

4. Project Partners/Institutionalization (10 Points)

Demonstrates an awareness of existing programs. Describes efforts to leverage resources from other project partners, including other cooperative agreement awardees (from phase one and phase two of the program), surrounding communities, non-profits, businesses, State and Federal agencies. Describes the possible role of EPA within the program. Describes how you will collaborate with other stakeholders. (10 bonus Points)

Identifies partnering organization(s) and documents the relationship with the applicant. This can be done, for example, through a letter of support, a joint statement, or principles of agreement signed by other parties.

5. Use of existing materials (10 Points)

Explains how existing materials (including those developed in phase one of the program) will be utilized.

6. Measurability of Project Results (5 Points)

Demonstrates the ability to quantitatively measure and document the effectiveness of your program. Explains approach to tracking and reporting results. At the end of the cooperative agreement period, should be able to provide a description of project outcomes—i.e., What, if any was the impact on the recycling rate of your target audience?

7. Transferability (10 Points)

Explains how the information and lessons learned during the project will be transferred to others in order to continue to encourage long-term improved recycling rates even after your direct involvement is complete.

Pre-application Assistance

EPA will provide pre-application assistance by responding to all questions which are submitted by e-mail to tschursin.anna@epa.gov.

Terms and Reporting

Grants will include programmatic and administrative terms and conditions. These terms and conditions will describe what is expected from the grant recipient.

The grantee will be required to submit quarterly progress reports. The grantee should only report on activities funded (in whole or in part) via the grant. The narrative should include descriptions of all action items resulting from meetings, site visits, and other activities, as well as milestones achieved and any challenges encountered. The reports should include lists of action items and corresponding milestone dates. In addition, all quarterly reports must be internally reviewed and approved for quality assurance purposes prior to submission. Costs incurred in complying with reporting requirements are an eligible expense under the Solid Waste Disposal Act, section 8001(a).

Dated: April 29, 2003.

Robert Springer,

Director, Office of Solid Waste.
