1 About this document

This is the Linux Consultants HOWTO. It is a listing of companies providing commercial Linux related support. If you contact any companies listed in this document, please mention the Linux Consultants HOWTO.

This document is maintained by Martin Michlmayr <tbm@cyrius.com>.

If you need to know more about the Linux Documentation Project or about Linux HOWTO's, feel free to contact the supervisor Greg Hankins <gregh@sunsite.unc.edu>.

Greg Hankins will post the listing to several national and international newsgroups on a monthly basis. In addition, the Linux Consultants HOWTO can be found on the World Wide Web at http://consult.cyrius.com. New versions of the Linux Consultants HOWTO are always placed at this site first, so please be sure to check if the copy you are reading is still up to date!

We do everything, from vanilla installs, to specific customizations and hacks, to ongoing system administration. However, we do not do phone-only support. We will do phone support only if we can have direct access to the system, such as through the Internet or through a no-charge dial-in. Also, since we are a very small company (at the moment), we will not return long-distance phone-calls, unless they are toll free.

Sample prices:

- $20/hour for individuals
- $40/hour for corporates

We offer a custom preinstalled Linux box with some special patches, to be installed on LANs for caching proxy, IP Masquerading, DNS, SMTP, POP mail and dial on demand, using ethernet routers such as LanOptics Ascend, or modems, or Teles ISDN cards. It's a plug and play solution we sell as a service, not as a product. The Linux box comes with a triple DES filesystem encryption. We help selecting the best ISP, we negotiate the best prices, for quality cost/effective connections. We do system programming, with 12 years experience in C/Unix. We are focused on Intranet solutions, with an eye on Linux integration with Mac and Windows 95/NT. We can and do provide serial installation for many Linux boxes, and assist our customers with training on security, system administration and application programming. Finally we integrate Linux platforms with NT fax on demand software, and voice processing systems based on Dialogic cards.
