

supplementary rule have a significant or unique effect on state, local, or tribal governments or the private sector. The supplementary rule does not require anything of state, local, or tribal governments. Therefore, BLM is not required to prepare a statement containing the information required by the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (2 U.S.C. 1531 et seq.)

Executive Order 12630, Governmental Actions and Interference With Constitutionally Protected Property Rights (Takings)

The proposed supplementary rule does not represent a government action capable of interfering with Constitutionally-protected property rights. The rule merely revises a camping stay limit. Therefore, the Department of the Interior has determined that the rule would not cause a taking of private property or require further discussion of takings implications under this Executive Order.

Executive Order 13132, Federalism [Replaces Executive Orders 12612 and 13083.]

The proposed rule will not have a substantial direct effect on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. The rule merely revises a camping stay limit. Therefore, in accordance with Executive Order 13132, BLM has determined that this proposed rule does not have sufficient Federalism implications to warrant preparation of a Federalism Assessment.

Executive Order 12988, Civil Justice Reform

Under Executive Order 12988, the Office of the Solicitor has determined that this proposed rule would not unduly burden the judicial system and that it meets the requirements of sections 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of the Order.

Executive Order 13175, Consultation and Coordination With Indian Tribal Governments

In accordance with Executive Order 13175, we have found that this final rule does not include policies that have tribal implications. The rule merely revises a camping stay limit.

Paperwork Reduction Act

This supplementary rule does not contain information collection requirements that the Office of Management and Budget must approve under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.

Author

The principal author of this supplementary rule is Richard Conrad, Myrtlewood Field Manager, Coos Bay District, Bureau of Land Management

For the reasons stated in the preamble, and under the authority of 43 CFR 8365.1–6, we issue the following supplementary rule:

Elaine M. Brong,

Oregon/Washington State Director.

Supplementary Rule for Bear Creek Recreation Site

Under 43 CFR (subpart 8365.1–6), the Bureau of Land Management will enforce the following rule on the public lands within the Bear Creek Recreation Site, Myrtlewood Resource Area/Field Office, Coos Bay District, Oregon.

Sec. 1 Stay limit at Bear Creek Recreation Site

You must not leave personal possessions or stay at Bear Creek Recreation Site longer than twenty-four (24) hours. After twenty-four (24) hours, you must leave with all of your personal possessions and must not camp on BLM-administered land within a 10-mile radius for 14 days.

Sec. 2 Penalties

Under section 303(a) of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976 (43 U.S.C. 1733(a)) and 43 CFR 8360.0–7, if you violate this supplementary rule on public lands within the boundaries established in the rules, you may be tried before a United States Magistrate and fined no more than $1,000 or imprisoned for no more than 12 months, or both. Such violations may also be subject to the enhanced fines provided for by 18 U.S.C. 3571.

Special Rules for Public Lands Along the Deschutes Wild & Scenic River

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Prineville District, Oregon, Deschutes Resource Area.

ACTION: Proposed special rules for public land and waters within the Lower Deschutes National Wild and Scenic River corridor, Deschutes Resource Area, Prineville District, Oregon.

SUMMARY: The Bureau of Land Management's (BLM) Deschutes Resource Area is revising its special rules for the Lower Deschutes National Wild and Scenic River corridor in Oregon. The special rules are necessary in order to protect the river's natural resources and the public health and safety. The revisions in the special rules are needed to resolve inconsistencies between them and rules of the State of Oregon.

DATES: You should submit your comments by August 8, 2003. In developing final rules, BLM may not consider comments postmarked or received in person or by electronic mail after this date.

ADDRESSES: Mail or personal delivery: Bureau of Land Management, Deschutes Resource Field Manager, Prineville District Office, 3050 NE Third, Prineville, OR 97754.

I. Area Description

Public lands and waters within the Lower Deschutes River Final National Wild and Scenic River Boundary, as it appears in the Lower Deschutes River Management Plan and Environmental Impact Statement, volume 1, published January 1993 by BLM (this document contains a complete legal description; copies available from the BLM Prineville District Office). This area is more generally described as approximately ¼ mile from either side of the Lower Deschutes River, commencing at Pelton Reregulation Dam and extending downstream to the Columbia River.

II. Background

In 1970, the lower 100 miles of the Deschutes River were designated as an Oregon State Scenic Waterway. In 1988, the U.S. Congress designated this same 100 mile river segment as a National
