members to Hluttaw—
   (a) Every citizen who has attained 18 years of age on the date on which elections commence,

       Amyotha Hluttaw only.

       (b) Save as otherwise prescribed by the Constitution, a Region or State Hluttaw member elected in a constituency that the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw has designated as a

            Hluttaw member.

           Constitution for a Hluttaw member;
      (5) inefficient discharge of duties.

   on election and recall.

8. (a) The President shall form a Union Hluttaw Election Commission. In the process, he Detailed basic principles that should be ...

1. Political parties set the objective — non-disintegration of the Union, non-disintegration of national solidarity and the maintenance of sovereignty.

2. A political party shall:
   (a) accept and practise discipline-flourishing genuine multiparty democracy.
   (b) abide by the Constitution and the existing laws.
   (c) be legally registered as a political party.

3. In accord with the law, a political party shall have the right to:
   (a) organize freely;
   (b) to stand for the elections.

4. The continued existence of a political party shall not be permitted if —
   (a) it has been declared as an unlawful organization in accord with the existing law;
   (b) it makes connections with or provides support and assistance to insurgent groups waging an armed rebellion against the State, organizations or persons the State has announced as the ones committing terrorist acts or organizations the State has declared unlawful;
   (c) it directly or indirectly receives financial, material and other assistance from the government or a religious organization, or any other organization or an individual person of a foreign country;
   (d) it abuses religion for political purpose.

5. If the body having the authority to register political parties finds that a political party is connected with any one of the points stated in the above-mentioned subparagraphs (a), (b), (c) or (d), the party’s registration shall be revoked.

6. The Pyidaungsu Hluttaw shall enact necessary laws concerning the political parties.

Mr Chairman,

I will now present the separate suggestions submitted by the Delegate Groups.

In its separate suggestion, the National Unity Party said, “We find the para (6) “The Pyidaungsu Hluttaw shall enact necessary laws concerning the political parties.” appropriate. But we would like to suggest that serious consideration should be made to the inclusion of the proper rights of political parties in enacting the laws concerning their rules.

“In building a modern and development democratic state through multiparty democracy system, the continued existence of political parties has connections with the task of serving the interest of the people and the nation. Hence, the members of the parties should be the ones committed to sovereignty. As the parties are formed with the aim of realizing the public wishes and desires, they should have the right to correctly exercise democratic practices and truly represent the people. Based on the past experiences, the present multiparty democracy system should be a prestigious one. The parties play an important part in serving the interest of the nation and the people.

“Hence, the state should recognize the parties and render assistance to them for the parties to play their part significantly.”

Concerning the suggestion I will explain that as the nation will practise discipline-flourishing democracy after the proclamation of a new Constitution, the nation will have to write and enact a law concerning the political parties. The suggestion will be put on record to consider the facts contain in the suggestion as and when necessary in drafting the said law.

Wa National Development Party gave a suggestion, saying, “We would like to present a suggestion concerning the chapter “Political Parties”. Political parties should be the organizations capable of heading for the flourishing of discipline-flourishing genuine multiparty democracy in the entire Union in accord with the nation’s political, security, economic and social conditions and traditions and customs. And it is a must. The parties will have to launch organizational campaigns to strengthen themselves in all aspects. But the parties will face a problem and obstacles if there is a prescription saying that all matters and functions should be free from politics. Such prescription is also against the objective — flourishing of genuine multiparty democracy system — of the six objectives of the National Convention. We would like to suggest that there should be no such prescription in our nation that will practise multiparty democracy in the future.”

As regards the suggestion, I will explain that there are two kinds of politics — national politics and party politics. If a member of a political party is elected President, he will have to lead the party accord with the law without making any discrimination as he is the Head of State. Members of the Union government will have to do the same. Persons of the organizations discharging the duties of the State and service personnel are required to be free from party politics to be able to equally deal and serve the people in accord with the law. In this regard, there is a detailed basic principle for those persons to stay away from party politics as they need to be free from party politics while discharging the State duties. The said persons can carry out national politics.

Mr Chairman,

The representatives included in the Delegate Group of Representatives-Elect of the political parties presented the opinion of their respective parties. Independent representatives-elect Dr Hmu Htan of Thantlang Township Constituency in Chin State, U Aung Thein of Ywangan Township Constituency in Shan State (South) and U Tun Kyaw of Namsaba Township Constituency in Shan State (North) in their suggestions, said, “Myanmar has already witnessed the weaknesses and loopholes of the parliamentary democracy system. Now, the country is in accord with the law and regulations of Independence. A study of those weaknesses and loopholes shows that they were the results of the lack of democracy experiences in history, the single party governance in real terms in the name of parliamentary democracy, the public intellectual progress that had not reached the level of defining and exercising the rights and duties of democracy with correct conviction, the political parties’ insufficient ability to train, educate and lead the people to exercise democracy rights with a sense of duty, and the lack of development infrastructure that would help realize the essence of democracy more fully, the declining situation of democracy in the parties, and the growing centralized system. It is found that it is required to lay down detailed basic principles concerning the qualifications of political parties as necessary, after taking the experiences Myanmar had faced as lessons for the flourishing of genuine multiparty democracy in the nation.

“To ensure that there will be no disputes in the future, we would like to suggest that the point “The Pyidaungsu Hluttaw shall designate and prescribe the qualifications of political parties” should be added to the points.

“Political parties should serve as a bridge between the government and the people for the emergence of a multiparty system benefiting the people. They should be organizations that are able to lay down the rules and regulations in conformity with the nation’s political, security and economic situations, customs and public interest. They should have the directives, fundamental policies and practices. There may be parties representing the whole nation for the emergence of discipline-flourishing democracy as well as parties representing the respective national races.”

“Hence we would like to give a separate suggestion saying that the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw in enacting laws concerning the political parties should consider permitting the establishment of political parties representing the whole Union as well as the respective regions.

“I will now discuss the matter “no right to exist” of a political party. The body having the authority to register political parties before revoking the registration of a party should not make such a decision unless it is required to be free from party politics. We would like to suggest that the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw should enact laws and bylaws to observe the right of defence and the right of appeal of the political parties.

“The political parties have the duty to resolutely serve the interest of the nation and the people. The parties should have the capability to lead towards flourishing of genuine and disciplined democracy in the entire nation. The leaders of the parties should be the ones who are sincere and upright. As they are human beings they may make mistakes in certain matters. The problems of the parties should be solved within the parties. Action should not be taken against any party leader or member for his mistakes directly by the authorities concerned. The authorities should make consultations with the steering groups of the party concerned and action should be taken against the leader of the party for his mistakes based on the rules and regulations of the party. The matter should be put into consideration when laws and bylaws concerning the parties are drafted.

The suggestions will be put on record for the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw to take them into account in drafting and enacting laws in accordance with the suggestions of the parties on the election as in addition to the said suggestions, other facts may be required in doing so.

Mr Chairman,

The Delegate Group of National Races gave the following suggestion:

“The para 2 of the chapter states as follows:

2. A political party shall:
   (a) accept and practise discipline-flourishing genuine multiparty democracy.
   (b) abide by the Constitution and the existing laws.
   (c) be legally registered as a political party.

“We would like to add another para which will be para (d) A political party shall have the duty to be loyal to the State.” to the given detailed basic principle.

“We present the suggestion as the emergence of firm and competent political parties that will steer the nation towards the flourishing of multiparty democracy and the citizen’s loyalty to the State are essential requirements.”

If the suggestion is added there will emergence of firm and competent parties that will steer the nation (See page 8)
Detailed basic principles that should be ... towards the flourishing of discipline-flourishing democracy. The suggestion also emphasizes the fact that the members of the political parties too should be loyal to the State as they also are citizens. Actually, the subparas of the para (2) state the duties political parties should observe. It will be more appropriate if the suggestion will be stipulated as subpara (b) of the para (1). By doing so, the para (1) will become the subpara (a) of the para (1). The para (1) should start with the words “Political parties” as they concern both the subparas (a) and (b). So, the para should be stated as follows:

1. Political parties
   (a) set the objective — non-disintegration of the Union, non-disintegration of national solidarity and perpetuation of sovereignty.
   (b) have the duty to be loyal to the State.

As the suggestion is in accord with the adopted fundamental principles, it deserves serious consideration. The National Convention Convocation Work Committee discussed the matter with the members of the panel of chairmen concerned. The Delegates Groups sent their opinions regarding the suggestion to the Work Committee in writing after the panels of chairmen had held discussions with the respective delegates. All the Delegate Groups suggested stating the subpara (b) of the para (1) as follows:

“have the duty to be loyal to the State”.

Mr Chairman,
The Delegate Group of Peasants presented a separate suggestion, saying, “More or less, the weak points and advantages of the registration law can have impact on the political parties. If a large number of small parties stand for the election, people will find difficulties in choosing the candidates, and the formation of a majority government in the parliament will not be easy. And there cannot be a stable government. Hence, there are limitations in the number of parties as there should be a few numbers of large and strong political parties.

“As in some countries the limitation should be centred on a party’s ability to take part in an election, that is limited at half the number of constituencies, the policies and work programmes of a party, membership strength, financial capacity, and the ability to accept the inspection of its membership strength by the Election Commission.

“The political parties should be the organizations that give priority more to the interest of the nation and the people than self-interest. They should be the parties that can cooperate with the opposition for the benefit of the State and the people whether they win in the election or not. The ruling party should stay away from bullying the opposition parties and conducting dictator-like acts. Hence we will have to draft a Constitution that is in conformity with the future nation, taking the past events as lessons.”

The first part of the suggestion includes the policy and system, the set qualification of members and party funds when the parties were formed. In the future also, the same procedures should be applied for party registration.

The second part states the rules for the respective parties, saying such rules should not be prescribed under strict laws. The suggestion should be recorded for the political parties concerned to take necessary measures.

“The Delegate Group of Other Invited Persons gave a suggestion, which said,” The forthcoming State Constitution will have to demonstrate genuine multi-party democracy system with flourishing discipline. So, it is required to take lessons from the historic events to prescribe necessary provisions in order to avert such bitter experiences in which the nation and the people stood for the evil consequences from the weak points of the political parties.

“Political parties are responsible for serving the interests of the nation and the people steadfastly. However, by nature, a party may face internal or external disputes. So, it is needed to control and tackle such disputes in a democratic way under the law. Members of a political party should uphold the democratic ethics. At the same time, there should be effective measures to safeguard the nation and the people from any form of dangers. Therefore, I would like to suggest that political parties should not create a situation that brings disunity and disputes into the party or the parties which poses dangers to the political affairs, security and economy of the nation.”

Eight dead in bus accident in Tibet
LHASA, 31 July — At least eight people were killed and four were seriously injured after a bus plunged into a valley in southwest China’s Tibet Autonomous Region, local government said on Monday.

Italian police arrest more people for poisonous cocaine
ROME, 31 July — Italian police arrested two more people in Bergamo, a city of northern Italy, who were believed to deal cocaine laced with atropine which has sent 18 people to hospital, local media reported on Monday. Police believed the two suspects are members of the Moroccan gang dealing cocaine with three other Moroccans who were nabbed over the weekend. Police said the alarm over the tainted drugs appears to be over after no one else was hospitalized aside from the six on Thursday and 12 on Friday.

Atropine, a poisonous alkaloid obtained from deadly nightshade, also known as belladonna, creates eye and hearing hallucinations and can lead to irregular heartbeat. It dilates the pupils and an overdose can lead to convulsions, unconsciousness and even death.

Oxfam report says hunger, disease spread in Iraq

BAGHDAD, 31 July — Hunger and disease are spreading in Iraq as violence masks a deepening humanitarian crisis, British charity Oxfam said in a report on Monday. The charity said 28 per cent of Iraqi children are malnourished, 15 per cent of Iraqis regularly cannot afford enough to eat and 70 per cent lack clean drinking water, all sharp increases since 2003. “The terrible violence in Iraq has masked the ongoing humanitarian crisis. Malnutrition amongst children has dramatically increased and basic services, ruined by years of war and sanctions, cannot meet the needs of the Iraqi people,” Oxfam director Jeremy Hobbs said. “The fighting and weak Iraqi institutions mean there are severe limits on what humanitarian work can be carried out. Nevertheless more can and should be done to help the Iraqi people,” he said.

In April, Apple company said it had sold more than 100 million iPods. Breeched that milestone in the fifth and a half years since the first iPod was sold. Perhaps most importantly, Apple offered not just the downloading service but also the hard ware for managing music collections. They've made it brain dead simple to buy, download and move content around on iPods, computers and now iPhones,” said Gartner analyst Mike McGuire.

As these mice matured, they became more agitated when placed in an open field, had trouble finding hidden food, and did not swim as long as regular mice; such behaviors parallel the hyperactivity, smell defects and apathy observed in schizophrenia patients. Magnetic resonance imaging also revealed characteristic defects in brain structure.

Sawa notes that the defects in these mice were not as severe as those typically seen in people with schizophrenia, because more than one gene is required to trigger the clinical disease.

WASHINGTON, 30 July — Johns Hopkins researchers have genetically engineered the first mouse that models both the anatomical and behavioral defects of schizophrenia, a complex and debilitating brain disorder.

In contrast to current animal studies that rely on drugs that can only mimic the manifestations of schizophrenia, this new mouse is based on a genetic change relevant to the disease. Thus, it should greatly help with understanding disease progression and developing new therapies.

Animal models of schizophrenia have been hard to design since many different causes underlie this disease. However, Akira Sawa and colleagues took advantage of the recent discovery of a major risk factor for this disease: the DISC1 gene, which makes a protein that helps nerve cells assume their proper positions in the brain. As reported online Monday in Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences, the researchers generated mice that make an incomplete, shortened form of the DISC1 protein in addition to the regular type.

The milestone came just six months after iTunes, Apple Inc’s online music download service, surpassed the 2 billion tracks sold mark. The service was launched in April 2003 and, until February 2006, sold its first 1 billion songs. iTunes has surpassed Amazon.com Inc and Target Corp to become the third-largest music retailer in the United States, according to media reports. The iTunes catalog contains over 5 million songs, 550 television shows and 500 movies. Apple’s line of iPod portable music players has been key to iTunes’ popularity.

Nantes start Ligue 2 campaign with 5-0 rout

NANTES (France), 1 Aug — Eight-times French champions Nantes started life as a Ligue 2 club for the first time in over four decades with a 5-0 rout, making clear they were determined to secure an immediate return to the top flight.

"We wanted to show the fans that the team have soul," captain Frederic Da Rocha told reporters after Nantes crushed Reims on Monday.

Over 25,000 fans attended the match at the Beaujoire Stadium and greeted their team’s performance with rounds of Mexican waves.

"It wasn’t bad but we must not get carried away," Da Rocha added. "We must do better still." The win came two days after the news that Polish-born businessman Waldemar Kita had bought the club from owner Serge Dassault.

Nantes were relegated at the end of last season after spending a record 44 consecutive years in the top flight.

For years Nantes were nurtured by a series of unpretentious father figures, but the club changed dramatically in 2004 when Dassault, the owner of an aviation and industrial company, took control.

For many Nantes lovers, the businessman and the leadership he put in place broke the club’s rich traditions, which the fans believe led to its decline.

Brazil gives little away at 2014 World Cup bid handover

ZURICH, 1 Aug — The Brazilian football association (CBF) formally submitted its plans for staging the 2014 World Cup on Tuesday but kept the details close to its chest.

A Brazilian delegate, headed by CBF president Ricardo Teixeira, handed over a 990-page dossier at the headquarters of world soccer’s governing body but declined to answer media questions on the size of the bid budget or any potential challenges it faced.

Brazil last staged the World Cup in 1950 and is the only country bidding to stage the 2014 version, having benefited from FIFA’s decision to rotate the World Cup between different continents.

Colombia briefly launched a rival bid but withdrew in April.

FIFA president Sepp Blatter has repeatedly warned however that Brazil must still meet the logistical and financial requirements of staging the tournament or risk the competition being opened up to nations from outside South America.

"For the time being Brazil has not yet been given the World Cup," Blatter said shortly ahead of Wednesday’s formal handover.

"If something should happen to the Brazil bid, then we still have time to start again as we are a year in advance of the decision-making process for previous World Cups."

Partizan continue in UEFA Cup after ban deferred

BELGRADEM, 1 Aug — Partizan Belgrade will host Bosnia’s Zrinjski Mostar in their UEFA Cup first qualifying round second leg on Thursday after UEFA deferred a one-year ban against the Serbian club.

"Following an appeal by FK Partizan, the chairman of UEFA’s Appeals Body has granted a delaying effect in the Serbian club’s disciplinary case," European soccer’s governing body said in a statement.

The decision means the UEFA Appeals Body can examine the case, consider the parties’ arguments and rule on the merits of the case by 16 August, when the second qualifying round first-leg matches are scheduled to take place.”

Partizan were thrown out of the UEFA Cup and fined 50,000 Swiss francs last week after their fans rioted in advance of the match.

Partizan won the match 6-1.

Coach Vieira speaks to S Korea and socceroos

BANGKOK, 31 July — Jorvan Vieira is a wanted man after guiding Iraq to their first Asian Cup triumph, and has already attracted interest from Australia and South Korea with a view to taking over as national team coach.

The Brazilian spoke with representatives of the two teams on Monday, less than 24 hours after Iraq’s fairytale 1-0 victory over hot favourites Saudi Arabia in Jakarta.

“I spoke on the telephone with representatives of Australia and South Korea asking me if I was interested,” Vieira told Reuters during a brief stopover in Bangkok.

“It’s still very early. First, I need a holiday before I decide what to do,” he added.

Newcomers Australia, who were the pre-tournament favourites after reaching the last 16 of last year’s World Cup, have confirmed they are looking for a foreign coach to replace Graham Arnold after their Asian Cup debut flop.

West Ham pledge to seek out-of-court Tevez settlement

LONDON, 1 Aug — West Ham United will continue to seek an out-of-court settlement with Argentine forward Carlos Tevez’s representatives after they started legal proceedings against the London club.

In a statement on their Web site on Tuesday, the Premier League club said that if they failed to achieve an out-of-court agreement with all parties involved, then they would present a robust case to the High Court on 22 August.

Tevez’s representative Kia Joorabchian, who claims that he and his companies own the economic rights to Tevez, 23, applied to the High Court after serving a writ on West Ham in a bid to ease their proposed transfer to Manchester United.

West Ham claim they are the true ‘owners’ of Tevez as they hold his registration as a player after recruiting him in a complex deal last year.

"West Ham United will continue to work on achieving an out-of-court settlement on the issues relating to Carlos Tevez," the club said.

"However, if a settlement is reached by all parties, is not possible then the Club will present a very robust legal case to the High Court if the matter comes before the court on 22nd August."

Tevez’s move to the Premier League champions has stalled over the question of who should be paid that fee, estimated by the British media to be worth up to 30 million pounds (61.73 million US dollars).

Milan confirm interest in Real’s Baptista

MILAN, 1 Aug — AC Milan vice-president Adriano Galliani confirmed his side’s interest in Real Madrid forward Julio Baptista on Tuesday. Galliani was quoted in a newspaper article that Real Madrid is willing to sell the Brazilian if European champions Milan took out-of-favour forward Antonio Cassano as well.

"If Real Madrid accept this offer for Baptista, good, otherwise it won’t happen," Galliani told a media conference at the launch of Milan’s new home shirt. "I deny that Real have asked us to take Cassano too."

Baptista, who scored in Brazil’s Copa America final win over Argentina this month, has struggled at Real this season.

"If Real Madrid accept this offer for Baptista, good, otherwise it won’t happen," Galliani told a news conference. "I deny that Real have asked us to take Cassano too."

Iran slams Washington’s plan to sell arms to Arab nations

TEHRAN, 1 August — Iran on Tuesday condemned a US multi-billion-dollar military sales package for Arab nations as “adventurism”, the official IRNA news agency reported.

The US plan to “sell arms worth of billions of dollars and prepare illusive scenarios in the region” is an instance of adventurism, Iranian Foreign Minister Manouchehr Mottaki said in a statement. “Washington has taken such a move to save the US arms manufacturing companies from bankruptcy,” Mottaki said, adding that “White House rulers” want to use their influence at the end of their tenure in office to garner growing benefits for owners of the arms companies.

He said that contrary to Washington’s “disparate attempts”, regional countries, which are “sharing many historical commonalities and uncontrollable and religious affinities”, had peaceful coexistence for years.

Washington announced on Monday that it planned to provide a series of arms deals, estimated at 20 billion US dollars, to Saudi Arabia and five other oil-rich Gulf states as well as new 10-year military aid packages to Israel and Egypt.

Specific figures for Saudi Arabia and Gulf nations like Bahrain, Kuwait, Oman, Qatar and the United Arab Emirates, will be determined in the coming weeks, according to US Undersecretary of State Nicholas Burns.

Israel will receive a total of 30 billion dollars in US military assistance, up from about 24 billion dollars, over the next decade, while Egypt will get 13 billion dollars as part of the broader package.

YANGON, 1 Aug — The following is the clarification on the detailed basic principles that should be adopted in the chapter “Election” out of chapters “Election”, “Political Parties”, and “Provisions on State of Emergency” to be included in drawing the State constitution at the Plenary Session of the National Convention at Nyaungshwein Camp in Hmawby Township today.

Mr Chairman and National Convention delegates,

At the plenary sessions held on 30 and 31 October 2006, the Work Committee chairman’s explanation about the detailed basic principles that should be adopted for the Chapters “Election”, “Political Parties”, and “Provisions on State of Emergency” was read out.

The delegate groups held group-wise discussions about the Work Committee chairman’s explanation and compiled the proposals and read out the papers at the sessions held from 27 November to 7 December 2006. Of the proposals for the basic principles and detailed basic principles the NC had laid down, suitable ones were submitted. Some of them are the ones that can bring benefits to the nation and the people. So, regarding such kinds of proposals, the Work Committee sought the approval of the delegate groups through members of the panel of chairmen.

The Work Committee carried out a thorough study of the delegates’ suggestions about the Chapters “Election”, “Political Parties”, and “Provisions on State of Emergency”. The National Convention Convening Commission evaluated and adopted the suitable detailed basic principles the Work Committee had compiled. Now, I will explain the suitable detailed basic principles to be adopted for the Chapters “Election”, “Political Parties”, and “Provisions on State of Emergency”.
