

4. LEVERAGING RESOURCES

(Exhibit References: Exhibits 3(a), 3(b), 3(c), 3(d) and 3(e))

In determining your ability to secure other community resources which can be combined with HUD's program resources to achieve program purposes, HUD will consider: (5 points)

- (a) The extent of local government support (including financial assistance, donation of land, provision of services, etc.) for the project. (2 points)
- (b) The extent of your activities in the community, including previous experience in serving the area where the project is to be located, and your demonstrated ability to enlist volunteers and raise local funds. (3 points)

5. ACHIEVING RESULTS AND PROGRAM EVALUATION

(Exhibit References: Exhibits, 3(g), 3(h) and 3(i))

This factor reflects HUD's goal to embrace high standards of ethics, management and accountability and, as such, emphasizes HUD's commitment to ensuring that you keep the promises made in your application. This factor requires that you clearly identify the benefits or outcomes of your project and develop an evaluation plan to measure performance, which includes what you are going to measure, how you are going to measure it and the steps you will have in place to make adjustments to your project development timeline should you not be able to achieve any of the major milestones. In addition, this factor addresses the extent to which your project will implement practical solutions that will result in assisting residents in achieving independent living, educational opportunities, economic empowerment (811 only), and improved living environments. Finally, in determining the above as well as how the long-term viability of your project will be sustained over the 40 year capital advance period and whether your project will provide activities to support HUD's FY 2003 SuperNOFA Policy Priorities (811 only) HUD will consider: (10 points)

- (a) The extent to which your project development timeline is indicative of your full understanding of the development process and will, therefore, result in the timely development of your project. (5 points)
- (b) The extent to which your project will implement practical solutions that will result in assisting residents to achieve independent living, educational opportunities, economic empowerment (811 only) and improved living environments (e.g., activities that
