Needs and Uses: The Commission has established a program for assessing and collecting fees for the provision of ancillary or supplementary services by commercial digital television licensees in compliance with Section 336(e)(1) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996. On October 11, 2001, the Commission adopted a Report and Order, In the Matter of Ancillary or Supplementary

Use of Digital Television Capacity by Noncommercial Licensees, MM Docket No. 98-203, which extended this requirement to noncommercial educational television licensees.

Licensees are required to report, using FCC 317, whether they provided ancillary or supplementary services, which services were provided, the services provided which are subject to a fee, gross revenues received from all feeable ancillary and supplementary services, and the amount of bitstream used to provide ancillary or supplementary service. This data are collected annually from digital television licensees. Licensees providing services subject to a fee will additionally be required annually to file FCC Form 159 (3060-0589) to remit the required fee. Each licensee is required to retain the records supporting the calculation of the fees due for three years from the date of remittance of fees. The data are used by FCC staff to ensure that DTV licensees comply with the requirements of Section 336(e) of the Communications Act.

Federal Communications Commission.

Marlene H. Dortch,

Secretary.
