

17. Does the Proyecto Judgment Make Me Eligible for Legalization?

Not necessarily. According to the order of the District Court, the Service is required to reopen and readjudicate your legalization application. This does not necessarily mean that the Service will approve your application.

18. Do the Legalization Confidentiality Rules Apply to My Case?

The legalization confidentiality rules apply to your case in the same way that they apply to any other legalization case. Your applications and file requests cannot be used for any other reason than to make a determination on your eligibility for legalization. They cannot be used in removal, deportation or exclusion proceedings.

19. Do I Have the Right to Have an Attorney or Other Person Represent Me?

By statute and regulation, you have the right to be represented before the Service by any attorney or other person authorized to represent people before the Service.

Please note that Robert Gibbs, Esq., Gloria A. Goldman, Esq., and Robert Pauw, Esq., have represented the class in this case. You may retain Mr. Gibbs, Ms. Goldman, or Mr. Pauw to represent you, but you also have the right to retain any other attorney or other person authorized to represent people before the Service. If you want Mr. Gibbs or Mr. Pauw to represent you, or want further information about this case, you may contact them at: Gibbs Houston Pauw, 1000 Second Avenue, Suite 1600, Seattle, Washington 98104; telephone (206) 682-1080; Web site: www.ghp-law.net. You may also contact Ms. Goldman at 1575 West Ina Road, Tucson, Arizona 85704-1926, telephone (520) 797-9229.

If you already have your own attorney or representative, he or she may also contact Mr. Gibbs, Ms. Goldman, or Mr. Pauw for information about this case.

20. What if My Address Changes?

It is very important that you inform the Service of any change of address while your case is pending. You should promptly notify the Service in writing of a change of address by sending the change of address to any office where you filed a FOIA request, and to the Nebraska Service Center as shown below: Immigration and Naturalization Service, Nebraska Service Center, Attn: Proyecto Unit, PO Box 87687, Lincoln, NE 68501-7687.

Paperwork Reduction Act

The documentary requirements included when filing a motion to reopen your case, including the form approved by the Court for requesting your records is not considered an information collection under 5 CFR 1320.4(a)(2).

Dated: January 23, 2003.

Michael J. Garcia,

Acting Commissioner, Immigration and , Naturalization Service.

Note: The appendix to this notice contains the FOIA request form provided for in the Proyecto judgment.

BILLING CODE 4410-10-P