Homebuyer Education (6a). Enter data for clients who completed a homebuyer education course or workshop. Homebuyer education differs from counseling in that it is usually conducted in a group setting and is not tailored to the unique circumstance of the individual. Counseling goes beyond the general education, is more rigorous, and involves one-on-one and longer-term relationships. Note that you will also count the client who receives or is receiving counseling under the prepurchase counseling heading.

Post-Purchase Homeowner Workshop (6b). Enter data for clients who completed a post-purchase homeowner education course or workshop. This includes topics such as budgeting and financial management, real estate taxes and insurance, and property maintenance. Please also count the client who supplements education with one-on-one counseling under the appropriate counseling heading.

Fair Housing (6c). Enter data for clients who, in addition to seeking other types counseling as described on this form, had issues affecting a protected class as defined under the Fair Housing Act, 42 USC 3601-3631. The law prohibits discrimination on basis of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, or familial status. Remember to include these clients under the appropriate type of counseling sought.

Predatory Lending (6d). Enter data for clients who attended a predatory lending workshop or outreach program. Please also count the client who supplements education with one-on-one counseling under the appropriate counseling heading.

7. Number of Clients Counseled, by Purpose of Visit and Results.
