Chapter 1

Chapter 1

1:1 There was a man of Ramathaim in Zophim, of the hill of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, son of Elihi, son of Tohu, son of Zuph, of Ephraim. [There was a man of Ramathaim of Zophim, of the hill of Ephraim, and the name of him (was) Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, son of Elihi, son of Tohu, son of Zuph, (an) Ephrathite.]

1:1 Now there was a certain man of Ramathaimzophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephrathite:

1:2 And Elkanah had two wives; the name to the one was Hannah, and the name of the second was Peninnah; and sons were to Peninnah; forsooth free children were not to Hannah./And Elkanah had two wives; the name of that one was Hannah, and the second was called Peninnah; and sons were to Peninnah; but Hannah had none free children (but Hannah had no children). [And he had two wives; name to the one Hannah, and name to the second Peninnah; and there were of Peninnah sons (and there were sons of Peninnah); forsooth of Hannah there were none free children.]

1:2 And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

1:3 And that man went up from his city in the days that were ordained, to worship and to offer sacrifice to the Lord of hosts in Shiloh. And [the] two sons

1:3 And this man went up out of his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and of Eli were there, Hophni and Phinehas, priests of the Lord.

Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, were there.

1:4 Then the day came, and Elkanah offered, and he gave parts to Peninnah, his wife, and to all his sons and daughters; (Then the day came, and Elkanah offered, and he gave portions to Peninnah, his wife, and to all his sons and daughters;) [The day then came (Then the day came), and Elkanah offered, and gave to Peninnah, his wife, and to all his children and daughters, parts;]

1:4 And when the time was that Elkanah offered, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions:

1:5 forsooth he gave sorrowfully one part, either double, to Hannah, for he loved Hannah; forsooth the Lord had closed (up) her womb. (forsooth he sorrowfully gave one special portion to Hannah, for he loved Hannah; but the Lord had closed up her womb.)

1:5 But unto Hannah he gave a worthy portion; for he loved Hannah: but the LORD had shut up her womb.

1:6 And (Peninnah) her enemy tormented her, and anguished (her) greatly, in so much that she upbraided her, that the Lord had closed (up) her womb. [Forsooth her enemy tormented her, and hugely anguished (her), in so much that she put to (Hannah) reproof (in so much that she put reproof to Hannah), that the Lord had closed her womb.]

1:6 And her adversary also provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb.

1:7 And so she did by all years, when in time coming again, they ascended into the house of the Lord; and so she stirred Hannah. Forsooth Hannah wept, and took not meat./And so Peninnah did each year, when the time came that they went up into the house of the Lord; and so she stirred Hannah. And then she wept, and took no meat. [And so she did by each year, when, turning again the time (when the time turning again), they went up into the house of the Lord; and so she stirred her. Forsooth she wept, and took no meat.}]

1:7 And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat.

1:8 Therefore Elkanah, her husband, said to her, Hannah, why weepest thou, and why eatest thou not, and why is thine heart tormented? Whether I am not better to thee than be ten sons? (Whether am I not better to thee than ten sons?) [Then said to her Elkanah, her man, Hannah, why weepest thou, and why eatest thou nought, and for what cause is tormented thine heart? Whether am I not better to thee than ten sons? (Then Elkanah, her man, said to her, Hannah, why weepest thou, and why eatest thou nought, and for what cause is thine heart tormented? Whether am I not better to thee than ten sons?)]

1:9 Soothly Hannah rose, after that she had eaten and (had) drunk in Shiloh. And the while Eli [the priest] was on his great seat, before the posts of the house of the Lord,/And the while Eli [the priest] (was) sitting upon his seat, before the posts of the Lord's house, [Forsooth Hannah rose, after that she had eaten in Shiloh, and drunk. And Eli the priest (was) sitting upon a little seat, before the posts of the house of the Lord,]

1:10 when Hannah was in bitter soul, she prayed the Lord, and wept largely;/and when she was in bitter sorrow of soul, she prayed the Lord, and wept largely; [when Hanna was in bitter inwit, she prayed the Lord, weeping largely;]

1:11 and (she) made a vow, and said, Lord God of hosts, if thou beholdest,

1:8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I better to thee than ten sons?

1:9 So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest sat upon a seat by a post of the temple of the LORD.

1:10 And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore.

1:11 And she vowed a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look and seest the torment of thy servantess, and hast mind of me, and forgettest not thine handmaid, and givest to thy servantess a male kind, I shall give him to the Lord in all [the] days of his life, and a razor shall not ascend on his head./and she made a vow to the Lord, and said, Lord God of hosts, if thou beholdest, and seest the torment of thy servantess, and if thou hast mind of me, and forgettest not thine handmaid, and givest a son to thy servantess, I shall give him to the Lord all the days of his life, and a razor shall not come upon his head. [and a vow she vowed, saying, Lord God of hosts, if beholding thou see the tormenting of thy servant, and were recorded of me (and she vowed a vow, saying, Lord God of hosts, if beholding thou see the tormenting of thy servant, and remember me), nor forgettest thine handmaiden, and givest to thy servant (a) male kind, I shall give him to the Lord all the days of his life, and (a) razor shall not go upon his head.]

1:12 And it was done, when she multiplied her prayers before the Lord, that Eli espied her mouth.

1:13 Forsooth Hannah spake in her heart, and only her lips were moved, and utterly her voice was not heard (and her voice was utterly not heard). Therefore Eli guessed her drunken, [Forsooth Hannah spake in her heart, and only the lips of her were moved, and the voice of her was not fully heard. Eli therefore esteemed her drunken,]

1:14 and he said to her, How long shalt thou be drunken? Void thou a little the wine (Void thou the wine a little), by on the affliction of thine handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid a man child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head.

1:12 And it came to pass, as she continued praying before the LORD, that Eli marked her mouth.

1:13 Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken.

1:14 And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee.

1:15 Hannah answered, and said, Nay, my lord, for I am a wretched woman greatly (for I am a greatly wretched woman); I drank not wine, and all thing that may make drunken, but I shedded out my soul in the sight of the Lord;/Hannah answered, and said, Nay, my lord, for I am an unhappy woman; I have not drunk wine, neither any thing that may make drunken, but I have poured out my soul in the Lord's sight; [Hannah answering, Nay, she saith, my lord, for a woman well much wretchful I am; for wine and all that may make drunken I drank not, but I have poured out my soul in the sight of the Lord; (Hannah answering saith, Nay, my lord, for I am a woman well much wretchful; I drank not of wine nor any thing that may make drunken, but I have poured out my soul in the sight of the Lord;)]

1:16 guess thou not thine handmaid as one of the daughters of Belial, for of the multitude of my sorrow and mourning I spake till into present time./for of the multitude of my sorrow and of my mourning I have spoken unto this present time. [not hold thou thine handwoman as one of the daughters of Belial, for of the multitude of sorrow and of my mourning I have spoken unto now.]

1:17 Then Eli said to her, Go thou in peace, and (the) God of Israel give to 1:15 And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD.

1:16 Count not thine handmaid for a daughter of Belial: for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief have I spoken hitherto.

1:17 Then Eli answered and said, Go in peace: and the God of Israel grant thee thee the asking that thou hast prayed him. [Then Eli saith to her, Go in peace, and God of Israel give to thee the asking that thou hast prayed him.]

1:18 And she said, I would that thine handmaid find grace in thine eyes./And Hannah said, Would God that thine handmaid find grace in thine eyes. And the woman went into her way, and ate, and her cheers were no more changed diversely (And the woman went her way, and ate, and her face was sad no more).

1:19 And they rised (up) early, and worshipped before the Lord; and they turned again, and came into their house in Ramah. Forsooth Elkanah knew fleshly Hannah, his wife (Forsooth Elkanah knew Hannah, his wife, fleshly); and the Lord thought on her./And Elkanah and his family arose up early, and they worshipped before the Lord; and they turned again, and came into their house in Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah, his wife; and the Lord thought on her. [And they arose early, and honoured before the Lord; and be turned again, and came into their house in Ramah. Forsooth Elkanah knew Hannah, his wife; and the Lord is recorded of her (and the Lord remembered her).]

1:20 And it was done after the compass of days, Hannah conceived, and childed a son, and called his name Samuel; for she had asked him of the Lord. [And done it is after the circle of days (And it was done after the circle of days), Hannah conceived, and bare a child, and called his name Samuel; for-thy that she had asked him thy petition that thou hast asked of him.

1:18 And she said, Let thine handmaid find grace in thy sight. So the woman went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more sad.

1:19 And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and the LORD remembered her.

1:20 Wherefore it came to pass, when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD.

1:21 And her husband Elkanah went up, and all his house, to offer a solemn sacrifice, and his avow to the Lord. (And her husband Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer to the Lord a solemn sacrifice, and his vow.) [Forsooth her man Elkanah went up, and all his house (Forsooth her man Elkanah and all his house went up), for to offer to the Lord a solemn host, and his vow.]

1:22 And Hannah ascended not (But Hannah ascended not), for she had said to her husband, I shall not go (up), till the young child be weaned, and till I lead him, and he appear before the sight of the Lord, and dwell there till into the world./And Hannah went not up to that solemnity (But Hannah went not up to that feast), for she had said to her husband, I shall not go (up), till the young child be weaned, and till I lead him thither, and he appear before the Lord's sight, and dwell there continually.

1:23 And Elkanah, her husband, said to her, Do thou that that seemeth good to thee, and dwell thou still till thou have weaned him; and I beseech, that the Lord [ful]fill his word. Therefore the woman abode, and gave milk to her son, till the time (that) she removed him from the milk. [And Elkanah, her man, saith to her, Do that (that) is seen to thee (to be) good, and dwell to the time that thou wean him; and I pray, that the Lord fulfill his word. Then the woman abode, and gave her son milk, to the time that (s)he should move him away from the milk.]

1:21 And the man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow.

1:22 But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there abide for ever.

1:23 And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; only the LORD establish his word. So the woman abode, and gave her son suck until she weaned him.

1:25 And they sacrificed a calf, and they offered the child to Eli. [And they slew a calf, and offered the child to Eli.]

2:7 The Lord maketh poor, and he maketh rich; he maketh low, and he raiseth up.

2:4 The bows of the mighty men are broken, and they that stumbled are girded with strength.

2:5 They that were full have hired out themselves for bread; and they that were hungry ceased: so that the barren hath born seven; and she that hath many children is waxed feeble.

2:6 The LORD killeth, and maketh alive: he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up.

20:4 And Jonathan said to David, Whatever thing thy soul shall say to me, I shall do it to thee (I shall do it for thee). [And Jonathan saith to David, Whatever thing thy soul saith to me, I shall do to thee.]

20:4 Then said Jonathan unto David, Whatsoever thy soul desireth, I will even do it for thee.

20:5 And David said to Jonathan, Lo! calends be to morrow, that is the feast of the new moon, and by custom I am wont to sit by the king to eat; therefore suffer thou me, that I be hid in the field till to [the] eventide of the third day. [And David said to Jonathan, Lo! calends be to morrow, and I of manner am wont to sit beside the king to eat; let me (go) then, that I be hid in the field unto the even of the third day.]

20:5 And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, to morrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field unto the third day at even.

20:6 If thy father beholdeth, and asketh after me, thou shalt answer to him, David prayed me, that he should go swiftly into Bethlehem, his city, for solemn sacrifices be there to all the men of his lineage (for there be solemn sacrifices there for all the men of his lineage)./And if thy father beholdeth, and asketh after me, thou shalt answer to him, David prayed me, that he might go at once into Bethlehem, his city, for solemn sacrifices be now there to all [the] men of his lineage (for now there be solemn sacrifices there for all the men of his lineage). Chapter 1

1:1 And it was done, after that Saul was dead, that David turned again from the slaying of Amalek (that David turned again from the slaying of the Amalekites), and he dwelled two days in Ziklag. [Forsooth it is done, after that Saul is dead, that David was turned again from the slaughter of Amalek, and dwelled in Ziklag two days (and dwelled two days in Ziklag).]

1:1 Now it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag;

1:2 And in the third day a man appeared, coming from the tents of Saul with a cloak* rent, and his head sprinkled with dust; and as he came to David, he felled upon his face, and worshipped him. [Forsooth in the third day appeared a young man, (out) of the tents of Saul, with (a) rent cloth, and sprinkled the head with powder (Forsooth in the third day a young man appeared, out of the tents of Saul, with a torn cloak, and the head sprinkled with dust); and as he came to David, he fell upon his face, and bowed low.]

1:2 It came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

1:3 And David said to him, From whence comest thou? And he said to David, I fled from the tents of Israel. [And David said to him, Whence comest thou? The which saith to David, From the tents of Israel I flew (I flew from the tents of

1:4 And David said to him, What is the word that is done there (What was the thing that was done there); show thou to me. And he said, The people of Israel hath fled from the battle, and many of the people felled, and be dead; but also Saul, and Jonathan, his son, have perished. [And David said to him, What is the word that is done; show to me. The which saith, The people flew from the battle, and many falling of the people be dead (and many of the people falling be dead); but and Saul, and Jonathan, his son, have died.]

1:5 And David said to the young man, that told to him, Whereof knowest thou, that Saul is dead, and Jonathan, his son? (And David said to the young man that told him this, Whereof knowest thou, that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead?) [And David said to the young man, that told to him, Whereby knowest this, that Saul is dead, and Jonathan, his son?]

1:6 And the young man said, that told to him, By hap I came into the hill of Gilboa, and Saul leaned upon his spear; and (the) chariots and horsemen nighed to him; (And the young man that told him said, By hap I came upon the hill of Gilboa, and Saul leaned upon his spear; and the chariots and horsemen nighed to him;)

1:5 And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead?

1:6 And the young man that told him said, As I happened by chance upon mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear; and, lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

1:10 And I stood upon him, and I killed him;/and I slew him; for I knew that he might not live after the falling; and I took the diadem, that was on his head, and the band from his arm, and I have brought them hither to thee, my lord.

1:11 Forsooth David took and rent his clothes, and (likewise) [all] the men that were with him;

1:10 So I stood upon him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord.

1:11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent them; and likewise all the men that were with him:

Chapter 11

11:1 Forsooth it was done, when the year turned again, in that time wherein kings be wont to go forth to battles, David sent (out) Joab, and with him his servants, and all Israel; and they destroyed the sons of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah; forsooth David dwelled in Jerusalem./And it was done, when the year turned again, in that time in which kings be wont to go forth to battles, David sent forth Joab, and with him his servants, and all Israel; and they destroyed the sons of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah; and David dwelled in Jerusalem. [Forsooth it is done, turning the year, (in) that time (in) the which kings be wont to go forth to battles, David sent Joab, and with him his servants, and all Israel; and they wasted the sons of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah; forsooth David abode still in Jerusalem.]

11:2 While these things were done, it befelled, that David rose in a day from his bed after midday, and walked in the solar of the king's house; and he saw a woman washing herself even against on her solar; soothly the woman was full fair./and he saw a woman washing herself even against him upon her solar; and the woman was full fair (and he saw a woman washing herself opposite him upon her solar; and the woman was full fair). [While these things were done, it fell, that David rose on a day from his bed after midday, and went in the solar of the king's house; and he saw a woman washing her(self) over against upon her solar; forsooth she was a full fair woman.]

11:1 And it came to pass, after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried still at Jerusalem.

11:2 And it came to pass in an eveningtide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon.

(And there were four leprous men beside the entering of the city's gate, and they said together, Why be we here till we die?) [Then four leprous men were beside the entry of the gate, the which said together, What will we be here, to the time that we die?]

7:4 Whether we will enter into the city, we shall die for hunger; whether we dwell here, we shall die. Therefore come ye, and flee we over to the tents of Syria; if they shall spare us, we shall live; soothly if they will slay us, nevertheless we shall (but) die. [Whether we will go into the city, by hunger we shall die; whether we shall dwell here, to die it is to us. after that, (that) is written in the book of this peace covenant.}]

23:22 Certainly such a pask was not made, from the days of (the) judges that deemed Israel, and of all the days of the kings of Israel, and of Judah (nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, or of Judah), [Not forsooth there is made such a pask, from the days of judges, that deemed Israel, and of all the days of the kings of Israel, and of the kings of Judah, (Forsooth there was not made such a pask, from the days of the judges that deemed Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, or of the kings of Judah,)]

23:23 as this pask (that) was made to the Lord in Jerusalem in the eighteenth year of king Josiah. [as (that) in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, (when) this pasch is made to the Lord in Jerusalem.}]

23:24 But also Josiah did away men having fiends speaking in their wombs, and false diviners in altars, and he did away the figures of idols (And also Josiah did away men having fiends speaking in their wombs, and false diviners at altars, and the figures of idols), and all [the] uncleannesses, and [the] abominations, that were in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he should do the words of the law, that were written in the book, that Hilkiah, the priest, found in the temple of the Lord. [But and the callers of devils, and diviners, and the figures of maumets, and the uncleannesses, and the abominations, that were in the land of Judah and of Jerusalem, Josiah did away, that he make stable the words of the law, that be written in the book that Hilkiah, the priest, found in the temple of the Lord.}]

23:22 Surely there was not holden such a passover from the days of the judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah;

23:23 But in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, wherein this passover was holden to the LORD in Jerusalem.

23:24 Moreover the workers with familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

II KINGS

Wycliffe-Purvey, 1395

KJV, 1611

23:25 No king before him was like him, that turned again to the Lord in all his heart, and in all his soul, and in all his strength*, by all the law of Moses; neither after him (there) rose (up) any like him. (There was no king like him before him, that had turned again to the Lord with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his strength, by all the law of Moses; neither there rose up any like him after him.)/No king before him in Judah was like himself, that turned to the Lord in all his heart, and in all his soul, and in all his strength*, after all the law of Moses; neither after him (there) rose (up) any like to him. (There was no king like him before him, that had turned to the Lord with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his strength, after all the law of Moses; neither there rose up any like him after him.) [Like him was not before him a king (Before him there was not a king like him), that was turned again to the Lord in all his heart, and in all his soul, and in all his virtue, after all the law of Moses; nor after him (there) rose (up any) like to him.]

23:26 Nevertheless the Lord was not turned away from the ire of his great vengeance, by which his strong vengeance was wroth against Judah, for the stirrings to ire by which Manasseh had stirred him to ire/for the stirrings of ire by which Manasseh had stirred him to wrath. [Neverthelater the Lord is not turned away from the wrath of his great vengeance, in the which his vengeance is wroth against Judah, for the stirrings in the which Manasseh had stirred him (to wrath).]

23:27 Therefore the Lord said, I shall do
