In accordance with section 351.213(b) of the regulations, an interested party as defined by section 771(9) of the Act may request in writing that the Secretary conduct an administrative review. For both antidumping and countervailing duty reviews, the interested party must specify the individual producers or exporters covered by an antidumping finding or an antidumping or countervailing duty order or suspension agreement for which it is requesting a review, and the requesting party must state why it desires the Secretary to review those particular producers or exporters. If the interested party intends for the Secretary to review sales of merchandise by an exporter (or a producer if that producer also exports merchandise from other suppliers) which were produced in more than one country of origin and each country of origin is subject to a separate order, then the interested party must state specifically, on an order-by-order basis, which exporter(s) the request is intended to cover.

As explained in Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Proceedings: Assessment of Antidumping Duties, 69 FR 23954 (May 6, 2003), the Department has clarified its practice with respect to the collection of final antidumping duties on imports of merchandise where intermediate firms are involved. The public should be aware of this clarification in determining whether to request an administrative review of merchandise subject to antidumping findings and orders. See also the Import Administration Web site at www.ia.ita.doc.gov.

Six copies of the request should be submitted to the Assistant Secretary for Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Room 1870, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street & Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230. The Department also asks parties to serve a copy of their requests to the Office of Antidumping/Countervailing Duty Enforcement, Attention: Sheila Forbes, in room 3065 of the main Commerce Building. Further, in accordance with section 351.303(f)(1)(i) of the regulations, a copy of each request must be served on every party on the Department's service list.

The Department will publish in the Federal Register a notice of "Initiation of Administrative Review of Antidumping or Countervailing Duty Order, Finding, or Suspended Investigation" for requests received by the last day of December 2003. If the Department does not receive, by the last day of December 2003, a request for review of entries covered by an order, finding, or suspended investigation listed in this notice and for the period identified above, the Department will instruct the Customs Service to assess antidumping or countervailing duties on those entries at a rate equal to the cash deposit of (or bond for) estimated antidumping or countervailing duties required on those entries at the time of entry, or withdrawal from warehouse, for consumption and to continue to collect the cash deposit previously ordered.

This notice is not required by statute but is published as a service to the international trading community.

Dated: November 25, 2003.

Holly A. Kuga,

Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary, Group II for Import Administration.

Brake Rotors from the People's Republic of China: Initiation of Tenth New Shipper Antidumping Duty Review

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce received two requests in October 2003 to conduct a new shipper review of the antidumping duty order on brake rotors from the People's Republic of China ("PRC"). In accordance with 19 CFR 351.214(d), we are initiating a new shipper review for one of the two companies that requested such a review: Shenyang Yinghao Machinery Co., Ltd., a producer and exporter of brake rotors from the PRC.

EFFECTIVE DATE: December 2, 2003.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Brian Smith or Sophie Castro, Import

Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20230; telephone (202) 482-1766 or (202) 482-0588, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

In October 2003, the Department received timely requests from: (1) Shenyang Yinghao Machinery Co., Ltd. ("Shenyang Yinghao"); and (2) Longkou Jinzheng Machinery Co. ("Longkou Jinzheng"), in accordance with 19 CFR 351.214(c), for a new shipper review of the antidumping duty order on brake rotors from the PRC, which has an October semi-annual anniversary month.

Shenyang Yinghao identified itself as the exporter and producer of the subject merchandise for which it requested a new shipper review. As required by 19 CFR 351.214(b)(2)(i), and (iii)(A), Shenyang Yinghao certified that it did not export certain preserved mushrooms to the United States during the period of investigation ("POI"), and that it has never been affiliated with any exporter or producer which did export certain preserved mushrooms during the POI. Shenyang Yinghao further certified that its export activities are not controlled by the central government of the PRC, satisfying the requirements of 19 CFR 351.214(b)(2)(iii)(B). Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.214(b)(2)(iv)(A), Shenyang Yinghao provided the date of the first sale to an unaffiliated customer in the United States. Shenyang Yinghao submitted documentation establishing the date on which it first shipped the subject merchandise to the United States, and the volume and date of entry of that shipment.

In accordance with section 751(a)(2)(B) of the Tariff Act of 1930 ("the Act"), as amended, and 19 CFR 351.214(b), and based on our analysis of the information and documentation provided with Shenyang Yinghao's new shipper review request, as well as our analysis of proprietary import data from U.S. Customs and Border Protection ("Customs"), we find that Shenyang Yinghao has met the requirements under which the Department can initiate a new shipper review (for more details, see New Shipper Initiation
