DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Arbitration Panel Decision Under the Randolph-Sheppard Act

AGENCY: Department of Education.

ACTION: Notice of arbitration panel decision under the Randolph-Sheppard Act.

SUMMARY: The Department gives notice that on January 23, 2002, an arbitration panel rendered a decision in the matter of J. Allen Tharp v. Texas Commission for the Blind Docket No. R-S/99-9. This panel was convened by the U.S. Department of Education, under 20 U.S.C. 107d-1(a), after the Department received a complaint filed by petitioner, J. Allen Tharp.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under section 6(c) of the Randolph-Sheppard Act (the Act), 20 U.S.C. 107d-2(c), the Secretary publishes in the Federal Register a synopsis of each arbitration panel decision affecting the administration of vending facilities on Federal and other property.

Background

This dispute concerns the alleged failure of the Texas Commission for the Blind, the State licensing agency (SLA), to properly administer the Randolph-Sheppard vending facility program in violation of the Act (20 U.S.C. 107 et seq.) and the implementing regulations in 34 CFR part 395.

A summary of the facts is as follows: Complainant, J. Allen Tharp, is a contract manager for a large cafeteria food service operated by the SLA and Food Service, Inc., under a teaming agreement at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas.

On October 13, 1998, complainant filed a complaint with the SLA asserting his dissatisfaction with actions taken by the SLA in the operation of the cafeteria. Complainant requested a State fair hearing, which was denied by the SLA. In denying complainant's request for a hearing, the SLA determined that the complainant did not identify the actions taken by the SLA to which he objected, nor had the complainant indicated the timeframe in which they occurred. Therefore, in finding that the complaint did not comply with State regulations, the SLA refused to refer the complaint to the Texas State Office of Administrative Hearings (SOAH).

On November 4, 1998, the complainant filed a second demand for a hearing. Again, the SLA determined that the complaint did not comply with State regulations. On November 10, 1998, the SLA requested that SOAH rule on whether it could request complainant to identify the facts of his complaint and the timeframe in which they occurred before the SLA referred the complaint to SOAH.

On February 10, 1999, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) affirmed the SLA's decision. The SLA dismissed the case without prejudice and adopted the hearing officer's decision as final agency action. On March 2, 1999, the complainant filed a request for arbitration with the Secretary of Education. Following the previous events, telephone conference calls occurred among attorneys for the complainant, the SLA, and representatives and counsel for the U.S. Department of Education (ED). The complainant and the SLA agreed that the complainant would submit a detailed grievance to SOAH, which the complainant filed on January 28, 2000. In a ruling dated August 16, 2000, the ALJ held that the statute of limitations required that a blind vendor file a grievance within 15 days following the occurrence of the action that is being grieved.

Subsequently, complainant filed an amended complaint for Federal arbitration, which was received by ED on November 16, 2000. The amended complaint incorporated by reference the issues stated in the original complaint filed on March 2, 1999, and also included an appeal of the ALJ's August 16, 2000, ruling on his grievance.

A hearing on this matter was held on November 29, 2001, and was limited to the only issue that was decided at the State fair hearing level.

Arbitration Panel Decision

The issue heard by the panel was whether the 15-working-day limitation period established by the Texas Commission for the Blind for blind vendors to file a grievance when they are dissatisfied with an action arising from the operation or administration of the Randolph-Sheppard vending facility program as provided by the Act and implementing regulations constituted a denial of due process to complainant, J. Allen Tharp.

After reviewing all of the record, the arbitration panel concluded that—(1) the 15-working-day limitation period is part of an administrative process, not part of a judicial process; (2) it is important that grievances be processed and resolved in a timely manner; and (3) the submission of a request for a State fair hearing is a simple and straightforward action. The hearing itself is held at a later time, giving ample time to prepare witnesses and to sort out legal issues. Finally, the panel ruled that the 15-working-day limitation period was mandatory.
