(5) We will charge a fee for substantive amendments made to permits within the time period that the permit is still valid. The fee will be half the original fee assessed at the time that the permit is processed. Substantive amendments are those that pertain to the purpose and conditions of the permit and are not purely administrative. Administrative changes, such as updating name and address information, are required under § 13.23(c), and we will not charge a fee for such amendments.

(6) Except where specifically addressed above, a permit renewal is an issuance of a new permit, and applicants for permit renewal must pay the appropriate fee listed in paragraph (d)(4) of this section.

(e) Abandoned or incomplete applications. Upon receipt of an incomplete or improperly executed application, or if you do not submit the proper fees, the issuing office will notify you of the deficiency. If you fail to supply the correct information to complete the application or to pay the required fees within 45 calendar days of the date of notification, we will consider the application abandoned. We will not refund any fees for an abandoned application.

4. Amend § 13.12 by adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

§ 13.12 General information requirements on applications for permits.
