

of goods and/or services in the international registration;

(5) A list of the Contracting Parties designated for an extension of protection. If the goods and/or services in the subsequent designation are not the same for all the Contracting Parties designated, the holder must include a list of the goods and/or services covered by the subsequent designation that pertain to each designated Contracting Party;

(6) The U.S. transmittal fee required by § 7.6 and the subsequent designation fees required by the International Bureau (§ 7.7); and

(7) An e-mail address for receipt of correspondence from the Office.

(c) If the subsequent designation is accorded a date of receipt, the Office will forward the subsequent designation to the International Bureau.

(d) Correspondence to correct any irregularities in a subsequent designation must be made directly with the International Bureau, even if the subsequent designation is submitted through the Office. If such correspondence is sent to the Office, the Office will not process the correspondence.

Subpart D—Recording Changes to International Registration

§ 7.22 Recording changes to international registration.

(a) All requests to record changes to an international registration must be filed directly with the International Bureau, except for requests to record changes to an international registration under §§ 7.23 and 7.24. If a request to record an assignment or restriction of a holder's right of disposal of an international registration meets the requirements of § 7.23 or 7.24, the Office will forward the request to the International Bureau.

(b) Assignments or restrictions of a holder's rights of disposal of an international registration must be recorded by the International Bureau. Section 10 of the Act and part 3 of this chapter are not applicable to such assignments or restrictions.

(c) When the Office is notified by the International Bureau of an assignment or restriction of a holder's right of disposal of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States, the Office will take note of the assignment or restriction in its records.

§ 7.23 Request to record assignment submitted through the Office.

(a) In limited circumstances, a request to record an assignment of an international registration may be submitted through the Office for forwarding to the International Bureau. The following conditions must apply:

(1) The assignee cannot obtain the assignor's signature on the request to record an assignment; and

(2) The assignee is a national of the United States, has a domicile in the United States, or has a real and effective industrial or commercial establishment in the United States.

(b) The assignee must submit a request to record an assignment under paragraph (a) of this section through the Office that includes all of the following:

(1) The international registration number;

(2) The name and address of the holder of the international registration;

(3) The name and address of the assignee of the international registration;

(4) A statement that the assignee: is a national of the United States; has a domicile in the United States; or has a real and effective industrial or commercial establishment in the United States. Where an assignee's address is not in the United States, the assignee must provide the address of its U.S. domicile or establishment;

(5) A list of the designated Contracting Parties with respect to which the international registration has been assigned;

(6) A list of the goods and/or services in the international registration that have been assigned and the designated Contracting Parties to which they pertain;

(7) A description of the interest conveyed; and

(8) The U.S. transmittal fee required by § 7.6 and the fees required by the International Bureau to record the assignment (See § 7.7).

(c) If a request to record an assignment contains all the elements set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, the Office will forward the request to the International Bureau. Forwarding the request to the International Bureau is not a determination by the Office of the validity of the assignment or the effect that the assignment has on the title of the international registration.

(d) If the request fails to contain all of the elements set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, the Office will not forward the request. The Office will notify the assignee(s) of the refusal and the reason(s) for the refusal.

(e) Except for those assignments meeting the conditions set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, requests to record assignments may not be submitted through the Office.

§ 7.24 Request to record security interest or other restriction of holder's rights of disposal submitted through the Office.

(a) In limited circumstances, a request to record a security interest or other restriction of a holder's right to dispose of an international registration may be submitted through the Office for forwarding to the International Bureau. The following conditions must apply:

(1) The restriction is the result of an agreement between the holder of the international registration and the party restricting the holder's right of disposal and is not the result of a court order; and

(2) The signature of the holder of the international registration cannot be obtained for the request to record the restriction.

(b) The party who obtained a restriction of the holder's right of disposal must submit a request to record the restriction under paragraph (a) of this section through the Office that includes all the following:

(1) The international registration number;

(2) The name and address of the holder of the international registration;

(3) The name and address of the party who holds the restriction;

(4) A statement that the party who submitted the request: is a national of the United States; has a domicile in the United States; or has a real and effective industrial or commercial establishment in the United States. Where a party's address is not in the United States, the party must provide the address of its U.S. domicile or establishment;

(5) A summary of the main facts concerning the restriction; and

(6) A list of the Contracting Parties designated in the international registration to which the restriction applies.

(c) If a request to record a restriction contains all of the elements set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, the Office will forward the request to the International Bureau. Forwarding the request to the International Bureau is not a determination by the Office of the validity of the restriction or the effect that the restriction has on the holder's right to dispose of the international registration.

(d) If the request fails to contain all of the elements set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, the Office will not forward the request. The Office will notify the party who submitted the request of the refusal and the reason(s) for the refusal.

(e) Except for restrictions meeting the conditions set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, restrictions on a holder's right to dispose of an international
