

receive a greater number of points if your leadership development activities are consistent with the purpose of the Youthbuild program and your project goals and the resources provided.

(d) Support services. HUD will determine the extent to which you demonstrate a clear linkage with work plan activities and proposed outcomes and results.

Letters describing specific resources or services to be contributed by non-applicant organizations must be included in your application. Points will be awarded based upon the quality and feasibility of your proposed support services strategy and stipends for the participants.

You must assess the need for counseling and referral services during each stage of program implementation: outreach strategy, recruitment strategy, youths interviewed and not selected for the program, program participants, youths who drop out of the program and graduates of the program. Describe how the participant needs will be addressed, document counseling and referral services to be offered to participants, the type of counseling, social services, and/or need-based stipends you will provide.

Applicants will receive a greater number of points if your support service activities are consistent with the purpose of the Youthbuild program and your project goals and the resources provided.

(e) Follow-up assistance and support activities to program graduates. HUD will evaluate the extent to which you provide assistance to Youthbuild program participants after graduation. Letters describing specific resources or services to be contributed by non-applicant organizations must be included in your application. Points will be awarded based upon the quality and feasibility of your proposed strategy. You must describe the type of proposed assistance and support which should be based upon an assessment of the needs of the program graduates and should include continued linkage to the local Youthbuild program, counseling and social service referral services. You will receive a greater number of points if your follow-up assistance and support service activities to program graduates are consistent with the purpose of the Youthbuild program and your project goals and the resources provided.

(f) On-site training. HUD will evaluate the extent to which the work plan provides for quality and comprehensive on-site construction training by addressing the categories below. Letters describing specific resources or services to be contributed by any non-applicant organizations must be included in your application. Points will be awarded based upon the quality and feasibility of your proposed curriculum, experience of proposed instructors, number of youth to be trained and wages or stipends for participants. HUD will consider:

(i) The housing construction or rehabilitation activities participants will undertake at the site(s) to be used for the on-site training component of the program as provided in the training curriculum and methodology for carrying out on-site training;

(ii) The qualification and number of on-site supervisors;

(iii) The ratio of trainers to participants;

(iv) The number of participants per site; and

(v) The amounts, wages, and/or stipends you will pay to participants during on-site work. All applicants will receive a greater number of points if your on-site training plan is consistent with the purpose of the Youthbuild program and your project goals and the resources provided.

(2) Strategy for Job Placement. (2 points). HUD will evaluate the quality and feasibility of your proposed strategy to place youth participants in permanent jobs.

Letters describing specific resources or services to be contributed by non-applicant organizations must be included in your application. You will be rated on the following factors: (a) Proposed number of youth to obtain jobs that promote economic self-sufficiency (i.e. those that are a part of career paths or apprenticeship programs); (b) proposed number of youths who will continue post-secondary or secondary education; (c) proposed number of youths to receive entrepreneurship training. Two points of this factor will be awarded based upon the comprehensiveness and feasibility of your strategies and procedures to place youth participants in related apprenticeships and commitments from construction trade unions. You will receive a greater number of points if your strategy for job placement is consistent with the purpose of the Youthbuild program, your proposed project and the resources provided.

(3) Expected Outcomes. (3 points). Program outcomes for the Youthbuild Program must include: (a) Number of participants; (b) attainment of a GED or certificate by participants; (c) number of housing units constructed; (d) number of housing units rehabilitated; (e) placement of participants in employment or education; and (f) literacy and numeracy. As part of this evaluation, HUD will assess the cost effectiveness of your stated outcomes as compared to the funds that you are requesting in the Youthbuild Grant Budget. You will receive a greater number of points if your proposed outcomes are consistent with the purpose of the Youthbuild program, your proposed project and the resources provided.

(4) Housing Program Priority. (10 points). HUD will assign Housing Program Priority points to all applications that contain evidence that housing resources for other Federal, State, local or private sources that are available and firmly committed to cover all costs, in full, for the following housing activities for the proposed Youthbuild program: acquisition, architect and engineering fees, construction, and rehabilitation. Applications that do not include proper documentation of firm financial commitments of non-Youthbuild resources or propose to use Youthbuild grant funds, in whole or in part, or do not evidence site control, for any one of the housing activities listed above will not be entitled to housing program priority points. Forms 2C, Housing Site Description, and 2C10, Youthbuild Grant Individual Housing Project Site Estimate, must be completed to receive the Housing Program Priority points.

(5) Policy Priorities. (5 points). Policy Priorities are further defined in Section II of the General Section of the SuperNOFA. Applicant should document to the extent HUD's policy priorities are enhanced by the proposed activities. Applicants who include activities that can result in the achievement of these Departmental policies priorities as described below and in Section II of the General Section of this SuperNOFA, will receive higher rating points in evaluating their application for funding. Five Departmental policy priorities are listed below. Applicant will receive 1 rating point for each policy priority addressed in the program of activities section under this rating factor as described in Section VI(b) of this program NOFA. Policy Priorities include:

(a) Improving our Nation's Communities

(b) Providing Full and Equal Access to Grass-Roots Faith-Based and Other Community—Based Organizations in HUD Program Implementation.

(c) Participating in Energy Star.

(d) Encouraging Accessible Design Features.

(e) Ending Chronic Homelessness within Ten Years.
