Washington, October 25, 1941.

INFORMATION RECEIVED FROM THE GOVERNMENT

Dated August 25, 1941.

1. "Mr. HIROTA, a presiding officer at discussions preceding the Black Dragon Society, told of an order issued by War Minister TOMO (now Premier) "to complete full preparation to meet any emergency with United States in the Pacific. All resources to be mounted in the Islands of the Pacific under Japanese guidance. The full preparation to be completed in November."

2. HIROTA and others are said to have agreed: "War with United States would best begin in December or in February."

3. "Very soon," they say, "the Cabinet will be changed. The new Cabinet would likely start war within sixty days."
