4. Function Report—Adult—20 CFR 404.1512 and 416.912—0960—NEW. Form SSA-3373 records information about the disability applicant's impairment-related limitations and ability to function. It documents the types of information specified in SSA regulations and provides disability interviewers with a convenient means to record information about how the claimant's condition affects his or her ability to function. This information, together with medical evidence, forms the evidentiary basis upon which the initial disability process is founded. The respondents are title II and XVI benefits applicants.

Type of Request: New information collection.

Number of Respondents: 4,005,367.
Average Burden Per Response: 30 minutes.

Estimated Annual Burden: 2,002,684.

5. Application for Search of Census Records for Proof of Age—20 CFR 404.716—0960-0097. The information collected on Form SSA-1535-U3 is required to provide the Census Bureau with sufficient identification information, which will allow an accurate search of census records to establish proof of age for an individual applying for Social Security benefits. It is used for individuals who must establish age as a factor for entitlement. The respondents are individuals applying for Social Security benefits who need to document their date of birth.

Type of Request: Extension of an OMB-approved information collection.

Number of Respondents: 18,000.
Number of Response: 1.

Average Burden per Response: 12 minutes.

Estimated Average Burden: 3,600.

6. Representative Payee Report—Special Veterans Benefits Form—0960-0621. SSA needs the information collected on form SSA-2001 to determine whether payments certified to the representative payee have been used properly and whether the representative payee demonstrates concern for the beneficiary's best interest. The form will be completed annually by representative payees receiving Special Veterans Benefit payments on behalf of beneficiaries who are outside of the United States. It will also be required when SSA has reason to believe a representative payee could be misusing the payments. The respondents are representative payees for beneficiaries who are receiving Special Veterans Benefits.
