13:2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us:

13:3 And let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we inquired not at it in the days of Saul.

I CHRONICLES

Wycliffe-Purvey, 1395

KJV, 1611

13:4 And all the multitude answered, that it should be done so; for the word pleased all the people.

13:4 And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

13:5 Therefore David gathered together all Israel, from Shihor of Egypt till that thou enter into Hamath, that he should bring the ark of God from Kiriathjearim. [Then David gathered all Israel, from Shihor of Egypt unto the time that thou go into Hamath, that he bring the ark of God from Kiriathjearim.]

13:5 So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjathjearim.

13:6 And David went up, and all the men of Israel, to the hill of Kiriathjearim, which is in Judah, that he should bring from thence the ark of the Lord God sitting on (the) cherubim, where his name was inwardly called (upon) (the ark which bore his name). [And David went up, and all the men of Israel, to the hill of Kiriathjearim, that is in Judah, that he bring the ark of the Lord God sitting upon cherubim, where inwardly is called the name of him (where the name of him was inwardly called upon).]

13:6 And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, that is, to Kirjathjearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that dwelleth between the cherubims, whose name is called on it.

13:7 And they putted the ark of the Lord God on a new wain from the house of Abinadab; and Uzza and his brethren drove the wain (and Uzza and Ahio drove the wain). [And they put the ark of the Lord God upon a new wain of the house of Abinadab; Uzza forsooth and the brethren of him drove the wain (forsooth Uzza and Ahio drove the wain).]

13:7 And they carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drave the cart.

13:8 And David and all Israel played before the Lord, with all (their) might, in songs, and in harps, and psalteries, and in tympan, and in cymbals, and trumps. (And David and all Israel

13:8 And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

13:9 Forsooth when they had come to the cornfloor of Chidon, Uzza stretched forth his hand to sustain, (or stable,) the ark; for the oxen waxing wild had bowed it [down] a little./And when they had come to the cornfloor of Chidon, Uzza stretched forth his hand to sustain, or stable, the ark; certainly the oxen waxing wild, either playing for wiliness, had bowed aside the ark a little. [And when they were come to the cornfloor of Chidon, Uzza straightened out his hand (Uzza stretched out his hand), that he sustain the ark; forsooth the oxen playing a little whit, bowed it down.]

13:10 Therefore the Lord was wroth against Uzza, and smote him, for he had touched the ark; and he was dead there before the Lord. [And so the Lord is wroth against Uzza, and smote him, for-thy that he had touched the ark; and he is dead there before the Lord.]

13:11 And David was sorry, for the Lord had parted, or slain, Uzza; and he called that place The Parting of Uzza, (as it still called) unto this present day. [And David is sorry, for-thy that the Lord had divided Uzza; and he called that place The Dividing of Uzza, unto the present day.]

13:12 And David dreaded the Lord in that time, and said, How may I bring into me the ark of the Lord? (And 13:9 And when they came unto the threshingfloor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled.

13:10 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he died before God.

13:11 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perezuzza to this day.

13:12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?

Chapter 23

23:1 Then David was eld and full of days, and he ordained Solomon, his son, king upon Israel.

23:2 And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, and the priests, and deacons; [And he gathered all the princes of Israel, and priests, and Levites;]

23:3 and the deacons were numbered from twenty years and above, and eight and thirty thousand of men were found of them. [and the Levites be numbered from twenty years and above, and there be found eight and thirty thousand of men.]

23:4 And four and twenty thousand men were chosen of them, and were parted into the service of the house of the Lord; and of sovereigns, and judges, six thousand; (And four and twenty thousand men were chosen from them, and were set to the service of the house of the Lord; and six thousand were sovereigns and judges;) [Of these be chosen, dealed, (or assigned,) into the service of the house of the Lord, four and twenty thousand; of provosts forsooth, and of doomsmen, six thousand; (Of these, four and twenty thousand were chosen, and assigned to the service of the house of the Lord; forsooth six thousand were provosts, and doomsmen;)]

23:5 and there were four thousand porters/and four thousand that were porters of gates and doors, and so many singers, singing to the Lord in organs,

Chapter 23

23:1 So when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel.

23:2 And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

23:3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and upward: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand.

23:4 Of which, twenty and four thousand were to set forward the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand were officers and judges:

23:5 Moreover four thousand were porters; and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments which I made, said David, to praise therewith.

of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valour at Jazer of Gilead.

26:32 And his brethren, men of valour, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God, and affairs of the king.

Chapter 27

27:1 Forsooth the sons of Israel by their number, (that is,) the princes of (the) families, the tribunes, and centurions, and prefects, that ministered to the king by their companies of knights, entering in and going out by each month in the year, were sovereigns, each by himself, upon four and twenty thousand (men). [The sons forsooth of Israel after their number (Forsooth the sons of Israel after their number), princes of families, leaders of thousands, and leaders of hundreds, and the prefects, that served to the king after their companies, coming in and going out by all the months in the year, all before were to four and twenty thousand (each were before to four and twenty thousand men).]

27:2 Jashobeam, the son of Zabdiel, was sovereign of the first company in the first month, and under him were four and twenty thousand; [To the first company in the first month Jashobeam, the son of Zabdiel, was before, and under him four and twenty thousand;]

27:3 of the sons of Perez, (he) was the prince of all [the] princes in the host, in the first month.

27:4 Dodai (the) Ahohite had the company of the second month, and after himself he had another man, Mikloth by name, that governed a part of the host of four and twenty thousand. (Dodai the Ahohite had the company for the second month, and he had another man,

[Then the Lord magnified Solomon upon all Israel, and gave to him glory of the kingdom, what manner no king of Israel had before him.]

29:26 Therefore David, the son of Jesse, reigned on all Israel;/And (so) David, the son of Jesse, reigned upon all Israel; [Then David, the son of Jesse, reigned upon all Israel;]

29:27 and the days in which he reigned upon Israel were forty years; in Hebron he reigned seven years, and in Jerusalem he reigned three and thirty years.

29:24 And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, submitted themselves unto Solomon the king.

29:25 And the LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

29:26 Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

29:27 And the time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

Chapter 1

Chapter 1

1:1 Therefore Solomon, the son of David, was strengthened* in his realm, and the Lord was with him, and magnified him on high. [Solomon then (Then Solomon), the son of David, is comforted in his realm, and the Lord was with him, and magnified him into on high.]

1:1 And Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

1:2 And Solomon commanded to all Israel, to tribunes, and (to) centurions, and to dukes, and to doomsmen of all Israel, and to the princes of families; [And Solomon commanded to all Israel, to leaders of thousands, and masters of hundreds, and to doomsmen, and to the dukes of all Israel, and to the princes of families;]

1:2 Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

1:3 and Solomon went with all the multitude into the high place of Gibeon, where the tabernacle of [the] bond of peace of the Lord was, which tabernacle Moses, the servant of the Lord, (had) made in (the) wilderness. [and (he) went with all the multitude into the height of Gibeon, where was the tabernacle of the peace covenant of the Lord (where the tabernacle of the peace covenant of the Lord was), that Moses, the servant of God, (had) made in wilderness.]

1:3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

1:4 Forsooth David had brought the ark of God from Kiriathjearim into the place which he had made ready to it, and where he had set (up) a tabernacle to it, that is, in Jerusalem. (Forsooth David had brought the ark of God from Kiriathjearim to the place which he had made ready for it, and where he had set up a tent for it, that is, in Jerusalem.) [David forsooth had led the ark of God from Kiriathjearim into the place that he had made ready to it, and where he had pitched to it a tabernacle, that is, in Jerusalem. (Forsooth David had led the ark of God from Kiriathjearim into the place that he had made ready for it, and where he had pitched a tent for it, that is, in Jerusalem.)]

1:5 And the brazen altar, which Bezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, was there before the tabernacle of the Lord; (at) which (altar) also Solomon and all the church sought (the Lord) (at which altar Solomon and all the congregation sought the Lord)/(at) which brasen altar Solomon and all the church of Israel sought (the Lord) (at which brasen altar Solomon and all the congregation of Israel sought the Lord). [wisdom and knowing be given to thee; riches forsooth (forsooth riches), and substances, and glory I shall (also) give to thee, so that no man in kings, not before thee, nor after thee, were like thee.]

1:13 Then Solomon came from the high place of Gideon into Jerusalem, before the tabernacle of the bond of peace, and he reigned upon Israel. [Then Solomon came from the height of Gideon into Jerusalem, before the tabernacle of the peace covenant, and reigned upon Israel.]

1:11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:

1:12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

1:13 Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

3:3 And these were the foundations, which Solomon setted, that he should build the house of God; sixty cubits of length in the first measure, and twenty cubits of breadth. [And these be the foundations, that Solomon laid, that he build up the house of God; of length cubits in the first measure sixty, (and) of breadth cubits twenty (of length in the first measure sixty cubits, and of breadth twenty cubits).]

3:4 And he builded a porch before the front, that was stretched forth along beside, or at the measure of, the breadth of the house, of twenty cubits, and the highness was of an hundred and twenty cubits; and he overgilded it within with cleanest gold. [The gate house forsooth before the front, the which was straightened out into length after measure of (the) breadth of the house, of cubits twenty, but the height was of an hundred and twenty cubits; and he gilded it withinforth with most clean gold. (Forsooth the gate house before the front, the which was stretched out into length after measure of the breadth of the house, of twenty cubits, and the height was of an hundred and twenty cubits; and he gilded it withinforth with most clean gold.)]

3:5 Also he covered the greater house with boards* of beech, and he fastened plates of gold of the best colour all about; and he graved therein palm trees, and as small chains embracing themselves together. (And he covered the greater house with box boards, and he fastened plates of gold of the best

3:3 Now these are the things wherein Solomon was instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

3:4 And the porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

3:5 And the greater house he ceiled with fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm trees and chains.

Chapter 4

4:1 Also he made a brazen altar of twenty cubits of length, and of twenty cubits of breadth, and of ten cubits of height;

4:1 Moreover he made an altar of brass, twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof.

4:2 he made also a molten sea, that is, a great washing vessel for (the) priests, of ten cubits from brink to brink, round by compass; it had five cubits of height; and a cord of thirty cubits compassed the compass thereof. [also a molten sea of ten cubits from brink unto brink, round by environ; five cubits he had of height; and a little cord of thirty cubits environed the compass of it.]

4:2 Also he made a molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

4:3 And the likeness of oxen was under it, and by ten cubits some engravings withoutforth compassed the brink of the sea, as with twain orders; and the oxen were molten. (And under it was the likeness of oxen, and by ten cubits some engravings withoutforth compassed the brink of the sea, in two rows; and the oxen were molten.) [And (the) likeness of oxen was under it, and in the ten cubits manner gravings withoutforth, as with two verses went about the brink of the sea; the oxen forsooth were molten. (And under it was the likeness of oxen, and in the ten cubits were manner engravings withoutforth, which in two rows went about the brink of the sea; forsooth the oxen were molten.)]

4:3 And under it was the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast.

4:4 And that sea was set upon twelve oxen, of which oxen three beheld to the north, and (an)other three to the west, and three others beheld to the south, and [the] three that were residue beheld (to)

Wycliffe-Purvey, 1395

KJV, 1611

6:17 And now, Lord God of Israel, thy word be made steadfast, which thou spakest to thy servant David.

6:17 Now then, O LORD God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

6:18 Therefore whether it is believable, that the Lord dwell with men on (the) earth? If heaven and the heavens of heavens take not thee, how much more this house, which I have builded? (If heaven and the heavens of heavens may not hold thee, how much less this house, which I have built?)/If heaven and the heavens of heavens (may not) take, either may not hold thee, Lord, how much more this house, which I have builded? (If heaven and the heavens of heavens may not take, or hold thee, Lord, how much less this house, which I have built?) [Then whether believable it be, that the Lord dwell with men upon earth? If heaven and heavens of heavens thee take not, how much more this house, that I have built? (Then whether it be believable, that the Lord dwell with men upon the earth? If heaven and heavens of heavens may not hold thee, how much less this house, that I have built?)]

6:18 But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built!

6:19 But hereto only it is made, that thou, my Lord God, behold there the prayer of thy servant, and the beseeching of him, and that thou hear the prayers, which thy servant poureth [out] before thee;/But hereto only it is made, that thou, my Lord God, behold therein the prayer of thy servant, and the beseeching of him, and that thou, Lord, hear the prayers, which thy servant sheddeth out before thee; [But to this only it is made, that thou behold the orison of thy servant, and his beseeching, Lord my God, and thou hear the prayers, that thy servant poureth out before thee;]

[And when Solomon had fulfilled pouring out (his) prayers, fire came down from heaven, and devoured the burnt sacrifices, and the slain offerings; and the majesty of the Lord full-filled the house.]

7:2 And the priests might not enter into the temple of the Lord; for the majesty of the Lord had filled the temple of the Lord/for the mighty shining of the Lord had full-filled the temple of the Lord (for the mighty shining of the Lord had filled the temple of the Lord full). [And the priests might not go into the temple of the Lord; for-thy that the majesty of the Lord had full-filled the temple of the Lord.]

6:42 O LORD God, turn not away the face of thine anointed: remember the mercies of David thy servant.

Chapter 7

7:1 Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house.

7:2 And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD'S house.

II CHRONICLES

Wycliffe-Purvey, 1395

7:3 But also all the sons of Israel saw (the) fire coming down, and the glory of the Lord upon the house, and they felled down low to the earth upon the pavement arrayed, or paved, with stone, and they worshipped, and praised the Lord, (and said,) For he is good, for his mercy is into the world. [But and all the sons of Israel saw fire going down, and the glory of the Lord upon the house, and falling down (they) bowed into the earth upon the pavement paved with stone, (and) honoured, and praised the Lord, (saying,) For he is good, for into the world the mercy of him (for the mercy of him is into the world).]

7:4 And the king and all the people offered slain sacrifices before the Lord.

7:5 Therefore king Solomon killed sacrifices of oxen two and twenty thousand, (and) of wethers sixscore thousand; and the king and all the people hallowed the house of God. [King Solomon then slew hosts of oxen two and twenty thousand, (and) of wethers an hundred and twenty thousand; and the king built up the house of God, and all the people. (Then king Solomon slew hosts of two and twenty thousand oxen, and of an hundred and twenty thousand wethers; and the king and all the people hallowed the house of God.)]

7:6 And the priests stood in their offices, and [the] deacons in organs of songs of the Lord, which king David (had) made to praise the Lord (with), For his mercy is into the world; and they sang the hymns of David by their hands in organs and other instruments; and the priests sang with trumps before them, and all the people of Israel stood.

7:3 And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

7:4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

7:5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

7:6 And the priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry; and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood.

10:15 And Rehoboam assented not to the prayers of the people; for it was the will of God, that his word should be [ful]filled, which he had spoken by the hand of Ahijah of Shiloh to Jeroboam, the son of Nebat. [And he assented not to the prayers of the people; forsooth the will of God was (forsooth it was the will of God), that his word should be fulfilled, that he had spoken by the hand of Ahijah (the) Shilonite to Jeroboam, the son of Nebat.]

10:16 Soothly when the king said (the) harder things, all the people spake thus to him, No part is to us in David, neither (have we) heritage in the son of Jesse; Israel, turn thou again into thy tabernacles; soothly thou, David, feed thine (own) house. And Israel went into his tabernacles (And Israel went to their tents)./And when the king had said these harder things, all the people spake thus to him, No part be to us in David, neither (have we) heritage in the son of Jesse; Israel, turn thou again into thy tabernacles; and thou, David, feed thine own house. And Israel went into his tabernacles (And Israel went to their tents). [All the people forsooth, the king saying (these) harder things, thus spake to him, There is not to us part in David, nor heritage in the son of Jesse; turn again into thy tabernacles, Israel; thou forsooth feed thine (own) house, David. 10:15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

10:16 And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

13:22 And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the story of the prophet Iddo.

Chapter 14

14:1 So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.

14:2 And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God:

14:3 For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and brake down the images, and cut down the groves:

14:4 And commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.

Wycliffe-Purvey, 1395

14:5 And he took away from all the cities of Judah (the) altars and (the) temples of (the) idols, and he reigned in peace.

14:6 And he builded strong cities in Judah; for he was in rest (for the land was at rest), and no battles rose in his times, for the Lord gave him peace. [Also he built up strengthened cities in Judah; for quiet he was, and none in his time battles rose, the Lord granting peace. (And he built up strengthened cities in Judah; for the land was quiet, and no battles rose in his time, the Lord granting peace.)]

14:7 Forsooth he said to Judah, Build we [up] these cities, and compass we with walls, and strengthen we with towers, and gates, and locks, as long as all things be restful from battle; for we have sought the Lord God of our fathers, and he hath given to us peace by compass. Therefore they builded, and no hindering was in [the] building./And Asa said to Judah, Build we [up] these cities, and compass we them with walls, and strengthen we them with towers, and gates, and locks, as long as all things be restful from battle; for we have sought the Lord God of our fathers, and he hath given to us rest by compass. Therefore they builded, and there was no hindering in the building. [Forsooth he said to Judah, Build we up these cities, and environ we with walls, and strengthen we with towers, and gates, and locks, the whiles from battles all things be quiet (the while all things be quiet from battle); for-thy that we have sought the Lord God of our fathers, and he hath given to us peace by environ. 14:5 Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the images: and the kingdom was quiet before him.

14:6 And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the LORD had given him rest.

14:7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.

24:19 And he sent to them prophets, that they shall turn again to the Lord (that they should turn again to the Lord); the which prophets' witnessing, they would not hear. [And he sent to them prophets, that they should turn again to the Lord; whom before-witnessing they would not hear (whose witnessing they would not hear).]

24:20 Then the Spirit of the Lord clothed, or environed, Zechariah, the priest, the son of Jehoiada; and he stood in the sight of the people, and said to them, The Lord saith these things, Why break ye the commandment of the Lord, that shall not profit to you, and ye have forsaken the Lord, that he should forsake you? (Then the Spirit of the Lord came upon Zechariah, the son of Jehoiada, the priest; and he stood in the sight of the people, and said to them, The Lord saith these things, Why break ye the commandment of the Lord? certainly that shall not profit you; because ye have forsaken the Lord, so he hath forsaken you.) [And so the Spirit of the Lord clothed Zechariah, the son of Jehoiada, priest; and he stood in the sight of the people, and said to them, These things saith the Lord, Why over-pass ye the behest of the Lord, that shall not profit to you, and ye have forsaken the Lord, that he forsake you? (And so the Spirit of the Lord clothed Zechariah, the son of Jehoiada, the priest; and he stood in the sight of the people, and said to them, These things saith the Lord, Why pass ye over the behest of the Lord? certainly that shall not profit to you; for ye have forsaken the Lord, so he hath forsaken you.)]

24:19 Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.

24:20 And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

25:9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, What then shall be done of the hundred talents, which I gave to the knights of Israel? And the man of God answered to him, The Lord hath, whereof he may yield to thee much more things than these. [And Amaziah said to the man of God, What then shall be done of the hundred talents, that I gave to the knights of Israel? And the man of God answered, The Lord hath, whereof he may give to thee many more than these.]

25:10 Therefore Amaziah separated* the host that came to him from Ephraim, that it should turn again into his place; and they were wroth greatly against Judah (and they were greatly wroth against Judah), and they turned again into their country. [And so Amaziah severed the host that came to him of Ephraim, that he should turn again into his place; and they, against Judah hugely wrathed (and they hugely wrathed against Judah), (and) be turned again into their region.]

25:11 And Amaziah led out trustily his people, and went into the valley of (the) makings of salt, and he killed of the sons of Seir ten thousand. (And Amaziah trustily led out his people, and went into the valley of the makings of salt, and he killed ten thousand of the sons of Seir.) [But Amaziah trustily led out his people, and went into the valley of salt places, and he smote (of) the sons of Seir, ten thousand.]

25:9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give thee much more than this.

25:10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

25:11 And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.

KJV, 1611

(more) sin against the Lord; why will ye lay to (more) on your sins, and heap (more on your) eld trespasses? For it is great sin; the ire of the strong vengeance of the Lord nigheth on Israel. (and said to them, Ye shall not bring the prisoners in hither, lest we do more sin against the Lord; why lay ye up more upon our sins, and heap more upon our old trespasses? For our sin is great; the ire of the strong vengeance of the Lord nigheth upon Israel.)/and said to them, Ye shall not bring in hither the prisoners, lest we consenting to you do (more) sin against the Lord; why will ye lay to more evil upon your sins, and heap (more upon) your old trespasses? Certainly this is great sin; and the wrath of the strong vengeance of the Lord nigheth upon Israel. (and said to them, Ye shall not bring the prisoners in hither, lest we consenting to you do more sin against the Lord; why lay ye up more evil upon our sins, and heap more upon our old trespasses? Certainly our sin is great; and the wrath of the strong vengeance of the Lord nigheth upon Israel.) [and said to them, Ye shall not bring in hither the captives, lest we sin (more) to the Lord; why will ye cast to (more) upon your sins, and heap (more upon your) old sins? Great forsooth sin it is; and the wrath of the strong vengeance of the Lord standeth upon Israel. (and said to them, Ye shall not bring the captives in hither, lest we sin more against the Lord; why cast ye up more upon our sins, and heap more upon our old sins? Forsooth our sin is great; and the wrath of the strong vengeance of the Lord standeth upon Israel.)]

28:14 And the men warriors left the prey, and all things which they had we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.

28:14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all taken, before the princes and all the multitude. (And the men of war left the prisoners, and all the things which they had taken, before the princes and all the multitude.) [And the fighting men left the prey, and all things that they had taken, before the princes and all the multitude.]

28:15 And the men stood, which we remembered before (which we named before), and they took the prisoners, and clothed of the spoils all that were naked, and when they had clothed them, and had shod (them), and had refreshed with meat and drink, and had anointed for (their) travail, and had given cure, either medicine, to them; they putted them on horses, which ever might not go, and were feeble of body, and brought (them) to Jericho, a city of palms, to the brethren of them; and (then) they turned again into Samaria. / And the men stood there, which we remembered before (which we named before), and they took the prisoners, and they clothed of the spoils all that were naked; and when they had clothed them, and shod them, and refreshed them with meat and with drink, and anointed them for (their) travail, and gave cure, either medicine, to them; which ever of them were feeble, and might not go, they putted on horses, and they brought them to Jericho, the city of palms, to their brethren; and (then) they turned again into Samaria. [And the men, the which above we minded (And the men, the which above we had mind of), stood, and, taking the captives, clothed of the spoils all that were naked; and when they had clothed them, and shod, and filled them with meat and drink, and anointed (them) for the travail, and gave to the congregation.

28:15 And the men which were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

them busyness; whosoever might not go, and were with feeble body, they put them on beasts, and led to Jericho, the city of palms, to their brethren; and they be turned again into Samaria.]

28:16 In that time king Ahaz sent to the king of Assyrians, and asked help of him. [(At) That time king Ahaz sent to the king of Assyria, asking (for) help.]

28:17 And Idumeans came (For the Idumeans had come again), and killed many men of Judah, and took great prey./And men of Edom came (For the men of Edom had come again), and killed men of Judah, and took great prey. [And Idumeans came (again), and smote many of Judah, and took great prey.]

28:18 Also [the] Philistines were spread abroad by (the) cities of the fields, and at the south of Judah; and they took Bethshemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, and Shocho, and Timnah, and Gimzo, with their villages; and they dwelled in those. [And the Philistines be poured out by wild field cities, and at the south of Judah (And the Philistines were poured out by the cities of the wild fields, and at the south of Judah); and they took Bethshemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, Shocho also, and Timnah, and Gimzo, with their little towns; and they dwelled in them.]

28:19 For the Lord made low Judah for Ahaz, the king of Judah*; for he had made him naked of help, and (he had) despised the Lord. (For the Lord had made Judah low for Ahaz, the king of Judah; for he had made Judah naked of help, and he had defied the Lord.)

28:16 At that time did king Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him.

28:17 For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away captives.

28:18 The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken Bethshemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, and Shocho with the villages thereof, and Timnah with the villages thereof, Gimzo also and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there.

28:19 For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel; for he made Judah naked, and transgressed sore against the LORD.

{Forsooth the Lord had meeked Judah for Ahaz, king of Judah; for-thy that he had nakeded him from help, and had the Lord to despite (and had defied the Lord).}

* Here the KJV mistakenly says, "king of Israel".

28:20 And the Lord brought against him Tilgathpilneser, king of Assyrians, that tormented him, and wasted him, while no man against-stood (him). {And the Lord brought against him Tilgathpilneser, king of Assyria, the which tormented him, and, no man withstanding (him), wasted (him).}

28:21 Therefore Ahaz, after that he had spoiled the house of the Lord, and the house of the king, and (those) of the princes, gave gifts to the king of Assyrians, and nevertheless it profited nothing to him (but nevertheless it profited nothing to him)/and nevertheless it profited not to him (but nevertheless it profited not to him). {Then Ahaz, the house of the Lord spoiled, and the house of (the) king's, and (those of the) princes, gave to the king of Assyria gifts, and neverthelater it profited nothing to him. (Then Ahaz spoiled the house of the Lord, and the house of the king, and those of the princes, and gave gifts to the king of Assyria, but neverthelater it profited nothing to him.)}

28:22 Furthermore also in the time of his anguish he increased despite against God; that king Ahaz, himself, (And furthermore in the time of his anguish he increased his defiance against God; that king Ahaz, himself,) {Furthermore and in time of his anguish he eked despite into the Lord; he by himself, king Ahaz, (And

28:23 offered sacrifices to the gods of Damascus, his smiters, or destroyers, and he said, (Because) The gods of the kings of Syria help them, which gods I shall please by sacrifices, and they shall help me; when, on the contrary, they were (the cause of the) falling to him, and to all Israel. (offered sacrifices to the gods of Damascus, his smiters, or destroyers, and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, so I shall please these gods, and they shall help me; when, on the contrary, they were the cause of the downfall of him, and of all Israel.) [offered to the gods of Damascus slain sacrifices, to his smiters, and said, The gods of the kings of Syria help to them, the which I shall please with hosts, and (so) they shall stand to to me; when on the contrary, they were falling to him, and to all Israel.]

28:24 Therefore after that Ahaz had taken away, and broken all the vessels of the house of God, he closed the gates of God's temple, and he made altars to himself in all the corners of Jerusalem (and he made altars for himself in all the corners of Jerusalem). [And so Ahaz, all the vessels of the house of God taken away, and broken (al)together (and altogether broken), closed the gates of the temple of God, and made to him(self) altars in all the corners of Jerusalem.]

28:25 And in all the cities of Judah he builded altars to burn incense (to other gods), and he stirred the Lord God of his fathers to wrathfulness (and he stirred to 28:23 For he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.

28:24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

28:25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

28:26 Soothly the residue of his words and of all his works, the former and the last (the first and the last), be written in the book of [the] kings of Judah and of Israel. [The remnant forsooth of his words and of all his works, of the rather and of the last (Forsooth the remnant of his words and of all his works, the first and the last), be written in the book of the kings of Judah and of Israel.]

28:27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of Jerusalem; for they received not him into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel (for they received him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel); and Hezekiah, his son, reigned for him.

Chapter 29

29:1 And Hezekiah began to reign, when he was of five and twenty years (old), and he reigned in Jerusalem nine and twenty years; the name of his mother was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. [Hezekiah then began to reign, when he was of five and twenty years (old), and nine and twenty years he reigned in Jerusalem (Then Hezekiah began to reign, when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem); name of his mother, Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah.]

29:2 And Hezekiah did that, that was pleasing in the sight of the Lord, by all things that David, his father, had done.

28:26 Now the rest of his acts and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

28:27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem: but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 29

29:1 Hezekiah began to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah.

29:2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

1:3 Who is (there) among you of all his people? his God be with him; and go he up into Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build he (again) the house of the Lord God of Israel; he is (the) God, which is in Jerusalem.

1:4 And all other men, that dwell where ever in all places, help him; the men of their place help in silver, and gold, and chattel, and sheep, besides that that they offer willfully to the temple of God, which is in Jerusalem. (And all other men, where ever they dwell in all places, help him; the men of their place help him with silver, and gold, and chattel, and sheep, besides that that they willingly offer for the temple of God, which is in Jerusalem.)/And all other men, where ever they dwell in all places, help they him that buildeth; the men of their place help they (him) with silver, and gold, and with chattel, and sheep, besides, or over, that that they offer willfully to the temple of God, that is in Jerusalem (besides, or over, that that they willingly offer for the temple of God, that is in Jerusalem). [And all the others in all places, where ever they dwell, help they him; the men of his place, (help) with silver, and gold, and substance, and beasts, besides that (that) willfully they offer to the temple of God, that is in Jerusalem (besides that that they willingly offer for the temple of God, that is in Jerusalem).]

1:5 And then [the] princes of the fathers of Judah and of Benjamin rose up, and the priests, and the deacons,

1:3 Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel, (he is the God,) which is in Jerusalem.

1:4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, beside the freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

1:5 Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them

5:1 Forsooth Haggai, the prophet, and Zechariah, the prophet, the son of Iddo, prophesied, prophesying in the name of (the) God of Israel, to the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem. [Forsooth there prophesied Haggai. prophet, and Zechariah, prophet, the son of Iddo, prophesying to the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of God of Israel.]

5:1 Then the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them.

5:2 Then Zerubbabel, the son of Salathiel, and Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, rose up, and began to build (again) the temple of God in Jerusalem; and with them rose up the prophets of God, helping them (and the prophets of God rose up with them, helping them). [Then rose Zerubbabel, the son of Salathiel, and Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and they began to build up the temple of God in Jerusalem; and with them (were the) prophets, helping them (and the prophets were with them, helping them).]

5:2 Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

5:3 And in that time Tatnai, that was duke beyond the flood, and Shetharboznai, and the counsellors of them, came to them; and said thus to them, Who gave counsel to you to build this house (again), and to restore these walls? [In that forsooth time came to them Tatnai, that was duke beyond the flood, and Shetharboznai, and the counsellors of them;

16:1 Forsooth Job answered, and said,

16:1 Then Job answered and said,

16:2 I have oft heard such things; all ye be heavy comforters.

16:2 I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all.

16:3 Whether words full of wind shall have an end? either any thing is diseaseful to thee, if thou speakest (it)? [Whether windy words shall have (an) end? or any thing is grievous to thee, if thou speakest (it)?]

16:3 Shall vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?

16:4 Also I might speak things like to you, and I would, that your soul were for my soul; and (then) I would (dis)comfort you by (like) words, and I would move mine head on you; (I also could speak words like you, and I would, that your soul were for my soul; and then I would discomfort you with like words, and I would move mine head upon you;)/And I might speak things like to you (And I could speak words like you), and I would, that your soul were for my soul; (then) I would (dis)comfort you with (like) words, and I would move mine head upon you; [And I might like things of you speak (And I might speak like things as you), and would God your life were for my life; (then) I should (dis)comfort you with (like) words, and move mine head upon you;]

31:19 if I despised a man passing forth by me, for he had not a cloak*, and a poor man without covering; [if I despised the goer-beside, for-thy that he had not clothing, and the poor without covering;]

31:20 if his sides blessed not me, and were not made hot of the fleece of my sheep; (if his body hath not cause to bless me, and he were not made hot with the fleece of my sheep;) [if his sides blessed not me, and of the fleece of my sheep he is (not) chafed; (if his sides have not blessed me, and he is not chafed with the fleece of my sheep;)]

31:21 if I raised up mine hand upon a fatherless child, yea, when I saw me the higher (one) in the gate; (if I have raised up mine hand against a fatherless child, yea, when I saw my help in the gate;)

31:22 (then let) my shoulder fall from his joint, and mine arm with his bones be all-broken (and mine arm be all-broken with his bones).

31:17 Or have eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;

31:18 (For from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided her from my mother's womb;)

31:19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering;

31:20 If his loins have not blessed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;

31:21 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate:

31:22 Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder blade, and mine arm be broken from the bone.

31:23 For ever[more] I dreaded God, as waves waxing great on me; and I might not bear his burden./Forsooth ever[more] I dreaded God, as waves waxing great upon me; whose burden I might not bear. {Forsooth evermore as floods swelling upon me, I dreaded God; and his peise I might not bear. (Forsooth evermore I dreaded God, as floods swelling upon me; and I might not bear his weight.)}

31:24 If I guessed gold (to be) my strength, and I said to pured gold, Thou art my trust; {If I weened gold my strength, and to the shining gold I said, My trust; (If I supposed gold to be my strength, and I said to the shining gold, My trust;)}
31:25 if I was glad on my many riches, and for mine hand found full many things; {if I gladded upon my many riches, and for mine hand found many things;}

31:26 if I saw the sun, when it shined, and the moon going clearly;

31:28 the which is the most wickedness, and denying against the highest God; (this is most wicked, and a denying of the highest God;)

31:29 if I had joy at the falling of him, that hated me, and if I joyed fully (and if I fully joyed), that evil had found him; {if I joyed at his falling, that hated me, and full out joyed, that evil had found him;}

31:23 For destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

31:24 If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;

31:25 If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much;

31:26 If I beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness;

31:27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed, or my mouth hath kissed my hand:

31:28 This also were an iniquity to be punished by the judge: for I should have denied the God that is above.

31:29 If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him:

31:30 for I gave not my throat to do sin (though I gave not my throat to do sin), that I should assail and curse his soul; [forsooth I gave not my throat to sin, that I should abide, cursing his soul;]

31:30 Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul.

31:31 if the men of my tabernacle said not, Who giveth, that we be [ful]filled of his fleshes? (if the men of my tabernacle said not, Would God, that we be filled full with his fleshes!) [if the men of my tabernacle said not, Who giveth of his flesh, that we be fulfilled?]

31:31 If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.

31:32 a pilgrim dwelled not withoutforth; my door was open to a way-goer/to a way-faring man; [withoutforth abode not the pilgrim (the pilgrim abode not withoutforth); my door was open to the way-goer;]

31:32 The stranger did not lodge in the street: but I opened my doors to the traveller.

31:33 If I covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom:

31:34 Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door?

31:37 By all my degrees I shall pronounce it, and I shall as (an) offering offer it to the prince. 31:36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as a crown to me.

31:37 I would declare unto him the number of my steps; as a prince would I go near unto him.

31:38 If my land cry against me, or that the furrows likewise thereof complain;

31:39 If I have eaten the fruits thereof without money, or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life:

31:40 Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley. The words of Job are ended.

Chapter 32

32:1 So these three men ceased to answer Job, for he seemed a just man to them (for he saw himself as a just man). [These three men left (off) forsooth to answer to Job, for-thy that rightwise he is seen to them. (Forsooth these three men left off to answer to Job, for-thy that he saw himself rightwise.)] answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

32:2 And Elihu, the son of Barachel (the) Buzite, of the kindred of Ram, was wroth, and had indignation; and he was wroth against Job, for he said himself to be just before God. [And Elihu, the son of Barachel (the) Buzite, of the kindred of Ram, is wroth, and disdained; he is wroth against Job, for-thy that he should say himself to be rightwise before God.]

32:2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather than God.

32:3 Certainly Elihu had indignation against the three friends of him, for they had found no reasonable answer, but only had condemned Job (but only had condemned Job)./And also Elihu had indignation against the three friends of Job, for they had not found [a] reasonable answer, but only they had condemned Job (but they only had condemned Job). [But against the three friends of him he disdained, for-thy that they had not found a reasonable answer, but only they should have condemned Job. (But he disdained against the three friends of him, for-thy that they had not found a reasonable answer, but they had only condemned Job.)]

32:3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

32:4 Therefore Elihu abode Job speaking, for they, that spake, were elder men. [Then Elihu abode Job speaking, for-thy that elder they were, that spake (for-thy that they that spake, were older).]

32:4 Now Elihu had waited till Job had spoken, because they were elder than he.

32:5 But when he had seen, that these

32:5 When Elihu saw that there was no

three men might not answer Job, he was wroth greatly (he was greatly wroth). [When forsooth he had seen, that the three might not answer, he wrathed hugely. (Forsooth when he had seen, that the three might not answer him, he hugely wrathed.)]

32:6 And Elihu, the son of Barachel (the) Buzite, answered, and said, I am younger in time, and ye be elder; therefore with head holden down, I dreaded to show to you my sentence.

32:7 For I hoped that [the] longer age should speak, and that the multitude of years should teach wisdom.

32:8 But as I see now, a spirit is in men, and the inspiring/the inspiration, either revelation, of Almighty God giveth understanding. [But as I see, (a) spirit is in men, and the in-breathing of the Almighty giveth understanding.]

32:9 Men of long life be not (always) wise, and eld men understand not doom (nor do old men always understand doom). [Wise men be not (always) long living (Long living men be not always wise), nor (do) old men (always) understand doom.]

32:10 Therefore I shall say, Hear ye me, and I also shall show my knowing to you. [Therefore I shall say, Hearerh me, and also I shall show to you my knowing (and I also shall show my knowing to you).]

32:11 For I abode your words, I heard your prudence, as long as ye disputed in your words. [Forsooth I have abided your words, and heard your prudence, while ye strived in your words.]

answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

32:6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and durst not show you mine opinion.

32:7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

32:8 But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

32:9 Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment.

32:10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I also will show mine opinion.

32:11 Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your reasons, whilst ye searched out what to say.

32:12 And as long as I guessed you to say any thing, I beheld; but as I perceive, there is none of you, that may reprove Job, and answer to his words; [And while I weened you any thing to say, I beheld; but as I see, there is not, that may reprove Job, and answer of you to his words; (And while I supposed you to say any thing, I beheld; but as I see, there is not any of you, that may reprove Job, and answer to his words;)]

32:13 lest peradventure ye say, We have found wisdom; God, and not man, hath cast him away (God hath cast him away, and not man). [lest peradventure ye say, We have found wisdom; God hath thrown him afar, and not man.]

32:14 Job spake nothing to me, and I not by your words shall answer him. (Job spake nothing to me, and I shall not shall answer to him with your words.) [Nothing he hath spoken to me, and I after your words shall not answer to him. (He hath spoken nothing to me, and I shall not answer to him after your words.)]

32:15 (For) They [much] dreaded, and answered no more, and they took away speech from themselves.

32:16 Therefore, since I abode, and they spake not, (but) they stood (still), and answered no more; [Then, for I have abided, and they spake not, (but) stood, and answered no more;]

32:17 also I shall answer my part (I shall answer also my part), therefore I shall answer my part, and I shall show my knowing.

32:12 Yea, I attended unto you, and, behold, there was none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words:

32:13 Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man.

32:14 Now he hath not directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches.

32:15 They were amazed, they answered no more: they left off speaking.

32:16 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no more;)

32:17 I said, I will answer also my part, I also will show mine opinion.

32:18 For I am full of words, and the spirit of my womb, that is, (my) mind, constraineth me.

32:19 Lo! my womb is as must without (a) spigot/without (a) faucet, either a venting, that breaketh new vessels./Lo! my womb is as must without a venting, that bursteth new vessels. [Lo! my womb (is) as must without venting, that breaketh new little wine vessels.]

32:20 I shall speak, and (then) breathe again a little; I shall open my lips, and I shall answer. [I shall speak, and breathe again a little; I shall open my lips, and answer.]

32:21 I shall not take the person of a man, and I shall not make God even to man.

32:22 For I know not how long I shall abide alive, and if my Maker will take me away after a little time.

Chapter 33

33:1 Therefore, Job, hear thou my speeches, and harken (to) all my words. [Hear then, Job, my speeches, and (to) all my words harken. (Then Job, hear my speeches, and harken to all my words.)]

33:2 Lo! I have opened my mouth, my tongue shall speak in my cheeks.

33:3 Of simple heart be my words, and my lips shall speak clean sentence. (My words shall be from a sincere heart, and my lips shall speak clean sentences.)

KJV, 1611

32:18 For I am full of matter, the spirit within me constraineth me.

32:19 Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles.

32:20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer.

32:21 Let me not, I pray you, accept any man's person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man.

32:22 For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my maker would soon take me away.

Chapter 33

33:1 Wherefore, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

33:2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth.

33:3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.
