SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The events of September 11, 2001, highlighted the need to enhance the security of the U.S. food supply. Congress responded by passing the Bioterrorism Act (Public Law 107-188), which was signed into law on June 12, 2002. On October 10, 2003, FDA published in the Federal Register two interim final rules to implement sections 305 (Registration of Food Facilities) and 307 (Prior Notice of Imported Food Shipments) of the Bioterrorism Act. During the public meetings, FDA will explain the interim final rules on the registration of food facilities and prior notice of imported food shipments, and the agency will answer questions of clarification.

Information about the public meetings, contact information, and the provisions of the Bioterrorism Act under FDA's jurisdiction can be accessed at <http://www.fda.gov/oc/bioterrorism/bioact.html>.

II. Interim Final Rules

The interim final rules that will be discussed at the public meetings announced in this document concern the following provisions of the Bioterrorism Act:

Section 305: Registration of Food Facilities—The Bioterrorism Act requires the owner, operator, or agent in charge of domestic and foreign facilities that manufacture, process, pack, or hold food for human or animal consumption in the United States to register with FDA no later than December 12, 2003. Farms, restaurants, retail food establishments, nonprofit food establishments that prepare or serve food directly to the consumer, and fishing vessels not engaged in processing, as defined in 21 CFR 123.3(k), are exempt from this requirement. Also exempt are foreign facilities if the food from the facility undergoes further processing or packaging by another facility outside of the United States and such processing is of more than a de minimis nature.

Section 307: Prior Notice of Imported Food Shipments—The Bioterrorism Act specifies that beginning on December 12, 2003, FDA must receive prior notice of each article of food imported or offered for import into the United States.
