

Sympathy
Paul Laurence Dunbar

1. I know what the caged bird feels, alas!
When the sun is bright on the upland slopes;
When the wind stirs soft through the springing grass,
5. And the river flows like a stream of glass;
When the first bird sings and the first bud opes,
And the faint perfume from its chalice steals ---
I know what the caged bird feels!

- I know why the caged bird beats his wing
10 Till its blood is red on the cruel bars;
For he must fly back to his perch and cling
When he fain would be on the bough a swing;
And a pain still throbs in the old, old scars
And they pulse again with a keener sting ---
15 I know why he beats his wing!

- I know why the caged bird sings, ah me,
When his wing is bruised and his bosom sore ---
When he beats his bars and he would be free;
It is not a carol of joy or glee,
But a prayer that he sends from his heart's
20 deep core,
But a plea, that upward to Heaven he flings ---
I know why the caged bird sings!
