

National Standards by the American National Standards Institute (ANSI). However, for convenience in compiling the list, we show the designation of the standards developing organization (e.g., UL 441) for the standard, as opposed to the ANSI designation (e.g., ANSI/UL 441). Under our procedures, an NRTL recognized for an ANSI-approved test standard may use either the latest proprietary or ANSI version of that standard, regardless of which version appears in the list of test standards found on OSHA's informational Web page for the NRTL. Contact "NSSN" (<http://www.nssn.org>), an organization partially sponsored by ANSI, to find out whether a standard is currently ANSI-approved.

Preliminary Finding on the Application

UL has submitted an acceptable request for expansion of its recognition as an NRTL. In connection with this request, OSHA did not believe it necessary to perform an on-site review of UL's NRTL testing facilities. However, following a review of the application file and other pertinent documents, the NRTL Program staff has concluded that OSHA should grant to UL the expansion of recognition as an NRTL to use the additional test standards listed above (see Exhibit 31). The staff, therefore, recommended to the Assistant Secretary that the application be preliminarily approved.

Based upon the recommendation of the staff, the Agency has made a preliminary finding that Underwriters Laboratories Inc. can meet the requirements, as prescribed by 29 CFR 1910.7, for the expansion of recognition. This preliminary finding does not constitute an interim or temporary approval of the application.

OSHA welcomes public comments, in sufficient detail, as to whether UL has met the requirements of 29 CFR 1910.7 for expansion of its recognition as a Nationally Recognized Testing Laboratory. Your comment should consist of pertinent written documents and exhibits. To consider a comment, OSHA must receive it at the address provided above (see ADDRESSES), no later than the last date for comments (see DATES above). Should you need more time to comment, OSHA must receive your written request for extension at the address provided above no later than the last date for comments. You must include your reason(s) for any request for extension. OSHA will limit any extension to 30 days, unless the requester justifies a longer period. We may deny a request for extension if it is frivolous or otherwise unwarranted. You may obtain or review copies of UL's request, the recommendation on the expansion, and all submitted comments, as received, by contacting the Docket Office, Room N2625, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, at the above address. You should refer to Docket No. NRTL4-93, the permanent record of public information on UL's recognition.

The NRTL Program staff will review all timely comments and, after resolution of issues raised by these comments, will recommend whether to grant UL's expansion request. The Agency will make the final decision on granting the expansion and, in making this decision, may undertake other proceedings that are prescribed in Appendix A to 29 CFR Section 1910.7. OSHA will publish a public notice of this final decision in the Federal Register.

Signed at Washington, DC this 7th day of October, 2003.

John L. Henshaw,
Assistant Secretary.

The agenda for the meeting is as follows:

- Welcome Remarks from Chair
- Action Status from Last Meeting
- Biastronautics Research Division Update
- Status Report on International Space Station Non-Governmental Organization
- Report on Station and Shuttle Utilization Reinvention Team
- Discussion of LSAS Responsibilities
- Working Lunch—Science Talk "Understanding Group Behavior of Space Explorers"
- Remarks from the Office of Biological and Physical Research Associate Administrator
- Findings and Recommendations

It is imperative that the meeting be held on this date to accommodate the scheduling priorities of the key participants.

June W. Edwards,

*Advisory Committee Management Officer,
National Aeronautics and Space Administration.*
