

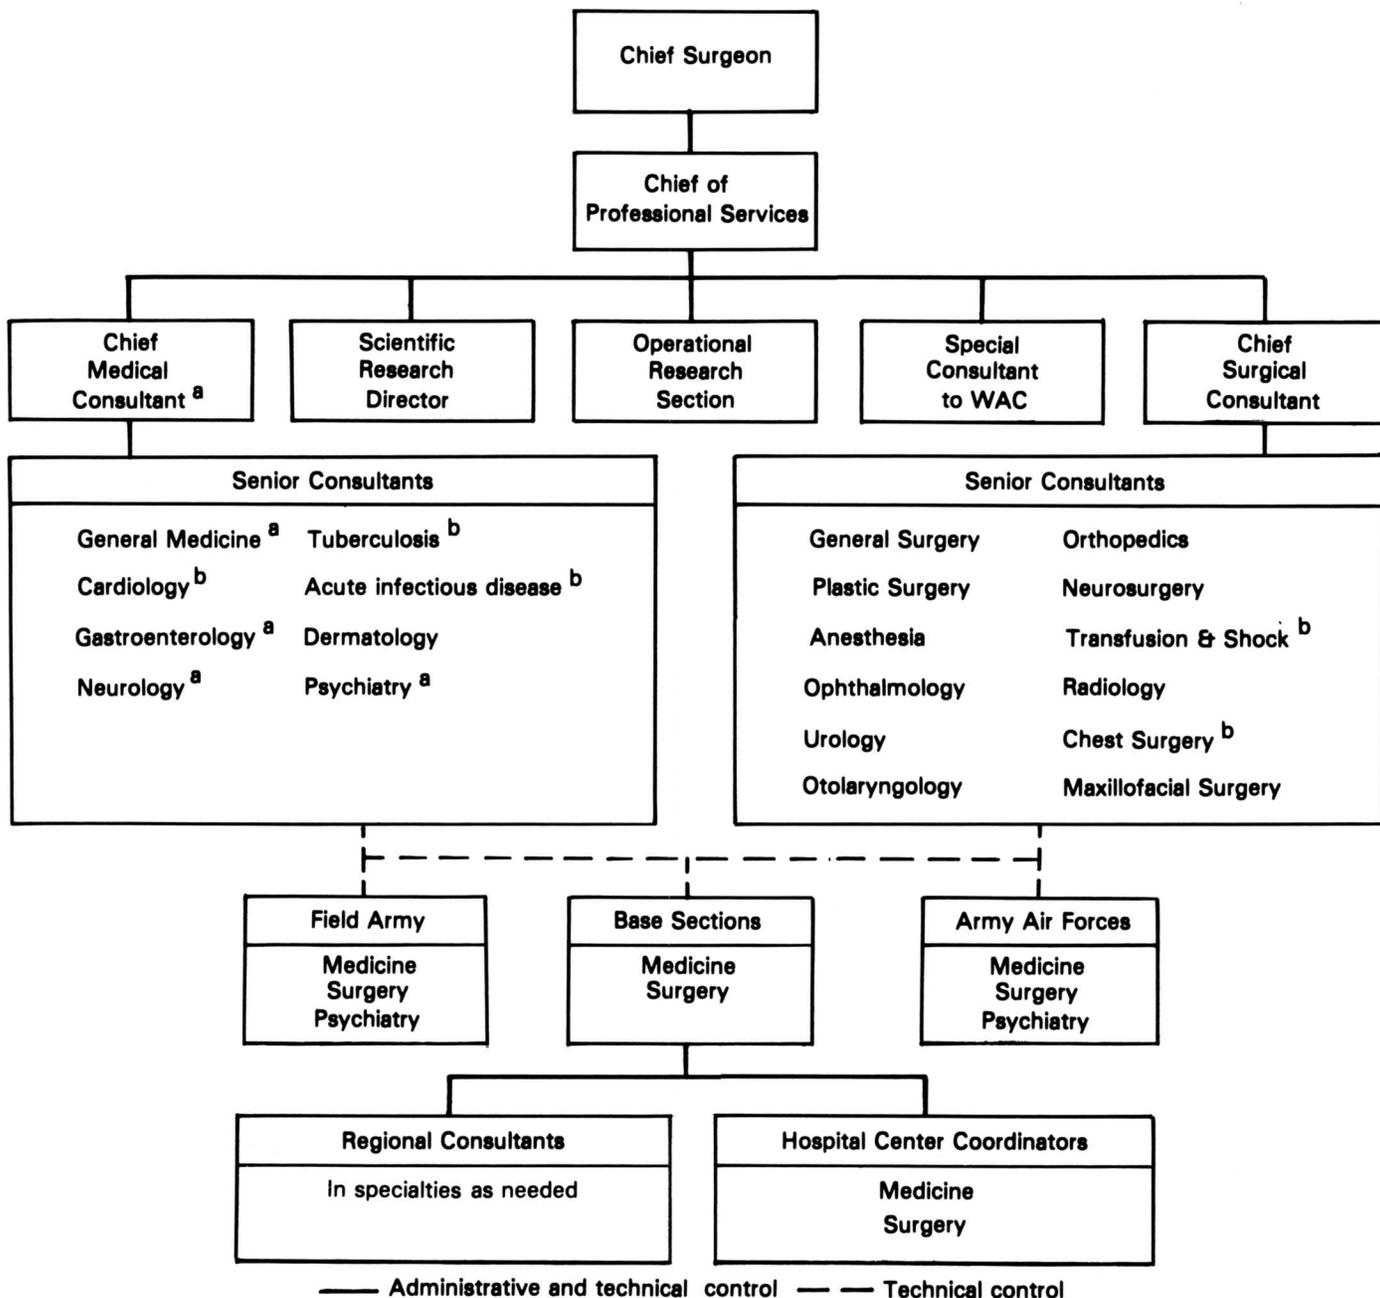

CHART 4—ORGANIZATION OF THE CONSULTANT SYSTEM, ETOUSA, 1944

^a Dual positions. Chief medical consultant was also consultant in general medicine and gastroenterology. Neurology and psychiatry were handled by one officer.

^b Part-time positions held by medical officers assigned permanent duties elsewhere than in the Office of the Chief Surgeon.

Source: Carter, ed., Activities of Surgical Consultants, 2:8.