Chapter 5

5:1 And the Lord spake to Moses, and said [saying],

5:2 Command thou to the sons of Israel, that they cast out of the tents each leprous man, and (he) that floweth out the seed, and (anyone) that is defouled upon a dead body; [Command to the sons of Israel, that they cast out of the tents all leprous, and that floweth seed, and is polluted upon the dead;]

5:3 cast ye out of the tents, as well a male as a female, lest they defoul those, when they dwell with you. (cast ye out of the tents, a male as well as a female, lest they defoul the tents, when they dwell with you.) [as well the male as the female casteth out of the tents, lest they defoul them, when they dwell with you. (casteth out of the tents the male as well as the female, lest they defoul hem, when they dwell with you.)]

5:4 And the sons of Israel did so; and they putted them out of the tents, as the Lord spake to Moses.

5:5 And the Lord spake to Moses, and said [saying],

5:6 Speak thou to the sons of Israel, When a man either a woman hath done any of all (of) the sins that be wont to fall to men, and have broken by negligence the behest of the Lord, and

Chapter 5

5:1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

5:2 Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one that hath an issue, and whosoever is defiled by the dead:

5:3 Both male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them; that they defile not their camps, in the midst whereof I dwell.

5:4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them out without the camp: as the LORD spake unto Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5:5 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

5:6 Speak unto the children of Israel, When a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be guilty;

Chapter 9

9:1 And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying, 9:2 Let the children of Israel also keep the passover at his appointed season.

9:3 In the fourteenth day of this month, at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it.

9:4 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover.

9:5 And they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at even in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

11:2 And when the people had cried to Moses, Moses prayed [to] the Lord, and the fire was quenched.

11:2 And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses prayed unto the LORD, the fire was quenched.

11:3 And he called the name of that place Burning (And he called the name of that place Taberah), for the fire of the Lord was kindled against them.

11:3 And he called the name of the place Taberah: because the fire of the LORD burnt among them.

11:4 And the common people of men and women, that had gone up with them, burnt with desire of flesh (burnt with desire for flesh), and they sat, and wept, with the sons of Israel joined together with them, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat?

11:4 And the mixed multitude that was among them fell a lusting: and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat?

11:5 We think on the fishes which we ate in Egypt freely (We think on the fishes which we freely ate in Egypt); [the] gourds, and melons, and leeks, and onions, and garlics come into mind to us;/We think upon the fish that we ate in Egypt freely (We think upon the fish that we freely ate in Egypt); [the] gourds, and melons, and leeks, and onions, and [the] garlic come into our mind; [We record of the fishes that we ate in Egypt gladly; into mind come to us the gourds, and the pepones, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlics; (We remember the fishes that we gladly ate in Egypt; the gourds, and the pepones, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlics come into mind to us);]

11:5 We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic:

11:9 And when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

11:10 Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent: and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly; Moses also was displeased.

DEUTERONOMY

Wycliffe-Purvey, 1395

20:19 When thou hast besieged a city in much time, and hast compassed (it) with strong holds that thou overcome it, thou shalt not cut down (the) trees, of which men may eat, neither thou shalt waste the country(side) by compass with axes; for it is a tree, and not a man, neither it may increase the number of fighters against thee./When thou hast besieged a city by long time, and thou hast compassed it with strong holds that thou overcome it, thou shalt not cut down the trees, of which fruit may be eaten, neither thou shalt waste the country(side) about with axes; for it is wood, and no man, neither it may increase the number of fighters against thee. [When thou besiegest a city much time, and with wards environest that thou overcome it, thou shalt not cut down trees, of which may be eaten, nor by environ with axes thou shalt waste the region; for a tree it is, and no man, nor it may increase the number of men fighting against thee. (When thou besiegest a city much time, and environest it with wards that thou overcome it, thou shalt not cut down the trees, which may be eaten, nor thou shalt waste the region by environ with axes; for it is a tree, and not a man, nor it may increase the number of men fighting against thee.)]

20:20 Forsooth if any be not apple trees, but of the field, and be able into other uses, cut (them) down, and make thou engines, till thou take the city that fighteth against thee./And if any of them be not apple trees, but be wild, and able into other uses, cut them down, and make of them engines (and make engines of them), till thou take the city that fighteth against thee. [Forsooth if any trees be not bearing apples,

KJV, 1611

20:19 When thou shalt besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by forcing an ax against them: for thou mayest eat of them, and thou shalt not cut them down (for the tree of the field is man's life) to employ them in the siege:

20:20 Only the trees which thou knowest that they be not trees for meat, thou shalt destroy and cut them down; and thou shalt build bulwarks against the city that maketh war with thee, until it be subdued.

Chapter 21

21:1 When the carrion of a man slain is found in the land which thy Lord God shall give to thee, and he that is guilty of his death is unknown, (When the carrion of a slain man is found in the land which thy Lord God shall give to thee, and he that is guilty of his death is unknown,) [When there were found in the land that the Lord thy God is to give to thee, a carrion of a slain man, and shall be unknown the (one) guilty of the death (and the one guilty of his death shall be unknown),]

21:2 the greater men in birth and thy judges shall go out, and they shall mete from the place of the carrion the spaces of all the cities by compass/about; [the more-through-birth shall go out, and thy doomsmen (the more-through-birth and thy doomsmen shall go out), and the spaces of all the cities by environ shall be meted from the place of the carrion;]

21:3 and which city they see to be nearer (to) that carrion, than another, the elder men of that city shall take of [the] drove a cow calf (the elder men of that city shall take a cow calf from the drove), that hath not drawn yoke, neither hath cut the earth with a (plow)share; [and which (city) they behold (to) be near(er) than (the) other, the alder men of that city shall take a she calf from the drove, that hath not taken yoke, nor land hath cut with (a plow)share (nor hath cut the land with a plowshare);]

Chapter 21

21:1 If one be found slain in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it be not known who hath slain him:

21:2 Then thy elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that is slain:

21:3 And it shall be, that the city which is next unto the slain man, even the elders of that city shall take an heifer, which hath not been wrought with, and which hath not drawn in the yoke;

21:4 and they shall lead that cow calf to a sharp valley, and full of stones, that was never eared, neither received seed;/and they shall lead that cow calf to a sharp stony valley, that was never eared, nor received seed; and in that valley they shall cut the head off (of) the cow calf (and in that valley they shall cut off the head of the cow calf). [and they shall lead it to the rough valley, and stony, that never was eared, nor seed hath received; and they shall cut in it the skulls of the calf. (and they shall lead it to the rough and stony valley, that was never eared, nor hath received seed; and they shall cut off the skull of the calf.)]

21:5 And the priests, the sons of Levi, shall nigh nigh, which the Lord God chose, that they minister to him, and bless in his name, and all the cause shall hang at their word; and whatever thing is clean either unclean, be deemed./and whatever thing is clean either unclean, be it deemed by them. [And priests, the sons of Levi, whom the Lord thy God hath chosen, that they serve to him, and bless in his name, shall go to, and at the word of them all the need shall hang (and all the need shall hang at the word of them); and whatever thing is clean or unclean, be it deemed.]

21:6 And the greater men in birth of that city shall come to the slain man, and they shall wash their hands on the cow calf, that was slain in the valley (and they shall wash their hands over the cow calf, that was slain in the valley); [And the more-through-birth of that city shall come to the slain man, and they shall wash their hands upon the she calf, that is smitten in the valley;]

21:4 And the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer unto a rough valley, which is neither eared nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley:

21:5 And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them the LORD thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the LORD; and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried:

21:6 And all the elders of that city, that are next unto the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley:

21:8 Lord, be merciful to thy people
Israel, whom thou hast again-bought, and areckon thou not innocent blood in the midst of thy people Israel (and areckon thou not innocent blood to the charge of thy people Israel). And the guilt of (the) blood shall be done away from them. [Lord, be mercyable to thy people Israel, that thou hast bought, and reckon not the innocent blood in the middle of thy people Israel. And the guilt of blood shall be taken away from them.]

21:9 Forsooth thou shalt be alien from the blood of the innocent which is shed, when thou hast done that that the Lord commanded. (Forsooth thou shalt be alien from the innocent blood which is shed, when thou hast done that that the Lord commanded.)/For thou shalt be

21:7 And they shall answer and say,
Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.

21:8 Be merciful, O LORD, unto thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, and lay not innocent blood unto thy people of Israel's charge. And the blood shall be forgiven them.

21:9 So shalt thou put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

lo! these be the tokens of the virginity of my daughter; they shall spread forth a cloth before the elder men of the city. [he putteth to her a most evil name, that he say, I have not found thy daughter (a) maid (I have found thy daughter not a maid); and lo! these be the tokens of the maidenhood of my daughter; and they shall spread out the clothing before the alder men/the elders of the city.]

22:18 And the elder men of that city shall take the man, and shall beat him, [And the alder men of the city shall take the man of her, and they shall beat him,]

22:19 and furthermore they shall condemn him in an hundred shekels of silver, which he shall give to the father of the damsel,/which he shall give to the damsel's father, for he defamed her by the worst name upon a virgin of Israel; and he shall have her [to] wife, and he shall not be able to forsake her, in all his lifetime. (and furthermore they shall fine him an hundred shekels of silver, which he shall give to the father of the damsel,/which he shall give to the damsel's father, for he defamed her by the worst name upon a virgin of Israel; and he shall have her for a wife, and he shall not be able to forsake her, in all his lifetime.) [condemning also in an hundred shekels of silver, that he shall give to the father of the maid, for he hath loosed the most evil name upon a maiden of Israel; and he shall have her to wife, and he shall not be able to leave her, all the time of his life.]

Wycliffe-Purvey, 1395

Chapter 1

1:1 And it was done after the death of Moses, the servant of the Lord, that the Lord spake to Joshua, the son of Nun, the minister of Moses/the servant of Moses, and said to him,

1:2 Moses, my servant is dead; rise thou, and pass [over] this Jordan, thou, and all the people with thee, into the land which I shall give to the sons of Israel. [Moses, my servant is dead; rise, and pass over this Jordan, thou, and all the people with thee, into the land that I shall give to the sons of Israel.]

1:3 I shall give to you each place which the step of your foot shall tread, as I spake to Moses, [Each place that the step of your foot shall tread, to you I shall take, as I spake to Moses, (Each place that the step of your foot shall tread, I shall give to you, as I spake to Moses,)]

1:4 from the desert and Lebanon till to the great flood [of] Euphrates; all the land of Hittites, unto the great sea against the going down of the sun, shall be your term. 1:1 Now after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD it came to pass, that the LORD spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying,

1:2 Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Israel.

1:3 Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses.

1:4 From the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast.

1:5 None shall be able to against-stand you in all the days of thy life; as I was with Moses, so I shall be with thee; I shall not leave (thee), neither I shall forsake thee. [None shall be able to you to against-stand all the days of thy life (None shall be able to stand against you all the days of thy life); as I was with Moses, so I shall be with thee; I shall not leave, nor forsake thee.]

1:6 Be thou comforted, and be thou strong; for thou shalt part by lot to this people the land, for which I swore to thy fathers, that I should give it to them. (Be thou of good courage, and be thou strong; for thou shalt part by lot the land to this people, for which I swore to thy fathers, that I would give it to them.) [The volume of this law go not away from thy mouth, but thou shalt devoutly think in it days and nights, that thou keep and do all things that be written in it; then thou shalt make ready thy way, and understand it.]

1:9 Lo! I command to thee; be thou comforted, and be thou strong (be thou of good courage, and be thou strong); do not thou dread, nor be thou afeared; for thy Lord God is with thee in all things, to which thou goest. [I command to thee; take comfort, and be strong; do thou not dread, and do thou not be (a)feared; for with thee is the Lord thy God in all things, to whatever things thou shalt go, (I command to thee; take courage, and be strong; do not thou dread, and do not thou be afeared; for the Lord thy God is with thee in all things, to whatever things thou shalt go,)]

1:10 And Joshua commanded to the princes of the people, and said [saying],

1:11 Pass ye through the midst of the castles, and command ye to the people,

1:8 This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.

1:9 Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

3:1 Therefore Joshua rose by night, and moved thence the tents; and they went out of Shittim, and came to Jordan, he and all the sons of Israel, and dwelled there three days. [Therefore Joshua, from night arising (arising by night), moved the tents; and they going from Shittim came to Jordan, he and all the sons of Israel, and dwelt there by three days.]

3:1 And Joshua rose early in the morning; and they removed from Shittim, and came to Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they passed over.

3:2 And when those days were passed, criers/beadles went through the midst of the tents,

3:2 And it came to pass after three days, that the officers went through the host;

3:3 and began to cry, When ye see the ark of [the] bond of peace of your Lord God, and the priests of the generation of Levi bearing it, also then rise ye (then also rise ye), and follow the before-goers; [and began to cry, When ye see the ark of the bond of peace of the Lord our God, and priests of the lineage of Levi bearing it, forsooth ye together riseth, and follow ye the fore-goers;]

3:3 And they commanded the people, saying, When ye see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it.

3:4 and a space of two thousand cubits be betwixt you and the ark, that ye be able to see [a]far, and know by what way ye shall enter, for ye went not before by it (for ye went not this way before); and be ye ware, that ye nigh not to the ark./and a space of two thousand cubits be betwixt you and the ark, that ye be able to see [a]far, and know by which way ye shall enter, for ye have not gone before by it (for ye have not gone this way before); and be ye ware, that ye nigh not to the ark. Chapter 14

14:1 This is the possession that the sons of Israel wielded in the land of Canaan, which land Eleazar the priest, and Joshua, the son of Nun, and the princes of the families of the lineages of Israel gave to them,

14:2 and these (men) parted all things by lot, as the Lord commanded in the hand of Moses (as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses), to the nine lineages, and to the half lineage. [by lot all things dividing, as the Lord commanded in the hand of Moses, to (the) nine lineages, and to an half lineage. (dividing all things by lot, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, to the nine lineages, and to the half lineage.)]

14:3 For Moses had given to the two lineages and to the half lineage (a) possession over Jordan; (and) without the Levites, that took nothing of the land among their brethren;/For beyond Jordan Moses had given (a) possession to two lineages and to an half lineage; (and) without the deacons, that took nothing of the land among their brethren; [Forsooth Moses gave to the two lineages and to the half lineage beyond Jordan (a) possession; (and) without the Levites, that nothing of earth took among their brethren; (Forsooth Moses gave to the two lineages and to the half lineage a possession beyond Jordan; and without the Levites, that took nothing of the earth among their brethren;)]

Chapter 14

14:1 And these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them.

14:2 By lot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe.

14:3 For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and an half tribe on the other side Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

[And the sons of Dan went up, and fought against Leshem, and took it, and smited it in mouth of sword, and wielded (it), and dwelt in it, calling (it by) the name of Leshem, Dan, of the name of Dan, his father (after the name of Dan, their father).]

19:47 And the coast of the children of Dan went out too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father.

19:48 This is the possession of the lineage of Dan, by their families, the cities, and the towns of those. [This is the possession of the lineage of Dan, by their kindreds, (the) cities, and little towns of them.]

19:48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

19:51 These be the possessions which Eleazar, the priest, and Joshua, the son of Nun, and the princes of the families, and of the lineages of the sons of Israel, parted by lot in Shiloh, before the Lord, at the door of the tabernacle of witnessing; and they parted the land. [These be the possessions that by lot divided Eleazar, the priest, and Joshua, the son of Nun, and the princes of the families, and of the lineages of the sons of Israel, in Shiloh, before the Lord, at the door of the tabernacle of witnessing, and (they) parted the land. (These be the possessions that Eleazar, the priest, and Joshua, the son of Nun, and the princes of the families, and of the lineages of the sons of Israel, divided by lot in Shiloh, before the Lord, at the door of the tabernacle of witnessing; and they parted the land.)]

19:50 According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, even Timnathserah in mount Ephraim: and he built the city, and dwelt therein.

19:51 These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. So they made an end of dividing the country.

Chapter 1

1:1 Now after the death of Joshua it came to pass, that the children of Israel asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them?

1:2 And the LORD said, Judah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

1:3 And Judah said unto Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. So Simeon went with him.

1:4 And Judah went up; and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men.

1:5 And they found Adonibezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and they slew the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

1:6 And Adonibezek fled, whom they pursued, and took (him) (and caught him), and they cut off the ends of his hands and of his feet.

1:6 But Adonibezek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

1:7 And Adonibezek said, Seventy kings, when the ends of their hands and of their feet were cut away, gathered remnants of meats under my board; as I have done, so God hath yielded to me. And they brought him into Jerusalem, and there he died.

1:7 And Adonibezek said, Threescore and ten kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered their meat under my table: as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

6:28 And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built.

6:29 And they said together, Who hath done this? And when they inquired (of) the doer of the deed, it was said, Gideon, the son of Joash, did all these things.

6:29 And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing.

6:30 And they said to Joash, Bring forth thy son hither, that he die, for he hath destroyed the altar of Baal, and hath cut down (all) the wood about it.

6:30 Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: because he hath cast down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the grove that was by it.

6:31 To whom Joash answered, Whether ye be the vengers of Baal, that ye fight for him? he that is (the) adversary of him, die, before that the light of the morrow day come;/he that is (the) adversary of him, die he, before the morrow light come; if he is God, venge he himself of him that hath cast down his altar (if he is a god, avenge he himself on him that hath cast down his altar).

6:38 And it was so: for he rose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.

6:39 And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew.

6:40 And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

Chapter 7

7:1 Then Jerubbaal, which also is Gideon, rose (up) by night, and all the people with him, and came to the well which is called Harod. And the tents of Midian were in the valley, at the north coast of the high hill.

7:1 Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people that were with him, rose up early, and pitched beside the well of Harod: so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley.

7:2 And the Lord said to Gideon, (Too) Much people is with thee, and Midian shall not be betaken into the hands thereof, lest Israel have glory against me, and say, I am delivered by my strengths (lest Israel take glory over me, and say, I am delivered by mine own strength)./And the Lord said to Gideon, (Too) Much people is with thee, and Midian shall not be betaken into the hands of it, lest Israel glory against me, and say, I am delivered by my strengths (lest Israel take glory over me, and say, I am delivered by mine own strength). [And the Lord said to Gideon, (Too) Much is the people with thee, and lest Israel glory against me, Midian shall not be taken into the hands of him, and lest he say, By my (own) strengths I am delivered.]

7:2 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved me.

7:3 Speak thou to the people, and preach thou, while all men hear, (and say,) He that is fearedful, and dreadful, turn again. And they went away from the hill of Gilead, and two and twenty thousand of men turned again from the people; and only ten thousand dwelled. [Speak to the people, and all hearing, preach, (saying,) Who is fearful and dready, turn he again. And there went again from the hill of Gilead, and be turned again of the people two and twenty thousand of men; and only ten thousand abided still.]

7:4 And the Lord said to Gideon, Yet the people is (too) much; lead thou them to the waters, and there I shall prove them, and he (shall) go with thee, of whom I shall say, that he go; and turn he again, whom I shall forbid to go. [And the Lord said to Gideon, Yet there is (too) much people; lead them to the waters, and there I shall prove them, and of whom I shall say to thee, that (shall) go with thee, he (shall) go; whom I shall forbid to go, he shall turn again.]

7:5 And when the people had gone down to the waters, the Lord said to Gideon, Thou shalt separate them by themselves, that lap waters with hand and tongue, as dogs be wont to lap; and those, that drink with knees bowed, shall be in the tother part. [And when the people was gone down to the waters, the Lord said to Gideon, Those that with hand and with tongue lap the waters (Those that lap the waters with hand and with tongue), as hounds be wont to lap, thou shalt sever them aside; forsooth those, that bowed the knees drinking, in that other part shall be (shall be in the other part).]

7:6 And so the number of them, that lapped waters, by the hand casting to the mouth, was three hundred men; and all the tother multitude drank kneeling.

7:7 And the Lord said to Gideon, In three hundred men, that lapped (the) waters (With the three hundred men that lapped the waters), I shall deliver you, and I shall betake Midian in(to)

7:4 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many; bring them down unto the water, and I will try them for thee there: and it shall be, that of whom I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

7:5 So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one that lappeth of the water with his tongue, as a dog lappeth, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down upon his knees to drink.

7:6 And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water.

7:7 And the LORD said unto Gideon, By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his 7:8 And [so] when they had taken meats and trumps for the number of them, he commanded all the tother multitude to go to their tabernacles; and he, with (those) three hundred men, gave himself to [the] battle. And the tents of Midian were beneath (him) in the valley.

7:9 In the same night the Lord said to him, Rise thou, and go down into their tents, for I have betaken them in(to) thine hand; [The same night the Lord said to him, Rise, and go down into the tents, for I have taken them in(to) thine hand;]

7:8 So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men: and the host of Midian was beneath him in the valley.

7:9 And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Arise, get thee down unto the host; for I have delivered it into thine hand.

7:10 But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host:

Chapter 20

20:1 Therefore all the sons of Israel went out, and were gathered together as one man, from Dan till to Beersheba, and (also) from the land of Gilead, to the Lord in Mizpeh;/And all the sons of Israel went, and gathered them(selves) together as one man, from Dan unto Beersheba, and (also) from the land of Gilead, to the Lord in Mizpeh;

20:1 Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Beersheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the LORD in Mizpeh.

20:2 and all the chiefs* of (the) peoples, and all the lineages of Israel, came together into the church of the people of God, four hundred thousand of footmen fighters (four hundred thousand footmen fighters)./four hundred thousand of fighting footmen. [and all the corners of peoples, and all the lineages of Israel, came together into the church of the people of God, four hundred thousand of footmen fighters.]

20:2 And the chief of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen that drew sword.

20:3 And it was not hid from the sons of Benjamin, that the sons of Israel had gone up into Mizpeh. [And it was not unknown to the sons of Benjamin, that the sons of Israel had gone up into Mizpeh.]

20:3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpeh.) Then said the children of Israel, Tell us, how was this wickedness?

20:4 And the deacon, [the] husband of the (secondary) wife that was slain, was asked, how so great (a) felony was done (How was so great a felony done?); and he answered, I came with my (secondary) wife into Gibeah of Benjamin, and I turned thither. For a child is born of thy daughter in law, that shall love thee, and he is better to thee, than if thou haddest seven sons. [and thou have (him) that comfort thy life, and nourish thine eld (age). Forsooth of thy daughter in law (he) is born, that shall love thee, and much better is to thee (and he is much better to thee), than though thou haddest seven sons.]

4:16 And Naomi putted the child received in her bosom (And Naomi received the child, and put him in her bosom); and she did the office of a nurse, and of a bearer(-about)./And Naomi putted the child, whom she received, in her bosom (And Naomi received the child, and put him in her bosom); and she did the office of a nourisher, and of a bearer-about. [And Naomi put the taken child in her bosom (And Naomi took the child, and put him in her bosom); and used the office of nurse, and of bearer.]

4:17 And [the] women neighbours thanked her, or joyed together with her, and said [saying], A son is born to Naomi; and they called his name Obed. This is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

4:18 These be the generations of Pharez; Pharez begat Hezron;

4:15 And he shall be unto thee a restorer of thy life, and a nourisher of thine old age: for thy daughter in law, which loveth thee, which is better to thee than seven sons, hath borne him.

4:16 And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it.

4:17 And the women her neighbours gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi; and they called his name Obed: he is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

4:18 Now these are the generations of Pharez: Pharez begat Hezron,
