

representative from the Census Advisory Committees on Race and Ethnic Populations.

3. Committee members are selected on a clear, standardized basis, in accordance with applicable Department of Commerce guidelines. The Committee's representation reflects a balanced viewpoint and perspective, considering such factors as geography, minority representation, business, academia, and the public-at-large. The size and the scope of the member organization with respect to diverse community representation also are considered.

4. Committee membership has relevant background/experience to significantly assist and/or contribute to the overall functions, issues, and tasks associated with the Committee. The membership should bring diverse perspectives and be able to provide advice on policy and technical issues affecting the goals of ongoing census programs, surveys, and initiatives.

5. The Committee has the fewest number of members necessary to accomplish the objectives of the Charter. Committee membership will not duplicate other organizations or communities already represented on the Committee.

6. Committee membership will encompass a distinct national constituency that ensures relevant, two-way feedback and input reflective of a given community group or constituency.

7. Committee members are appointed by the Secretary of Commerce and serve at the discretion of the Secretary.

Miscellaneous

1. Members of the Committee shall serve without compensation, but the Census Bureau will, upon request, reimburse travel expenses, as authorized by 5 U.S.C. 5701, et. seq., dealing with travel and subsistence expenses.

2. The Committee shall meet from one to two times per year. Meetings are one to two days in duration.

3. Committee meetings are open to the public.

Nomination Information

1. The Department of Commerce is seeking nominations to increase the diversity of the membership of the Decennial Census Advisory Committee to include an organization that is knowledgeable about the issues surrounding Americans overseas and would provide advice to the Census Bureau on conducting an overseas enumeration of Americans living abroad. More specifically, such an organization may either (a) represent Americans living overseas, (b) send Americans to live overseas, (c) serve as a support network for Americans overseas, or incorporate all of these characteristics in its mission or scope.

2. Nominations of organizations may come from individuals or organizations. A summary of the organization's qualifications and the experience that qualifies the organization for membership should be included in the nomination letter. Nominated organizations should be able to actively participate in the tasks of the Committee. Besides meeting attendance and participation, active participation may include review of materials, and participation in conference calls, working groups, and special committee activities that may be planned in conjunction with Committee members.

3. The Department of Commerce is committed to equal opportunity in the workplace and seeks diverse Committee membership.

Notice of Initiation of Antidumping Duty Changed Circumstances Review: Fresh Atlantic Salmon from Chile

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: In accordance with section 751(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), and 19 CFR 351.216(b)(2003) of the Department of Commerce's (the Department's) regulations, L.R. Enterprises, Inc. (L.R. Enterprises), Heritage Salmon Inc., Maine Nordic Salmon, Stolt Sea Farms Inc., Cypress Island Inc., Atlantic Salmon of Maine, and Trumpet Island Salmon Farm Inc., U.S. producers of fresh Atlantic salmon, each filed a request for a changed circumstances review of the antidumping duty (AD) order on fresh Atlantic salmon from Chile. Specifically, the parties request that the Department grant revocation of the AD order retroactive to July 1, 2001, the first day of the period of review covered by the on-going fourth administrative review. The domestic industry has affirmatively expressed a lack of interest in the continuation of the order. In response to the request, the Department is initiating a changed circumstances review with respect to the AD order on fresh Atlantic salmon from Chile.

EFFECTIVE DATE: May 23, 2003.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On July 30, 1998, the Department issued an AD order on fresh Atlantic salmon from Chile. See Notice of Amended Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value and Antidumping Duty Order: Fresh Atlantic Salmon from Chile, 63 FR 40699 (July 30, 1998). On July 1, 2002, the Department issued a notice of opportunity to request the fourth administrative review of this order. See Antidumping or Countervailing Duty Order, Finding, or Suspended Investigation; Opportunity to Request Administrative Review, 67 FR 44172 (July 1, 2002).

On July 31, 2002, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.213(b), L.R. Enterprises requested a review of 90 producers/exporters of fresh Atlantic salmon. On August 27, 2002, the Department published the notice of initiation of this AD administrative review, covering the period July 1, 2001, through June 30, 2002. See Initiation of Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Administrative Reviews and Requests for Revocation in Part, 67 FR 55000 (August 27, 2002). L.R. Enterprises subsequently withdrew its request for review of all but 13 of these companies. For a detailed discussion of L.R. Enterprises' withdrawals, as well as a listing of which respondents requested reviews, see Notice of Partial Rescission of Antidumping Duty Administrative Review: Fresh Atlantic Salmon from Chile, 67 FR 76378 (December 12, 2002) (Partial Rescission Notice).

On April 29, 2003, L.R. Enterprises withdrew all requests for administrative reviews of the producers/exporters of fresh Atlantic salmon from Chile. Furthermore, L.R. Enterprises stated that it had no interest in maintaining the AD order. Subsequently, by letters dated April 29, 2003, five U.S. producers of fresh Atlantic salmon including Heritage Salmon Inc., Maine Nordic Salmon, Stolt Sea Farms Inc., Cypress Island Inc., and Atlantic Salmon of
