Part I. Background Information: Reducing Family and Intimate Violence Through Coordinated Prevention and Services Strategies

The Importance of Coordination of Services

Family and intimate violence has serious and far-reaching consequences for individuals, families, and communities. Estimates from the Department of Justice National Crime Victimization Survey (NCVS) indicate that, in 1998, about 1 million violent crimes were committed against persons by their current or former spouses, boyfriends, or girlfriends. Such crimes termed intimate partner violence are committed primarily against women. It is important to note that, regardless of the demographic characteristics considered, women experienced intimate partner violence at higher rates than men between 1993 and 1998 (Bureau of Justice Statistics 2000).

The impact of family and intimate violence includes physical injury and
