

local small businesses bear-proof canisters to rent, and they keep the $5/ trip rental charge as cost for handling the canisters and administering the program.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act

These emergency final supplementary rules do not impose an unfunded mandate on State, local, or tribal governments or the private sector of more than $100 million per year; nor do the supplementary rules have a significant or unique effect on State, local, or tribal governments or the private sector. The supplementary rules do not require anything of State, local, or tribal governments. Therefore, BLM is not required to prepare a statement containing the information required by the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (2 U.S.C. 1531 et seq.).

Executive Order 12630, Governmental Actions and Interference With Constitutionally Protected Property Rights (Takings)

The emergency final supplementary rules do not represent a government action capable of interfering with constitutionally protected property rights. The emergency final supplementary rules do not address property rights in any form, and do not cause the impairment of any persons' property rights. Therefore, the Department of the Interior has determined that the emergency final supplementary rules will not cause a taking of private property or require further discussion of takings implications under this Executive Order.

Executive Order 13132, Federalism

The emergency final supplementary rules will not have a substantial direct effect on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. The supplementary rules affect land in only one State, California, and do not address jurisdictional issues involving the California State government. Therefore, in accordance with Executive Order 13132, BLM has determined that these emergency final supplementary rules do not have sufficient federalism implications to warrant preparation of a federalism assessment.

Executive Order 12988, Civil Justice Reform

Under Executive Order 12988, BLM has determined that these emergency final supplementary rules will not unduly burden the judicial system and that they meet the requirements of sections 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of the Executive Order.

Paperwork Reduction Act

These emergency final supplementary rules do not contain information collection requirements that the Office of Management and Budget must approve under the Paperwork Reduction Act, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.

Author

The principal author of these emergency final supplementary rules is Scott Adams, Outdoor Recreation Planner, of the King Range Project Office within the Arcata Field Office, Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior.

For the reasons stated in the Preamble, and under the authority of 43 CFR part 8360, section 8365.1-6, the Arcata Field Office Manager establishes emergency final supplementary rules to read as follows:

Dated: June 14, 2002.

J. Anthony Danna,

Deputy State Director, Natural Resources.

Editorial note: This document was received at the Office of the Federal Register, April 25, 2003.

Emergency final supplementary rules for the King Range National Conservation Area, requiring the mandatory use of hard-sided, bear-proof storage canisters by backcountry overnight visitors.

Sec. 1 Rules of Conduct a.1. All backcountry overnight users camping on BLM-administered public lands within the boundaries of the King Range National Conservation Area must carry and use hard-sided, bear-proof food storage canisters.

2. The canisters must be of sufficient size to permit storage of all food, toiletries, sunscreen, surfboard wax, insect repellent and other scented items for the duration of the trip.

b. Each person must possess a minimum of one canister, and must use the canister to store the types of items listed in paragraph a.2. of this section, plus any food scraps and scented trash items such as empty cans, energy/candy wrappers, surf wax wrappers, etc.

c. Stock users must use either portable bear canisters or bear proof panniers of sufficient size to store materials for all party members.

Sec. 2 Definitions

For the purposes of these supplementary rules—

Backcountry location means any place outside of a developed campground where food and other scented items cannot be stored inside a locked vehicle.

Hard-sided means made of rigid material and of a size and shape that bears cannot grasp by the mouth or paws, or otherwise carry for a significant distance, and having a closing and latching lid that is tested and proven effective against bears.

Sec. 3 Prohibited Acts

a. You must not camp in the backcountry on BLM-administered public lands without using a hard-sided, bear-proof food storage canister or pannier sufficient for the storage of all food, toiletries, food scraps and trash, and all other scented items, for the duration of your backcountry trip.

b. You must not substitute for the use of bear canisters by hanging food, trash, and other scented items from tree limbs, by burying these items, or by using any other technique in place of using the prescribed portable bear-proof storage canisters.

Sec. 4 Exception

These supplementary rules do not apply to overnight use within designated campgrounds or near vehicles where food is stored and locked inside.

Sec. 5 Penalties

Under the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976 (43 U.S.C. 1733(a)), if you knowingly and willfully violate or fail to comply with the emergency final supplementary rules provided in this notice, you may be subject to a fine under 18 U.S.C. 3571 or other penalties in accordance with 43 U.S.C. 1733.
