

will attend the closed meeting. Certain staff members who have an interest in the matters may also be present.

The General Counsel of the Commission, or his designee, has certified that, in his opinion, one or more of the exemptions set forth in 5 U.S.C. 552b(c)(3), (5), (7), (9)(B) and (10) and 17 CFR 200.402(a)(3), (5), (7), (9)(ii) and (10), permit consideration of the scheduled matters at the closed meeting.

The subject matter of the open meeting scheduled for Tuesday, February 4, 2003, will be the following:

1. The Commission will consider whether to adopt Regulation Analyst Certification, a new rule that would require analysts to provide certifications regarding the views they express in research reports and public appearances and to provide disclosures regarding any compensation they may have received related to those views and recommendations.

2. The Commission will consider whether to adopt amendments to rule 17f-4 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the rule that governs investment companies' use of securities depositories. The amendments are designed to update and simplify the rule in response to changes in business practices and commercial law that have occurred since the rule was adopted in 1978. The amendments eliminate unnecessary restrictions in the rule, to reduce compliance burdens on funds and fund boards, without jeopardizing investor protections.

3. The Commission will consider a recommendation to propose for public comment new rule 38a-1 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, new rule 206(4)-7 under the Investment Advisers Act, and amendments to rule 204-2 under the Investment Advisers Act. The recommended proposals would require each investment company and investment adviser registered with the Commission to (i) adopt and implement policies and procedures reasonably designed to prevent violation of the federal securities laws, (ii) review those policies and procedures annually for their adequacy and the effectiveness of their implementation, and (iii) appoint a chief compliance officer to be responsible for administering the policies and procedures. The Commission also will consider a recommendation to seek comment on other ways to involve the private sector in fostering compliance by investment companies and investment advisers with the federal securities laws.

The subject matter of the closed meeting scheduled for Wednesday, February 5, 2003, will be:

Formal orders of investigation;
Institution and settlement of administrative proceedings of an enforcement nature;
Institution and settlement of injunctive actions;
Adjudicatory matters;
Opinions.

The subject matter of the open meeting scheduled Thursday, February 6, 2003, will be the following:

1. The Commission will consider whether to adopt amendments to the definition of terms used in the exception from the definition of dealer for banks under section 3(a)(5) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Commission will consider whether to adopt amendments to the related exemptions for banks, savings associations, and savings banks as well as adopt a new exemption concerning securities lending. These proposals relate to the implementation of the specific exceptions for banks from the definitions of "broker" and "dealer" that were amended by the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act.

At times, changes in Commission priorities require alterations in the scheduling of meeting items. For further information and to ascertain what, if any, matters have been added, deleted, or postponed, please contact:

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-47216; File No. SR-Amex-2002-114]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change by the American Stock Exchange LLC Relating to the Addition of a Fee for the Automatic Execution of Broker-Dealer Options Orders

January 17, 2003.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act"),¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on December 23, 2002, the American Stock Exchange LLC ("Amex" or "Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC" or "Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been prepared by the Amex. On January 14, 2003, Amex filed Amendment No. 1 to its proposal with the Commission.³ The Commission is publishing this notice as amended to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.⁴

³ See letter from Jeffery P. Burns, Assistant General Counsel, Amex, to Katherine A. England, Assistant Director, Division of Market Regulation ("Division"), Commission, dated January 13, 2003. In Amendment No. 1, the Amex made technical corrections to the proposed rule change.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Amex proposes to modify its options fee schedule adding a fee for the automatic execution of broker-dealer orders. The text of the proposed rule change is available at the Office of the Secretary, Amex, and at the Commission.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Amex included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Amex has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and the Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

On June 24, 2002, the Exchange filed with the SEC a proposal to permit broker-dealer orders to be executed through Auto-Ex (the "BD Auto-Ex Proposal").⁵ The Commission approved the BD Auto-Ex Proposal on September 10, 2002.⁶ The Amex is now proposing ⁴ On September 20, 2002, the Exchange submitted a proposed rule change (SR-Amex-2002-75) to adopt a broker-dealer Auto-Ex fee. The Commission returned the filing for failure to comply with the requirements of Section 19(b) of the Act and Form 19b-4, thereunder. See letter from Kelly Riley, Senior Special Counsel, Division, Commission to Jeffery P. Burns, Assistant General Counsel, Amex, dated October 16, 2002. The Exchange submitted a new Form 19b-4 (SR-Amex-2002-93) to comply with the filing requirements of Section 19(b) of the Act and Form 19b-4 on November 8, 2002. Because the proposed fee in SR-Amex-2002-93 did not accurately reflect the intention of the Exchange, Amex has withdrawn the filing. The instant proposal (SR-Amex-2002-114) corrects the prior inaccuracies.

⁶ See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 46479 (September 10, 2002), 67 FR 58654 (September 17, 2002) (SR-Amex-2002-57). The Commission has also approved similar proposals by other options exchanges to permit the execution of broker-dealer orders through automatic execution systems that previously were limited to public customer orders.
